BAYLOR

First Year Head Coach Guy Morriss

GUY MORRISS

HEAD COACH

2002 SEC Coach of the Year Guy Morriss returned to his native Texas last December to lead the Baylor football program. Morriss, who led Kentucky to a surprising seven-win season a year ago, brings his 15 years of NFL playing experience and 14-year coaching background to the intensely competitive Big 12 Conference. One of only three current I-A coaches to have played in a Super Bowl, Morriss will rely on his no-nonsense approach as he rebuilds the tradition-rich Baylor football program.

MEDIA OPPORTUNITIES AND SERVICES

Weekly Press Luncheon

Head coach Guy Morriss, Defensive Coordinator John Goodner, Offensive Coordinator Brent Pease and selected Baylor football players will meet with the media each Tuesday preceding a game in the Galloway Suite in the endzone of Floyd Casey Stadium. Lunch will be served at 11:30 a.m., followed by interviews.

Requests for specific interviews with players or assistant coaches should be made to the Media Relations Office by 4 p.m. Monday preceding the press luncheon.

Additional Interviews

In addition to the Tuesday media luncheon, Baylor players and coaches will be available for in-person or phone interviews following practice Monday through Wednesday. Coach interview requests should be directed to Scott Stricklin; player interview requests to Larry Little.

Player interviews must be coordinated through the Athletic Media Relations Office at least one day in advance. If a telephone interview is desired, the player will be provided with the number and will telephone the interviewer at a time that does not interfere with the student-athlete's academic schedule.

Baylor on the Web

Stats and news releases on Baylor Football and all 17 Baylor athletic programs are available 24 hours a day, seven days a week on Baylor's official athletic website: www.BaylorBears.com.

Big 12 Coaches Teleconference

Big 12 Conference coaches will be featured on a weekly teleconference each Monday at 10:00 a.m.-Noon (CT) beginning Aug. 19 and concluding Dec. 9.

Media representatives wishing to participate in the teleconference should consult the Big 12's weekly release or contact the Big 12 Media Relations Department for further details.

Each coach will be on the teleconference for 10 minutes, according to the following schedule:

10:00 a.m.	MARK MANGINO, Kansas
10:10 a.m.	BOB STOOPS, Oklahoma
10:20 a.m.	LES MILES, Oklahoma State
10:30 a.m.	BILL SNYDER, Kansas State
10:40 a.m.	GARY PINKEL, Missouri
10:50 a.m.	MIKE LEACH, Texas Tech
11:00 a.m.	GUY MORRIS, Baylor
11:10 a.m.	DAN McCARNEY, Iowa State
11:20 a.m.	MACK BROWN, Texas
11:30 a.m.	DENNIS FRANCHIONE, Texas A&M
11:40 a.m.	GARY BARNETT, Colorado
11:50 a.m.	FRANK SOLICH, Nebraska
Noon	Selected student-athletes

For those needing to hear a replay of the briefing, it will be available after 4 p.m. CT.

GAMEDAY MEDIA FACILITIES AND SERVICES

Dave Campbell Media Center

The Dave Campbell Media Center, located on the fifth level of the Floyd Casey Stadium skybox, opens three hours prior to game time. The working press box and TV booth are located in the center of the fifth floor, while the radio and coaches booths are at the far ends.

Press meals will be served from two hours before game time until kickoff. Media credentials are required for admittance to the press box and for meals.

Game notes, programs, media guides and statistics will be provided to all media members prior to the game. Play-by-play and quick statistics (at the end of each quarter), final team and individual statistics, defensive statistics, drive charts and coaches' quotes also will be provided. Complete sets of all information will be available approximately 20 minutes after the game.

Several "O-plus" telephone lines are available on a first-come, first-served basis in the working area. On game day, Baylor communications representatives will be on hand to handle any last-minute problems.

Baylor will provide a FAX machine for complimentary use on a first-come, first-served basis. Should you need assistance in sending, please contact a media relations staff member.

Sidelines

Baylor follows guidelines set forth by the NCAA Public Relations Committee, the NCAA Football Rules Committee, the American Football Coaches Association and the National Press Photographers Association. Photographers are not permitted to shoot between the 25-yard lines and must have credentials visible at all times.

In an effort to insure the best possible working conditions for media photographers, uniformed security personnel will be patrolling the sidelines. Anyone holding a media pass who is not actively involved in coverage of the game will be escorted from the sideline. Similar procedures will be in effect in the press box.

Postgame Interviews

The Baylor locker room is located below the North endzone. The visiting locker room is located beneath the east stands.

Baylor coach Guy Morriss and requested players will be available in the team meeting room approximately 10 minutes following the game. Baylor's locker room will remain closed following games.

Baylor University is committed to a policy of equal access for both male and female reporters and photographers.

The SID of the visiting school will establish admittance policies to the visiting locker room.

Websites

Fan-based websites, containing at least one or more of the following: chat rooms, message boards, recruiting information, scouting reports and links to news sites, as well as other fan-based features, shall not be issued credentials. Local and national organizations which maintain a news-based website in connection with its regular newspaper or magazine, as well as radio or television broadcast, shall be issued credentials on a game-by-game basis. Live, real-time updates of Baylor home games are the property of Baylor University and unauthorized transmission of such will not be permitted.

Unauthorized Use of Press Credentials

Press credentials will be issued to working press only. Press credentials are not transferable and use by anyone other than members of the working press is unauthorized. Press credentials used in an unauthorized manner will be revoked immediately. News organizations allowing unauthorized individuals to use credentials will have their credentials revoked for the remainder of the year.

PRESS CREDENTIALS

Working press and photographer credentials for Baylor's home games against UAB, SMU, Sam Houston State, Colorado, Texas, Texas Tech and Oklahoma State will be handled by Baylor Assistant AD for Communications Scott Stricklin.

All requests should be made in writing by sports editors or sports directors of accredited media outlets on company letterhead. All requests should be made as early as possible and should be limited to working press only. Requests made within seven days of the game may not be considered.

All credential requests should be sent to: Scott Stricklin, Assistant AD/Communications, Baylor Athletic Department, 150 Bear Run, Waco, TX 76711. ... FAX (254) 710-1369.

Credentials will be mailed to the requesting individual or organization if time permits or sent to the visiting school's sports information director for distribution. Credentials can also be picked up in the Media Relations Office located at Floyd Casey Stadium, or at press will call in the elevator lobby of Floyd Casey Stadium.

Media parking at Floyd Casey Stadium is available on a limited basis on the west side of the stadium. Requests for parking passes should be made well in advance to the Media Relations Office.

Baylor Bear Football will be available worldwide again this season through the broadcasts of the Baylor Radio Network. The Baylor Football broadcast team includes John Morris, Walter Abercrombie, and Ricky Thompson on the air in addition to producer Craig Harper and engineer Bob Baker.

In his 17th year broadcasting Baylor Football, John Morris serves as the play-by-play "Voice of the Bears" for football, as well as men's basketball. The 45-year-old Morris also hosts the daily "State Farm Baylor SportsBeat" on flagship station KRZI 1660 AM, daily Big-12 reports and co-hosts the award winning "Inside Baylor Sports" television show. The Kentucky native also serves as moderator for the newly created "Guy Talk," Tuesdays from 6-7 p.m. during the season. This is Morris' ninth year as the signature voice of Baylor Athletics since succeeding the legendary Frank Fallon.

Former All-Southwest Conference running back Walter Abercrombie returns for his fourth season as color analyst in the booth. Abercrombie, an eight-year NFL veteran and member of the Baylor Athletic Hall of Fame, is Baylor's all-time leading rusher. He has served under Grant Teaff as the Director of Education and Special Projects for the American Football Coaches Association since 1995.

A two-sport letter-winner who also is a member of Baylor's Athletic Hall of Fame, Ricky

Thompson is a former SWC long jump champion and was the Bears' leading receiver in 1975 before embarking on a seven-year NFL career. Thompson, who is in his fourth season providing sideline color and analysis, is currently Executive Vice-President and Director of the First National Bank of Central Texas.

Baylor's radio team also includes the multi-talented Craig Harper, who, in his 17th year as a member of the crew, serves as Executive Producer of the football broadcasts. Harper is the award-winning Director of Engineering for the Belo Corporation in Dallas and lives in Frisco, Texas.

Bob Baker returns for his fourth season as engineer of the football broadcasts. He also handles engineering duties for Baylor men's basketball and works as Texas State Facilities Manager for Little League Baseball headquartered in Waco.

Tom Barfield and Butch Henry of flagship stations KRZI-1660AM and KLRK-92.9FM begin each game-day broadcast with "Countdown to Kick-off, presented by State Farm," beginning two hours prior to kick-off each Saturday. The "Fifth Quarter Call-in Show" follows the network sign-off on KRZI.

Every play of Baylor Football 2003 plus "Guy Talk" and the "State Farm Baylor SportsBeat" are available worldwide on the internet at the official Baylor Athletic website: www.BaylorBears.com.

BAYLOR UNIVERSITY MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of Baylor University is to educate men and women for worldwide leadership and service by integrating academic excellence and Christian commitment within a caring community.

BAYLOR ATHLETICS MISSION STATEMENT

To support the overall mission of the University by providing a nationally competitive intercollegiate athletics program that attracts, nurtures, and graduates student-athletes who, under the guidance of a quality staff, pursue excellence in their respective sports, while representing Baylor with character and integrity. Consistent with the Christian values of the University, the department will carry out this mission in a way that reflects fair and equitable opportunity for all athletes and staff.

Baylor's Vision 2012

In September 2001, the Baylor University Board of Regents adopted a bold 10-year vision, called Baylor 2012. Baylor's vision for the future, though continuous with its cherished past, aspires to what few institutions, if any, have ever achieved. Within the course of a decade, Baylor intends to enter the top tier of American universities while reaffirming and deepening its distinctive Christian mission. Go to www.baylor.edu/vision for the full text of the Vision.

The following 12 imperatives, which reflect Baylor's foundational assumptions and core convictions, are designed to push the University to a new level of excellence, and will propel us into the ranks of the nation's Tier One colleges and universities.

Imperative I – Establish an environment where learning can flourish

Imperative II – Create a truly residential campus

Imperative III – Develop a world-class faculty

Imperative IV – Attract and support a top-tier student body

Imperative V – Initiate outstanding new academic programs in selected areas

Imperative VI – Guide all Baylor students, through academic and student life programming, to understand life as a stewardship and work as a vocation

Imperative VII – Provide outstanding academic facilities

Imperative VIII – Construct useful and aesthetically pleasing physical spaces

Imperative IX – Enhance involvement of the entire Baylor family

Imperative X – Build with integrity a winning athletic tradition in all sports

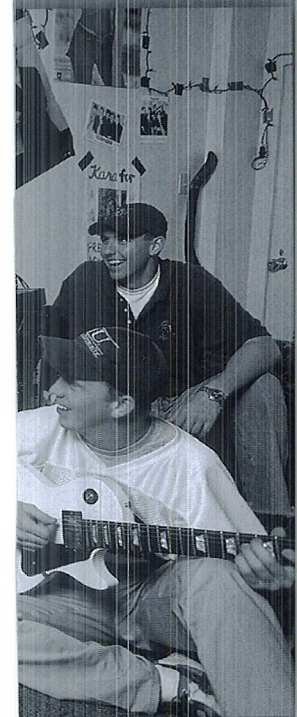

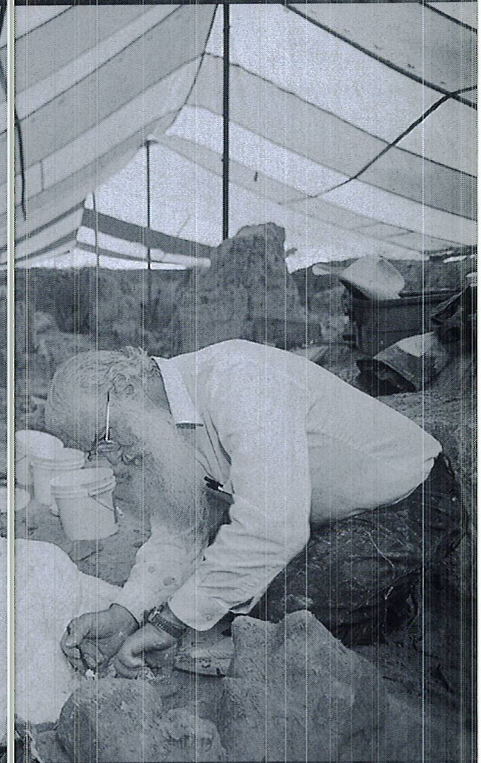

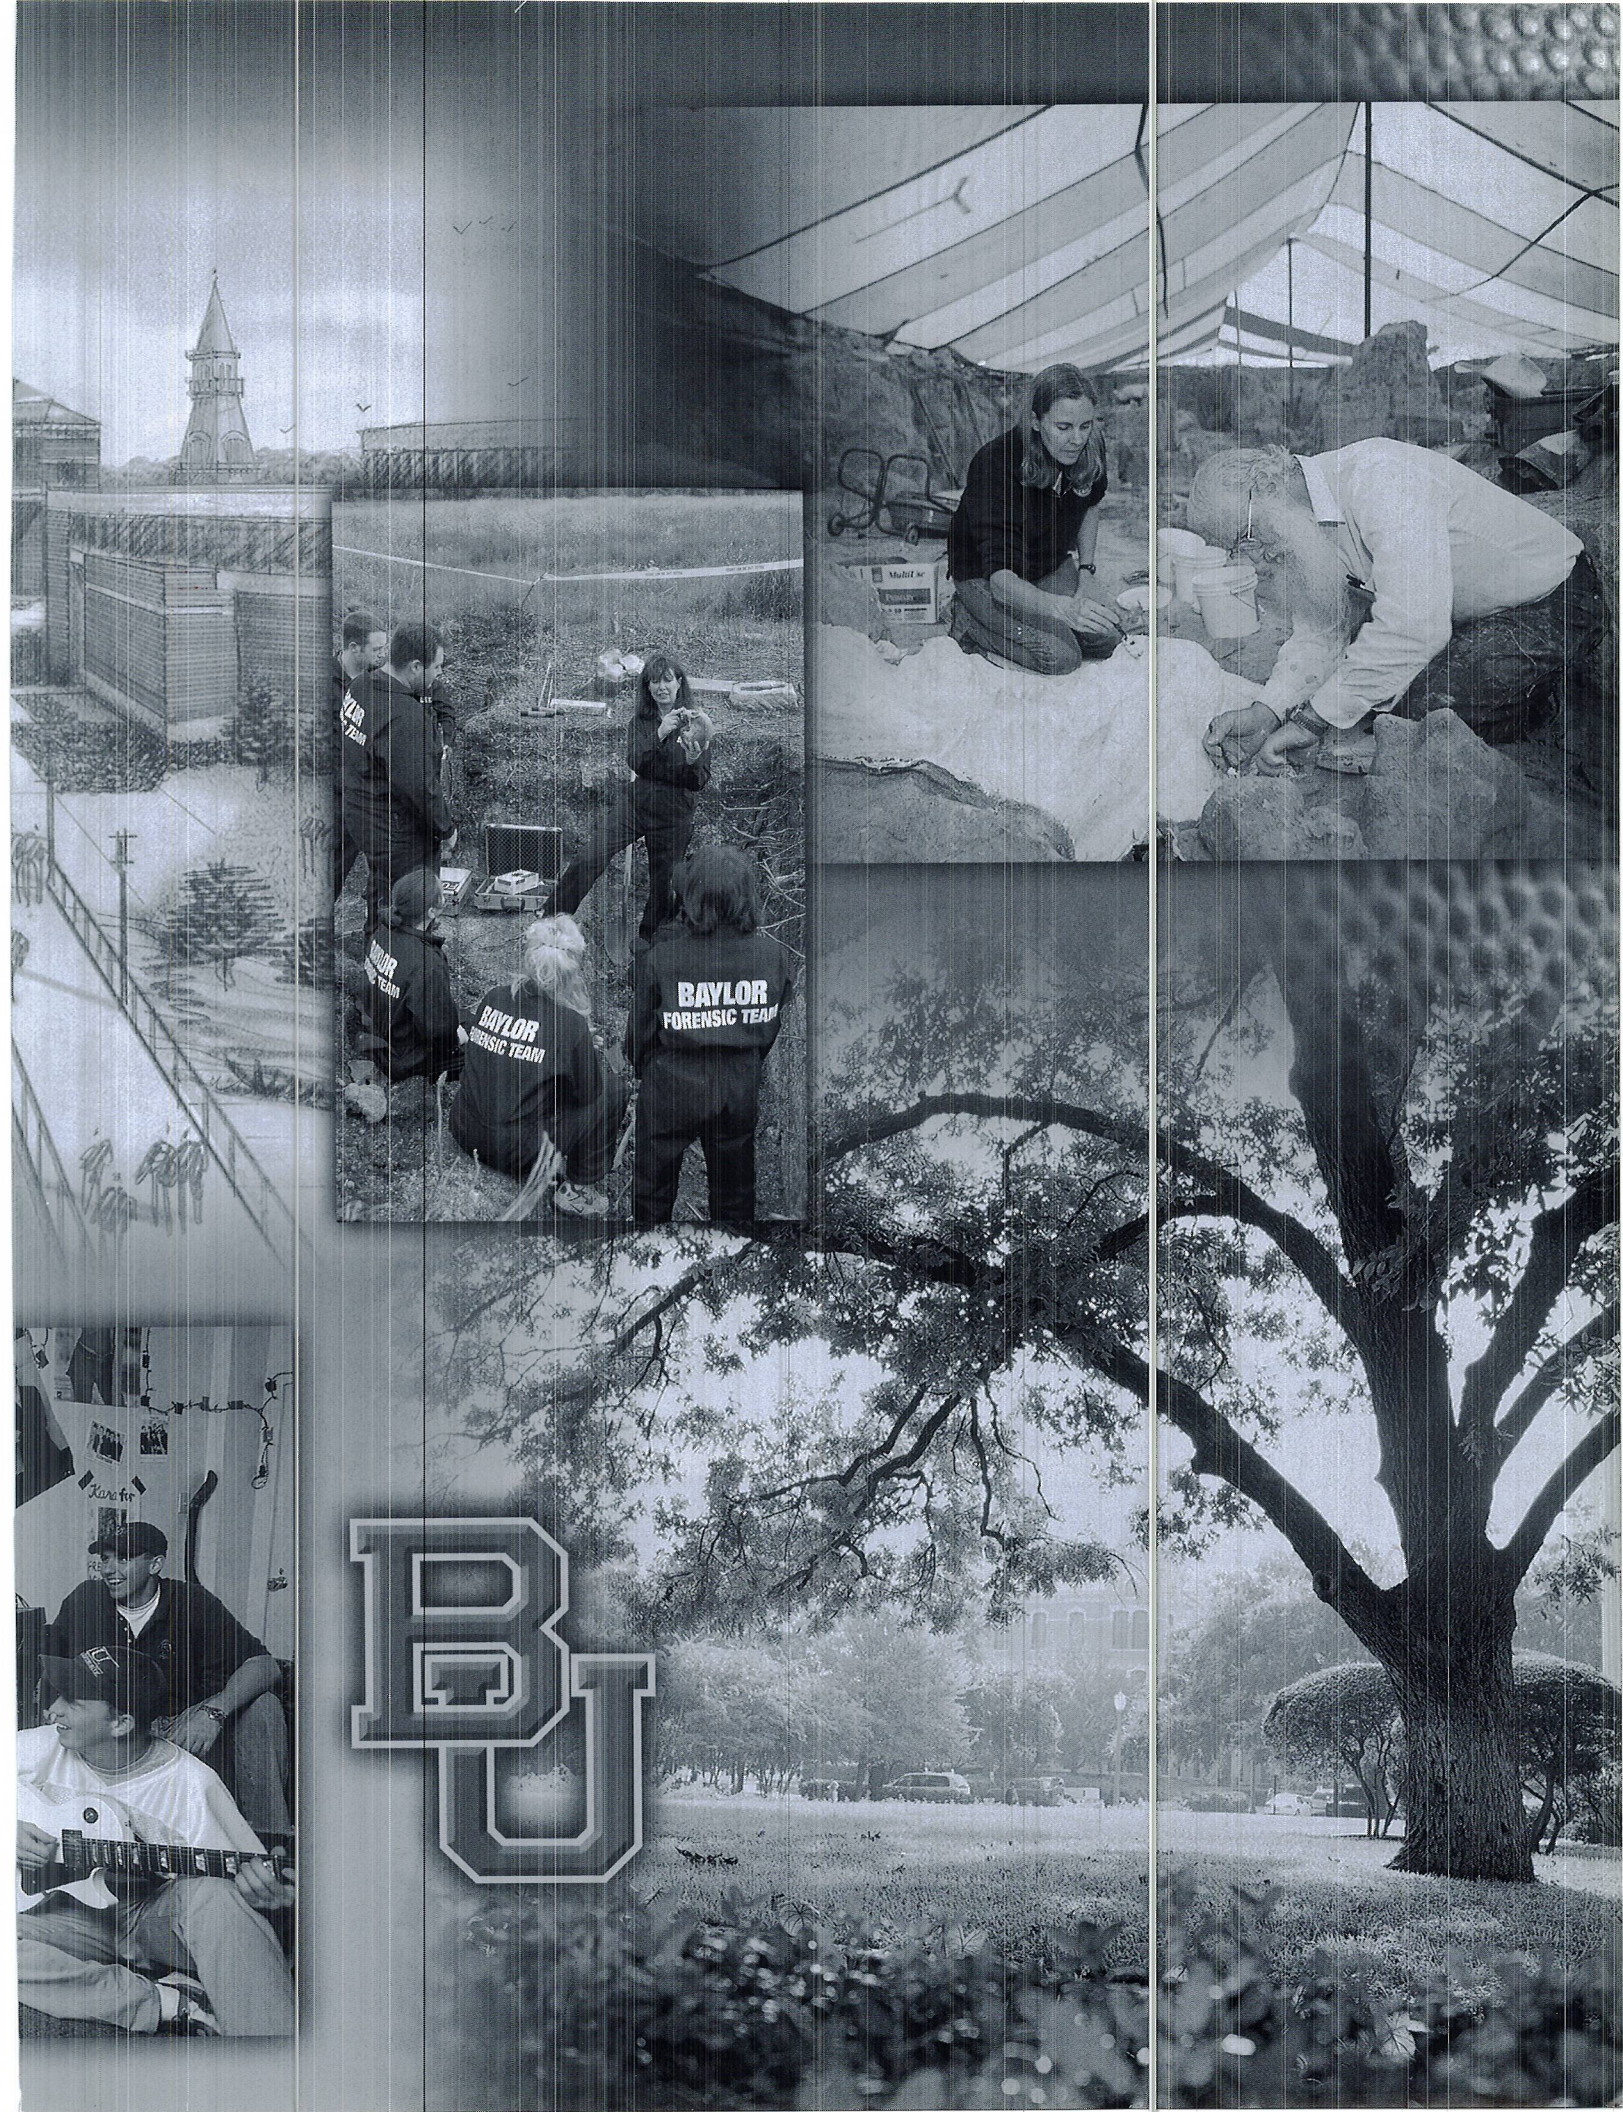

Imperative XI – Emphasize global education

BEARS

The methodology employed in John Williams' strength and conditioning program is based on the future development of the athletes to ensure that they become the best possible players on the field. The program considers the physical attributes that directly impact the athlete's performance during competition.

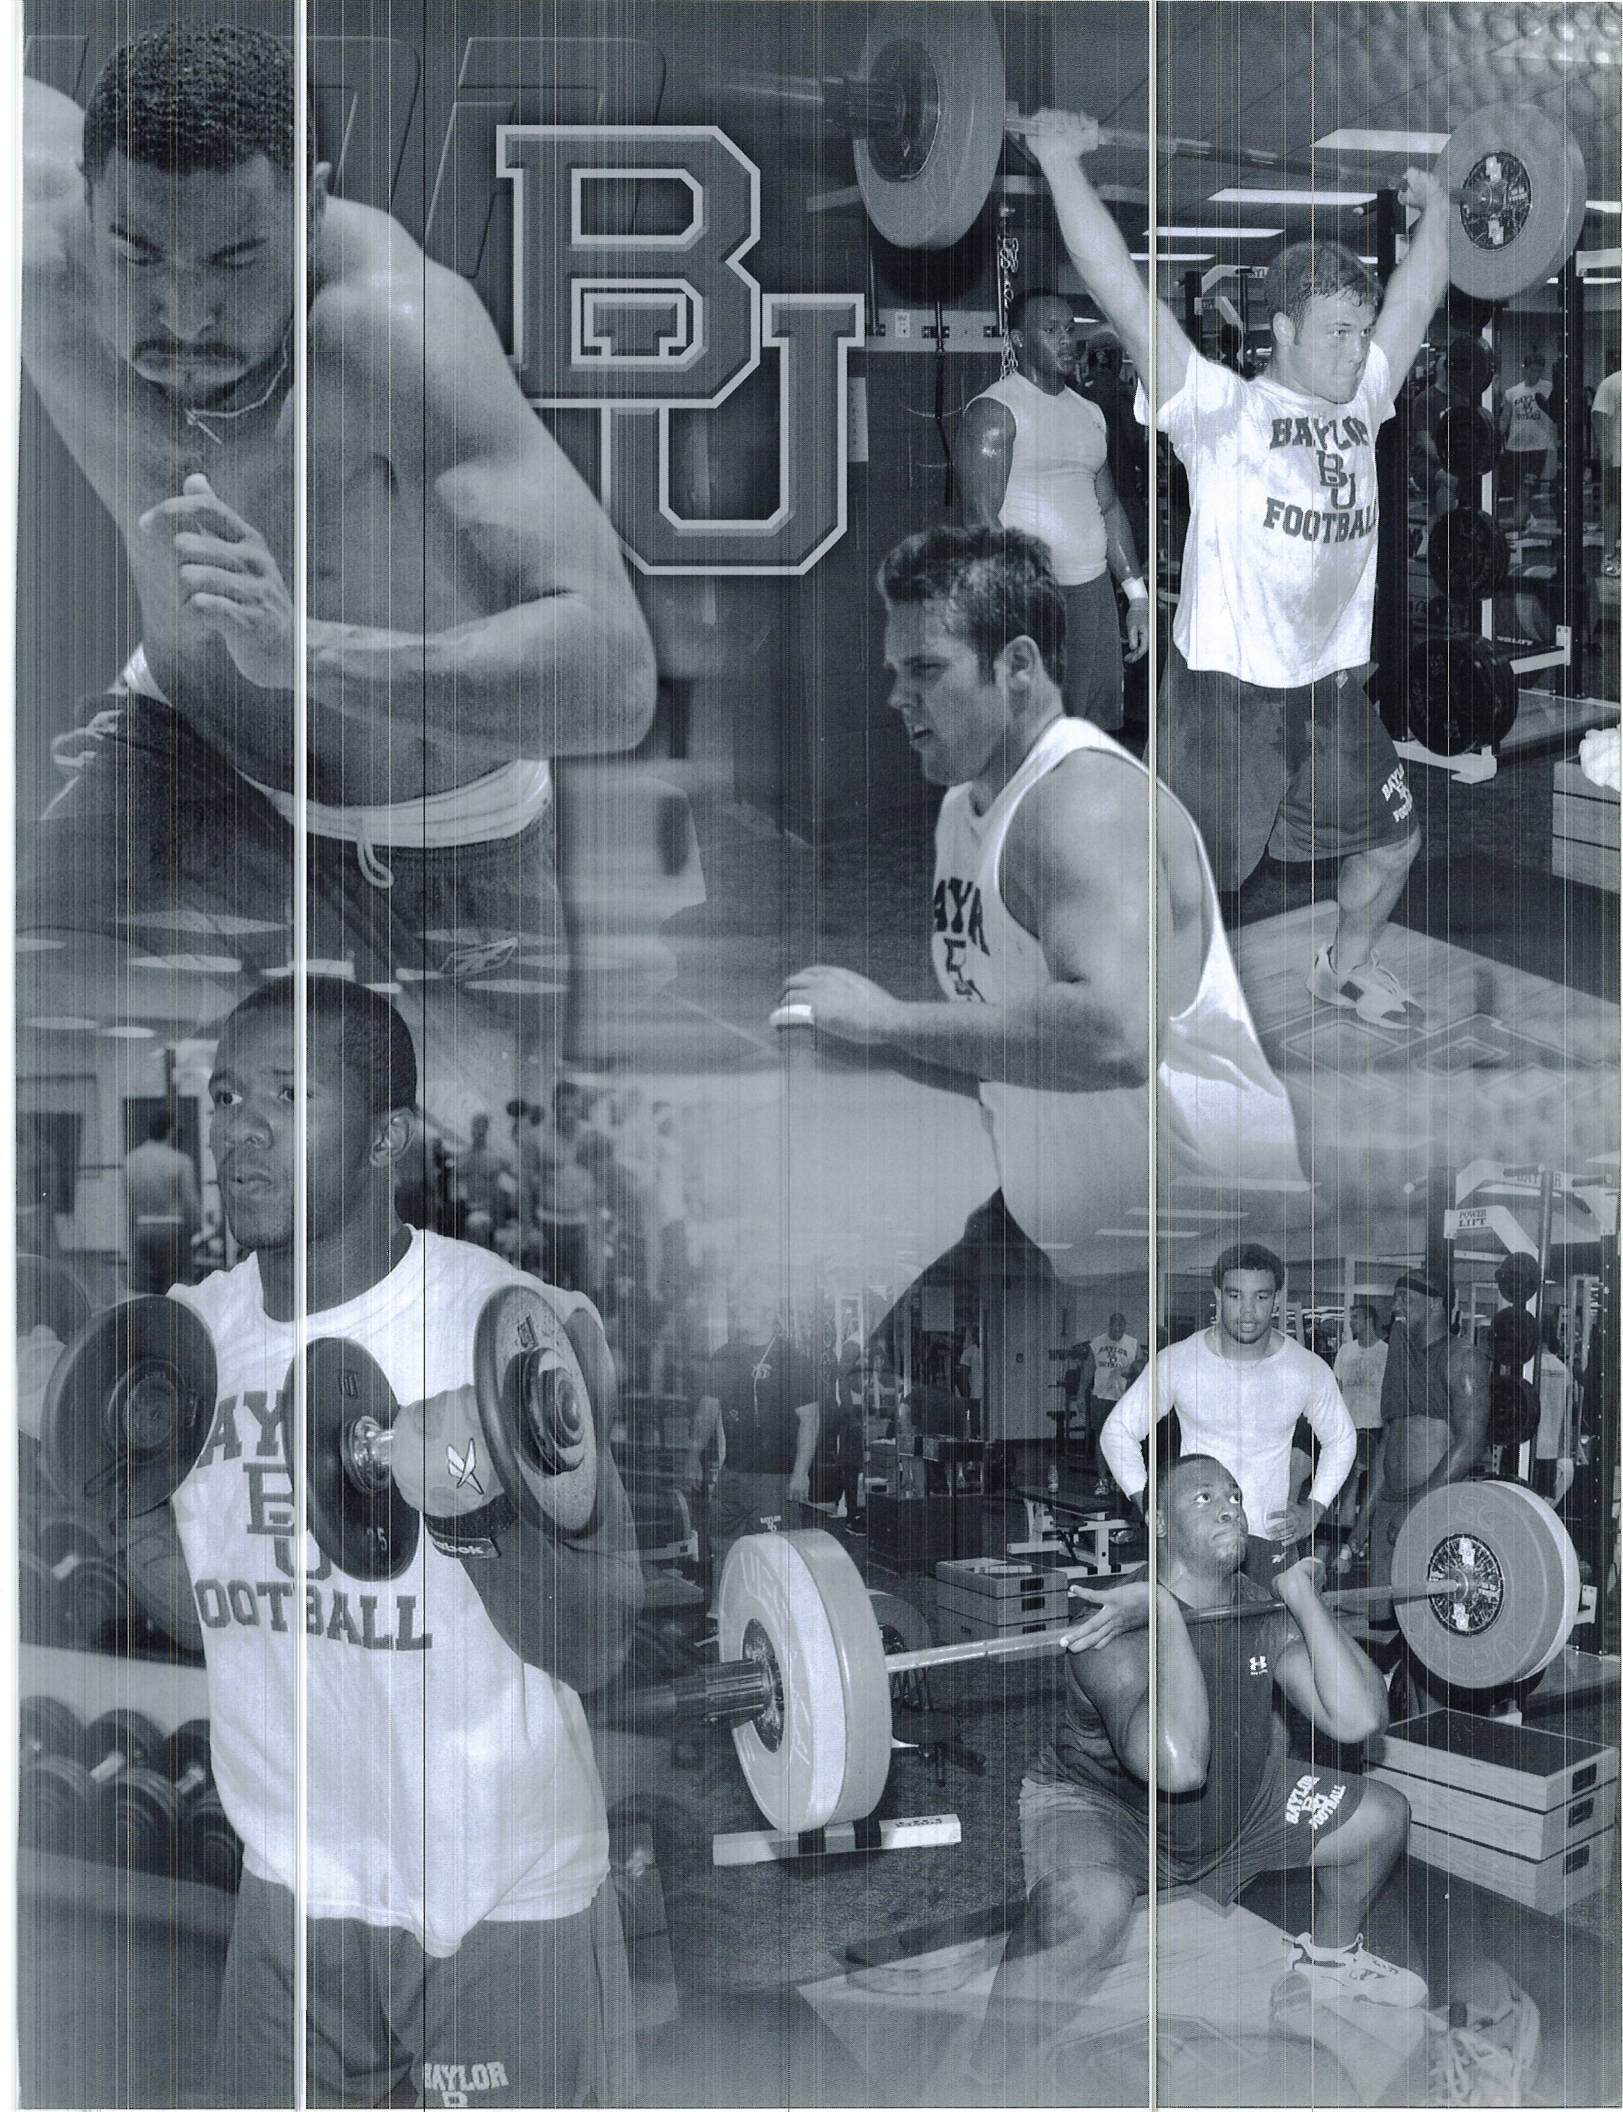

It is the intention of the program to evaluate, improve and maximize each athlete's individual potential through strength, speed, power, agility, skill and flexibility training. In addition to these areas, the motivation and discipline needed to produce a positive work environment that reinforces good character traits in the student-athletes remains an integral part of the strength and conditioning program.

BAYLOR ALL-AMERICANS

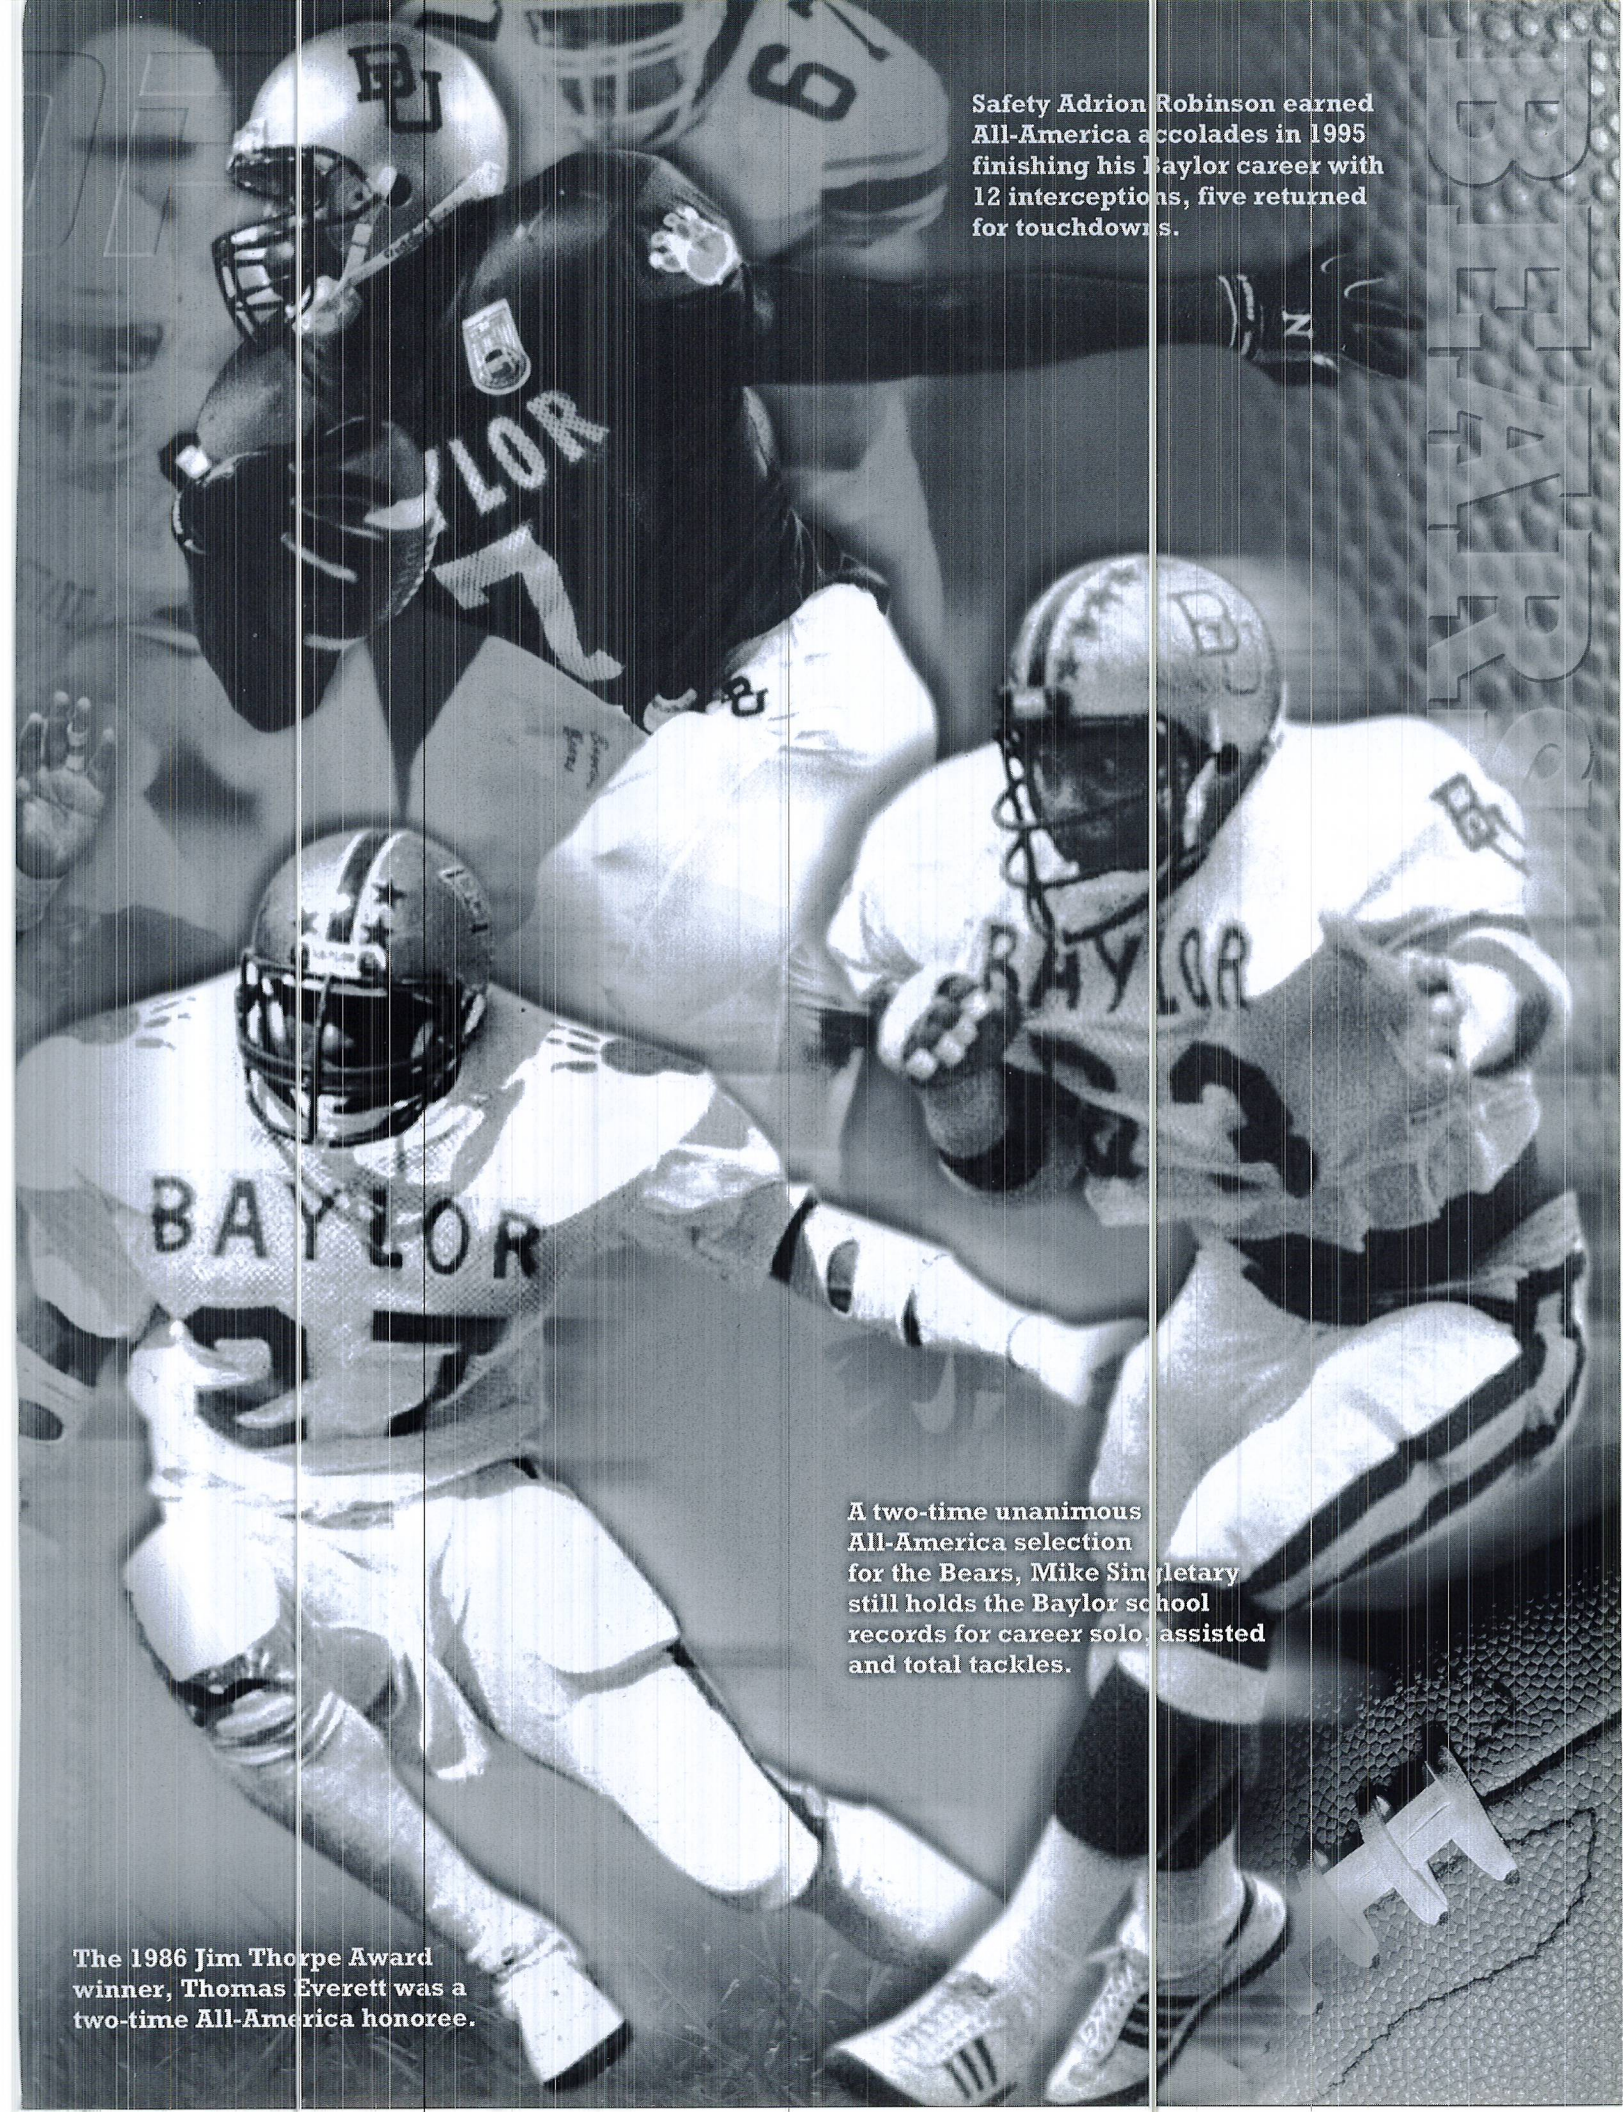

Baylor's first football player to earn All-America honors (1921), Wesley Bradshaw was a two-time All-SWC player who was later inducted into the Texas Sports Hall of Fame.

Earning All-America honors in 1989, Robert Blackmon concluded his career at Baylor with 14 interceptions and 227 tackles.

A 1991 All-America selection, Santana Dotson was also named the Southwest Conference's defensive player of the year.

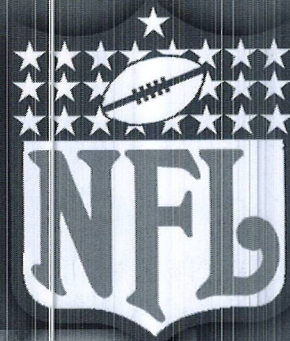

Safety Adrien Robinson earned All-America accolades in 1995 finishing his Baylor career with 12 interceptions, five returned for touchdowns.

A two-time unanimous All-America selection for the Bears, Mike Singletary still holds the Baylor school records for career solo, assisted and total tackles.

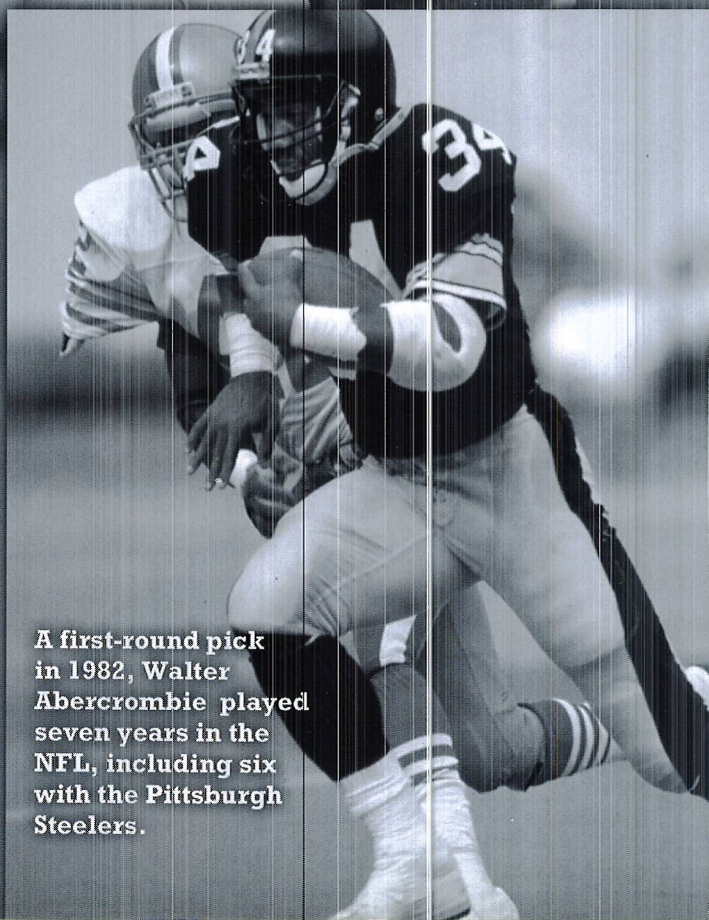

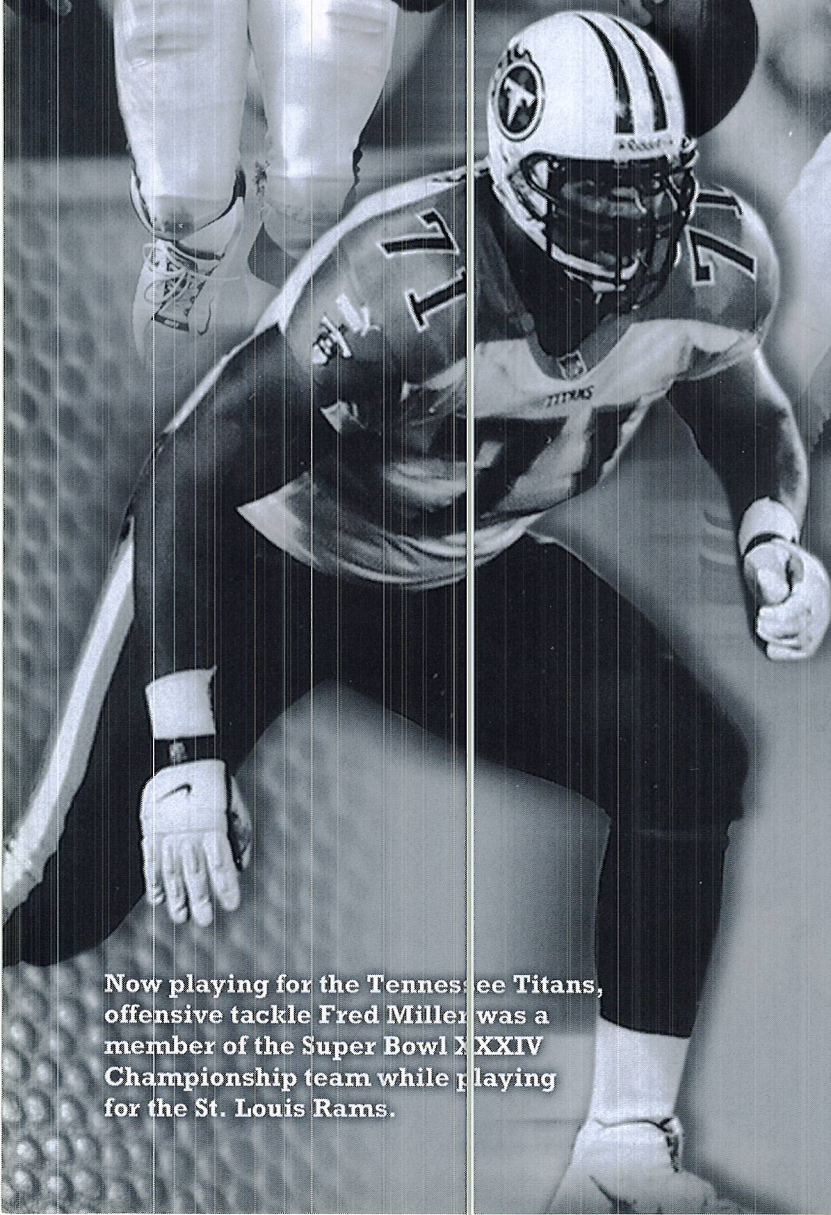

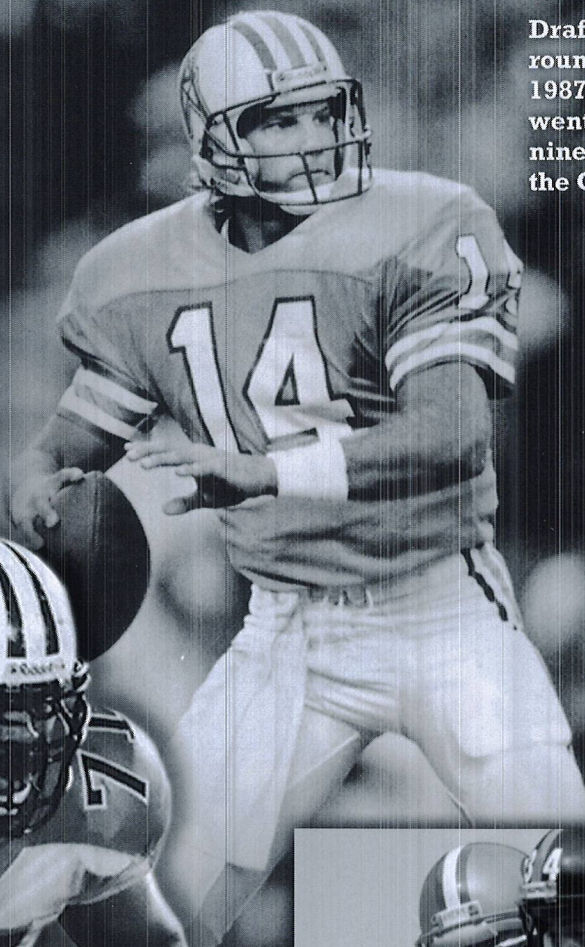

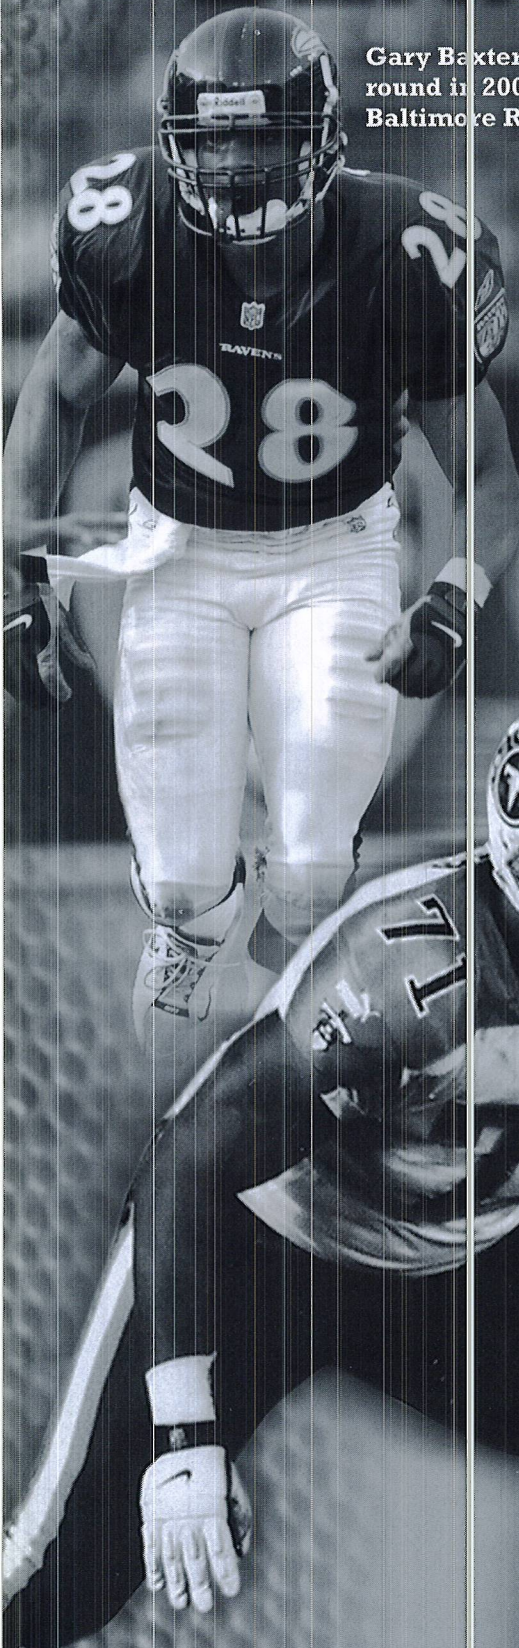

The 1986 Jim Thorpe Award winner, Thomas Everett was a two-time All-America honoree.

BEARS IN THE

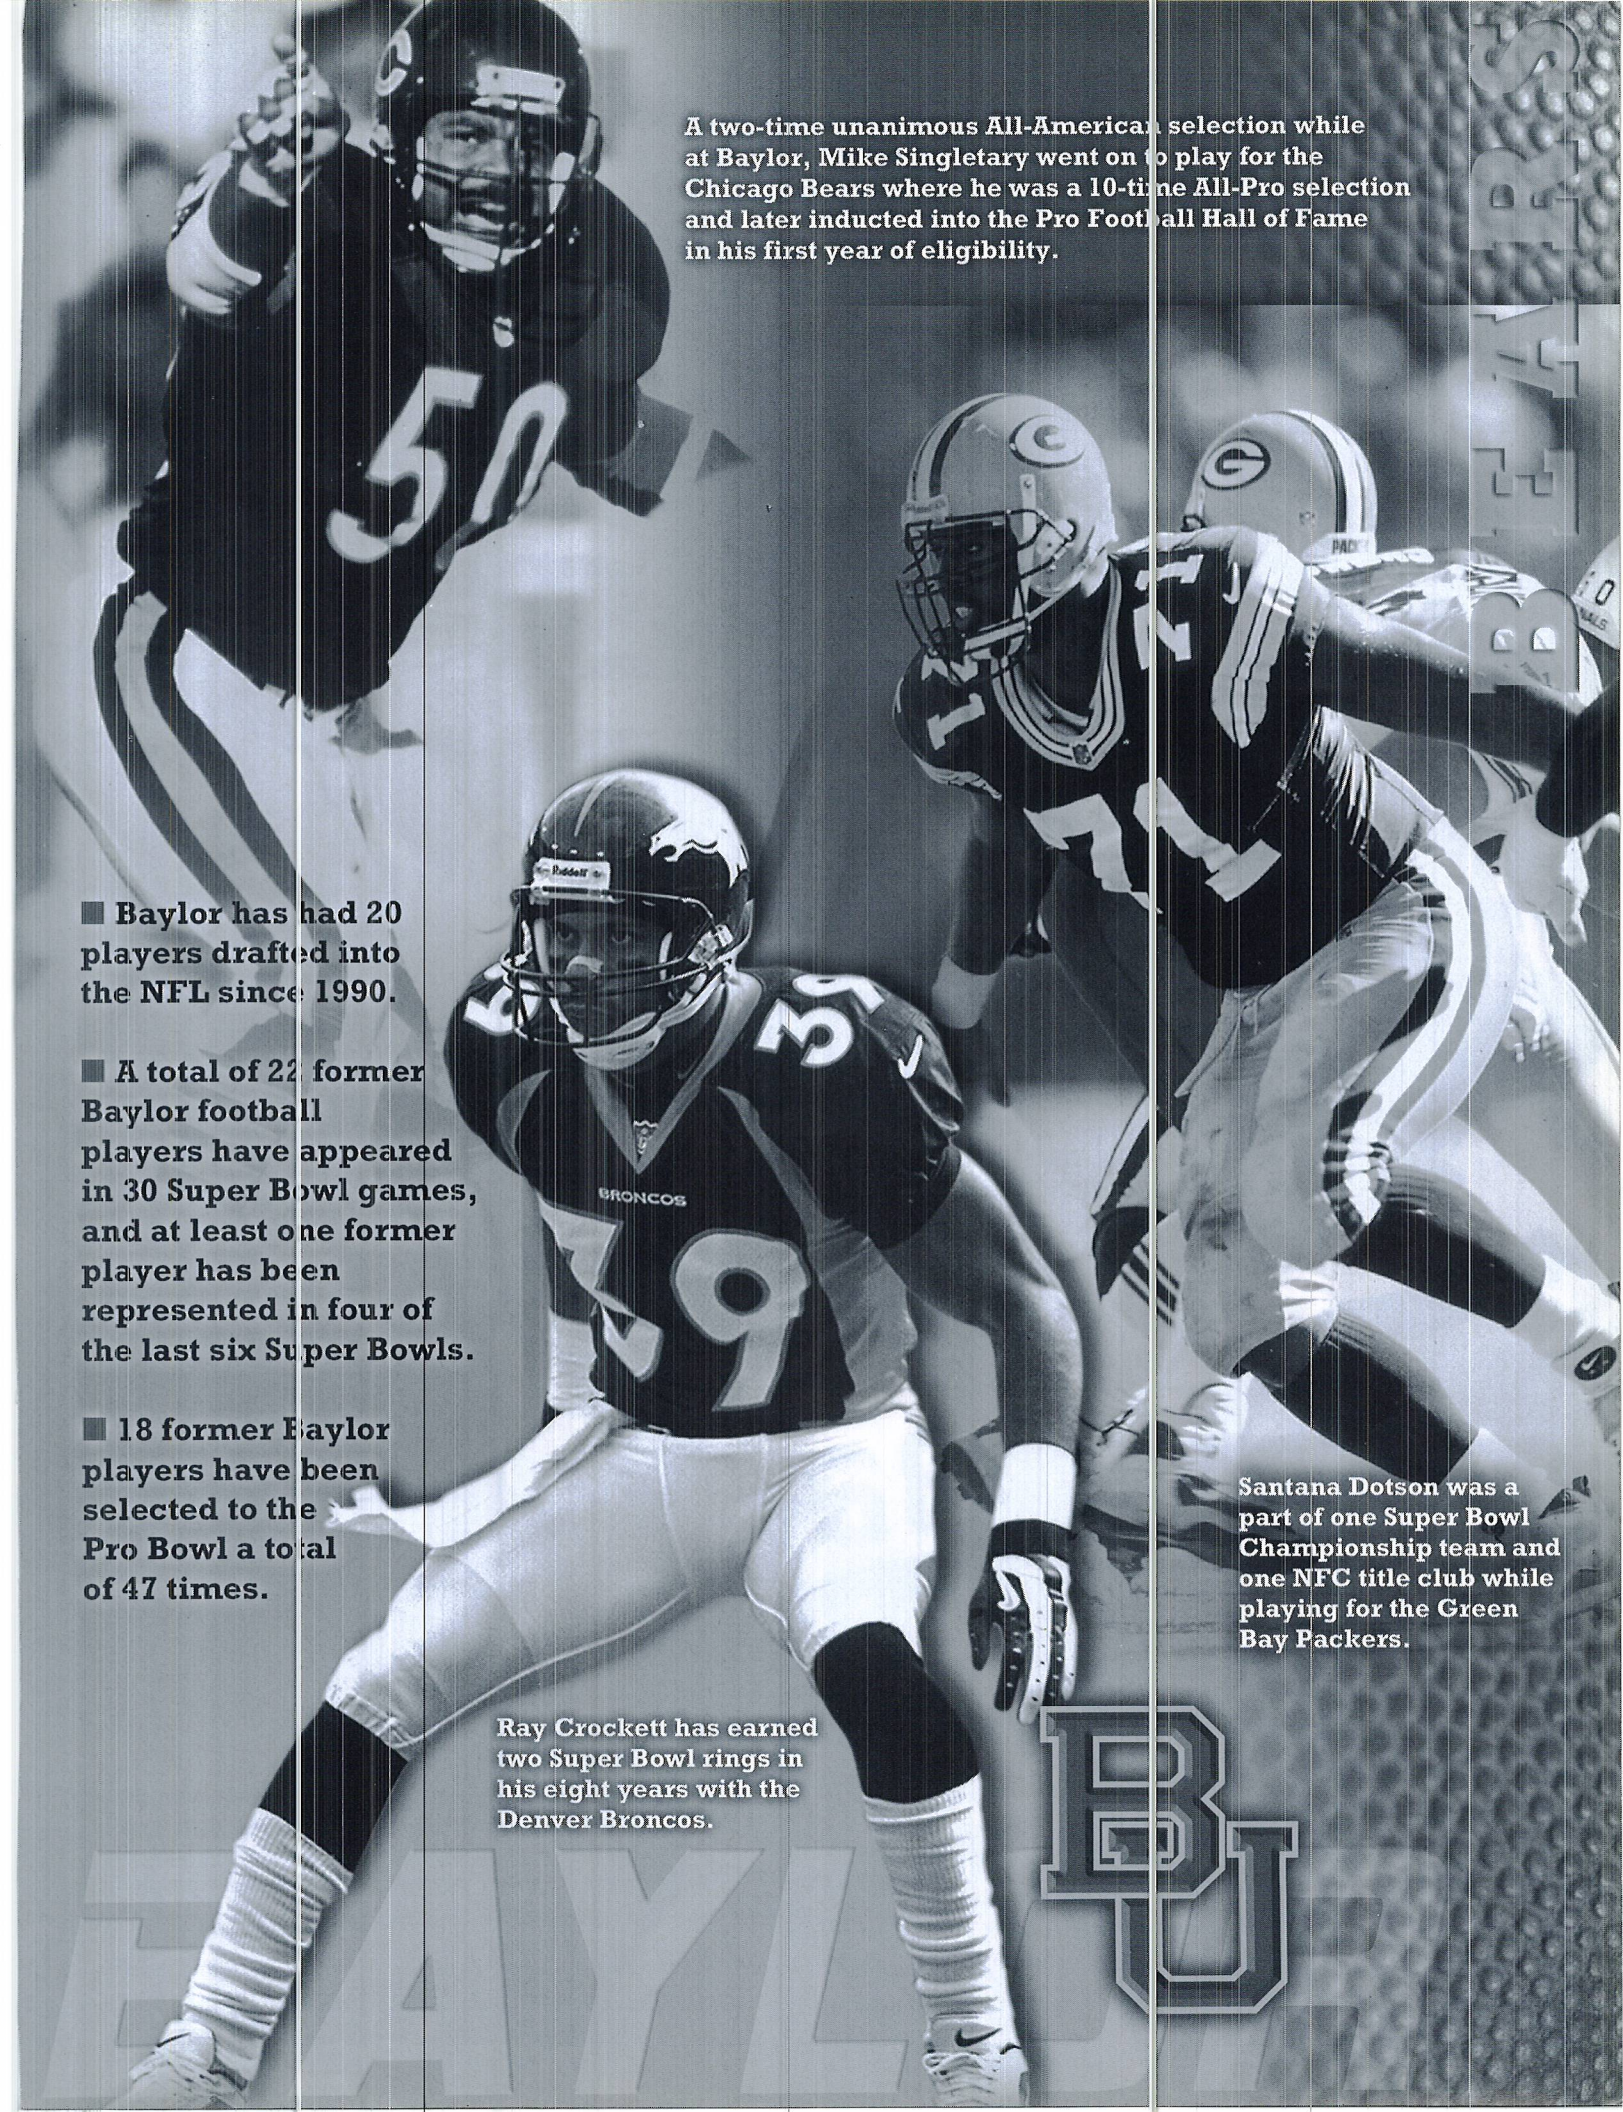

Gary Baxter was drafted in the second round in 2001 by the Super Bowl Champion Baltimore Ravens.

Drafted in the third round by Houston in 1987, Cody Carlson went on to a successful nine-year career for the Oilers.

Now playing for the Tennessee Titans, offensive tackle Fred Miller was a member of the Super Bowl XXXIV Championship team while playing for the St. Louis Rams.

A first-round pick in 1982, Walter Abercrombie played seven years in the NFL, including six with the Pittsburgh Steelers.

A two-time unanimous All-American selection while at Baylor, Mike Singletary went on to play for the Chicago Bears where he was a 10-time All-Pro selection and later inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility.

■ Baylor has had 20 players drafted into the NFL since 1990.

■ A total of 22 former Baylor football players have appeared in 30 Super Bowl games, and at least one former player has been represented in four of the last six Super Bowls.

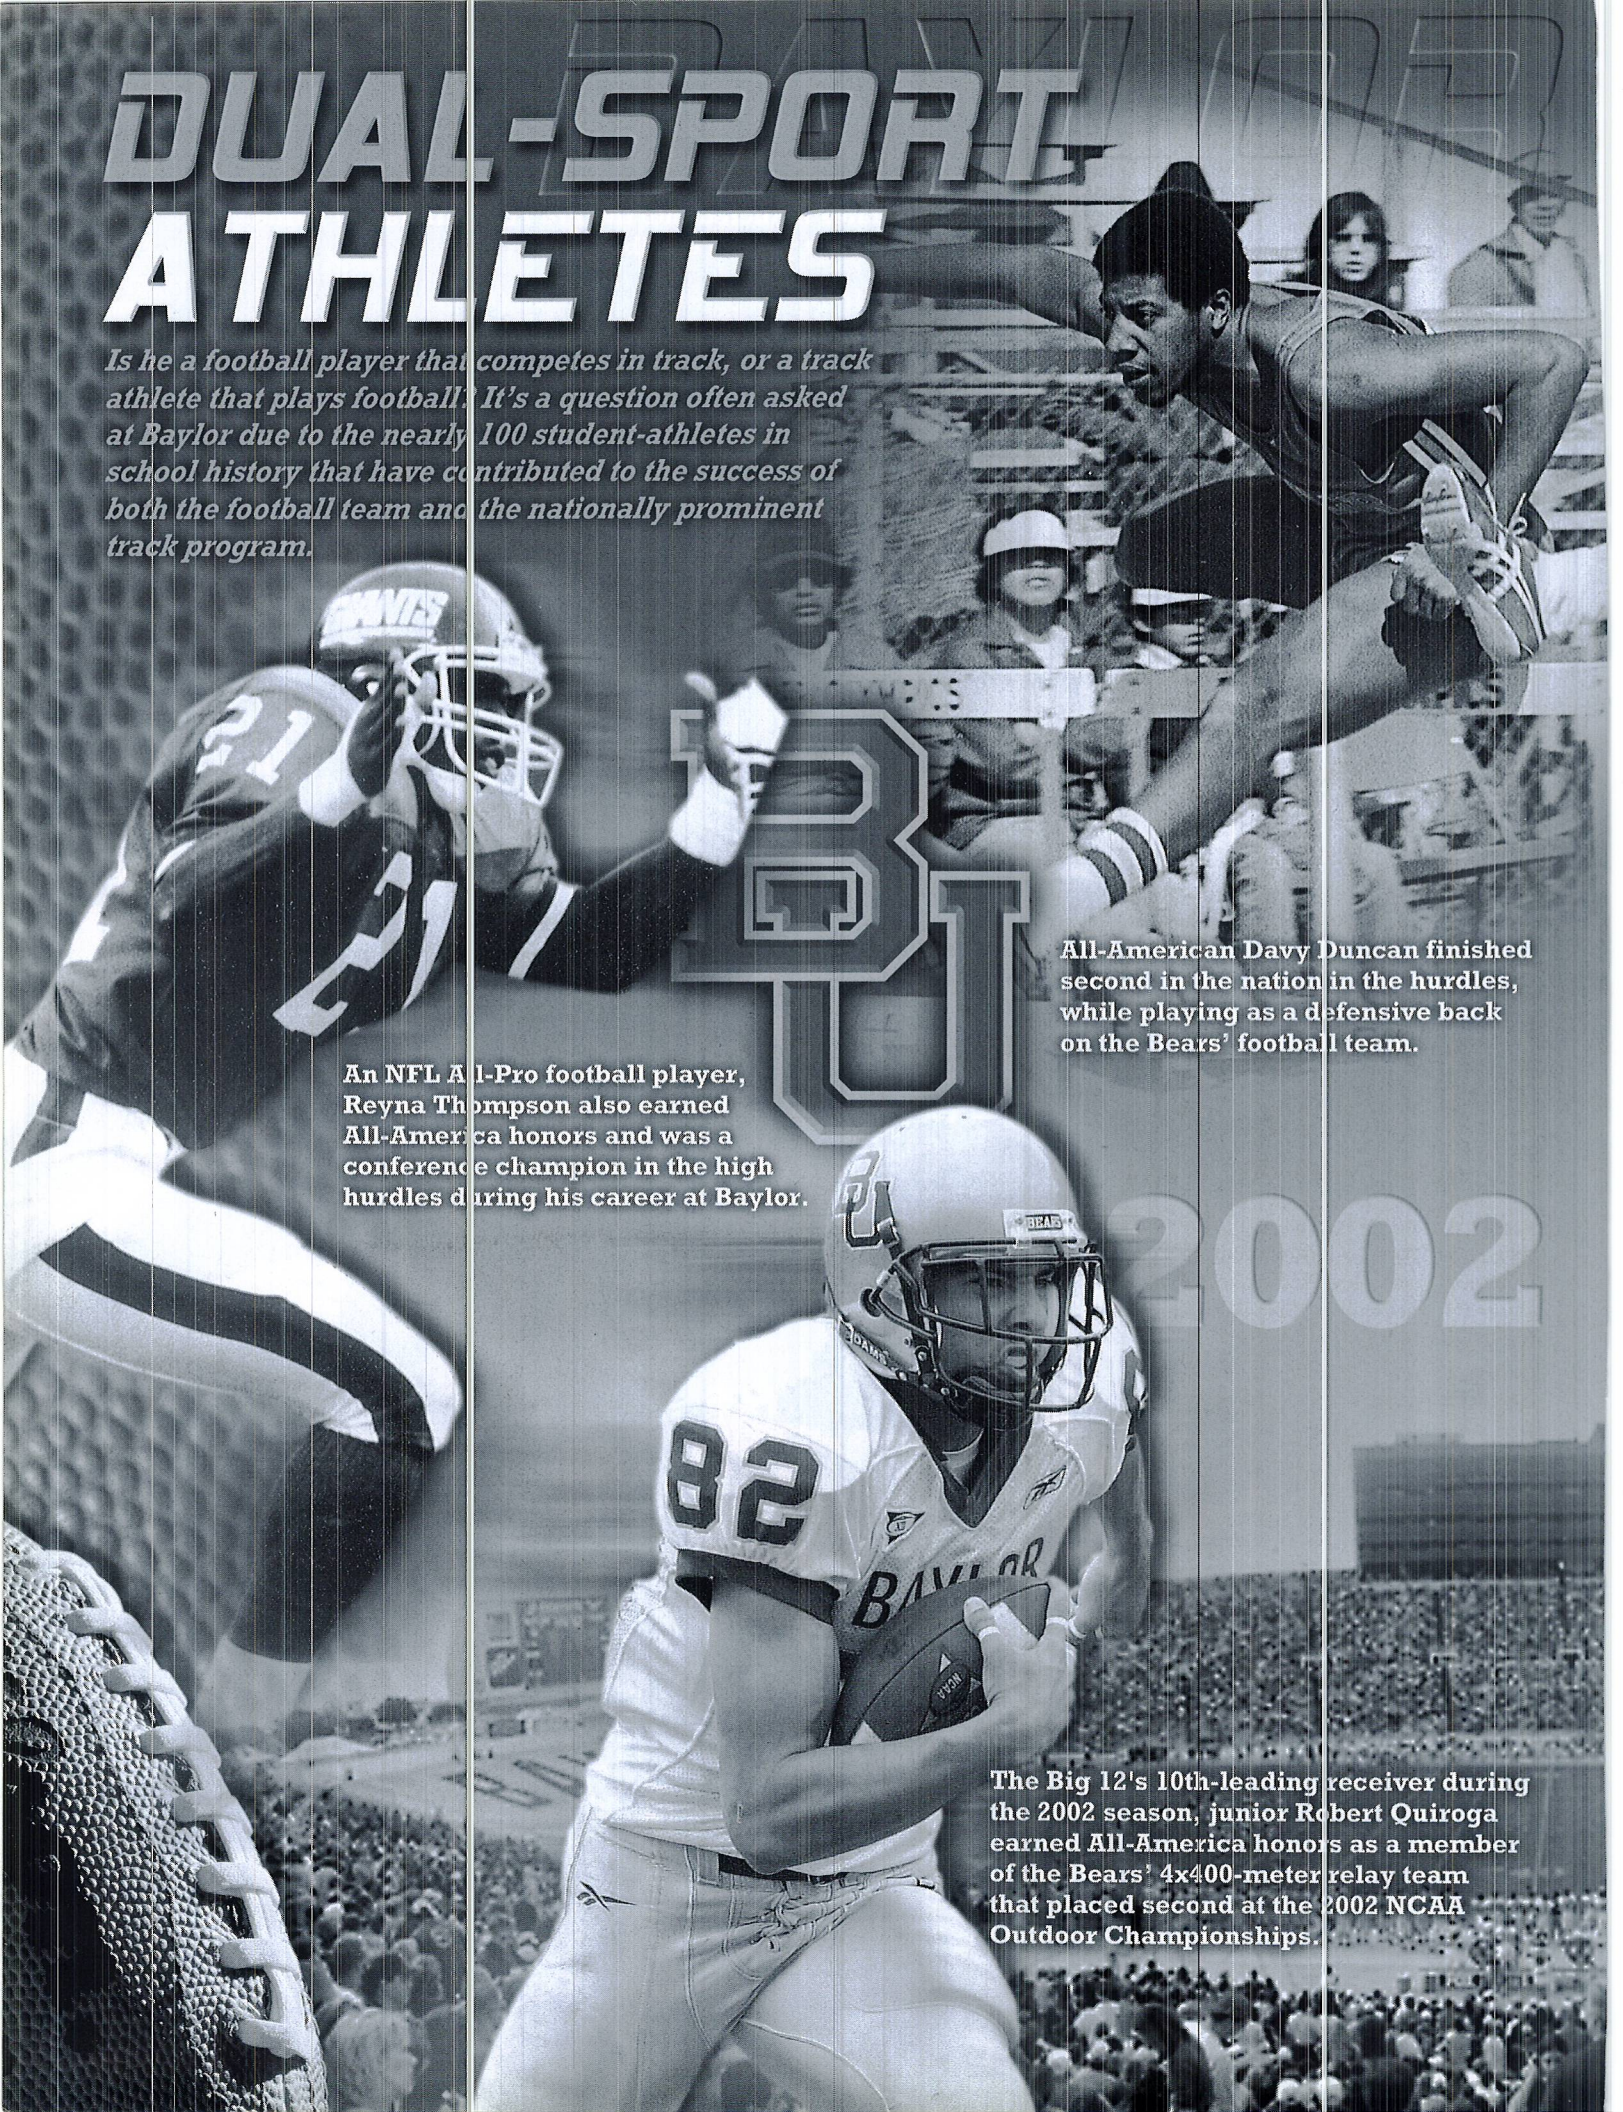

■ 18 former Baylor players have been selected to the Pro Bowl a total of 47 times.

Ray Crockett has earned two Super Bowl rings in his eight years with the Denver Broncos.

Santana Dotson was a part of one Super Bowl Championship team and one NFC title club while playing for the Green Bay Packers.

DUAL-SPORT ATHLETES

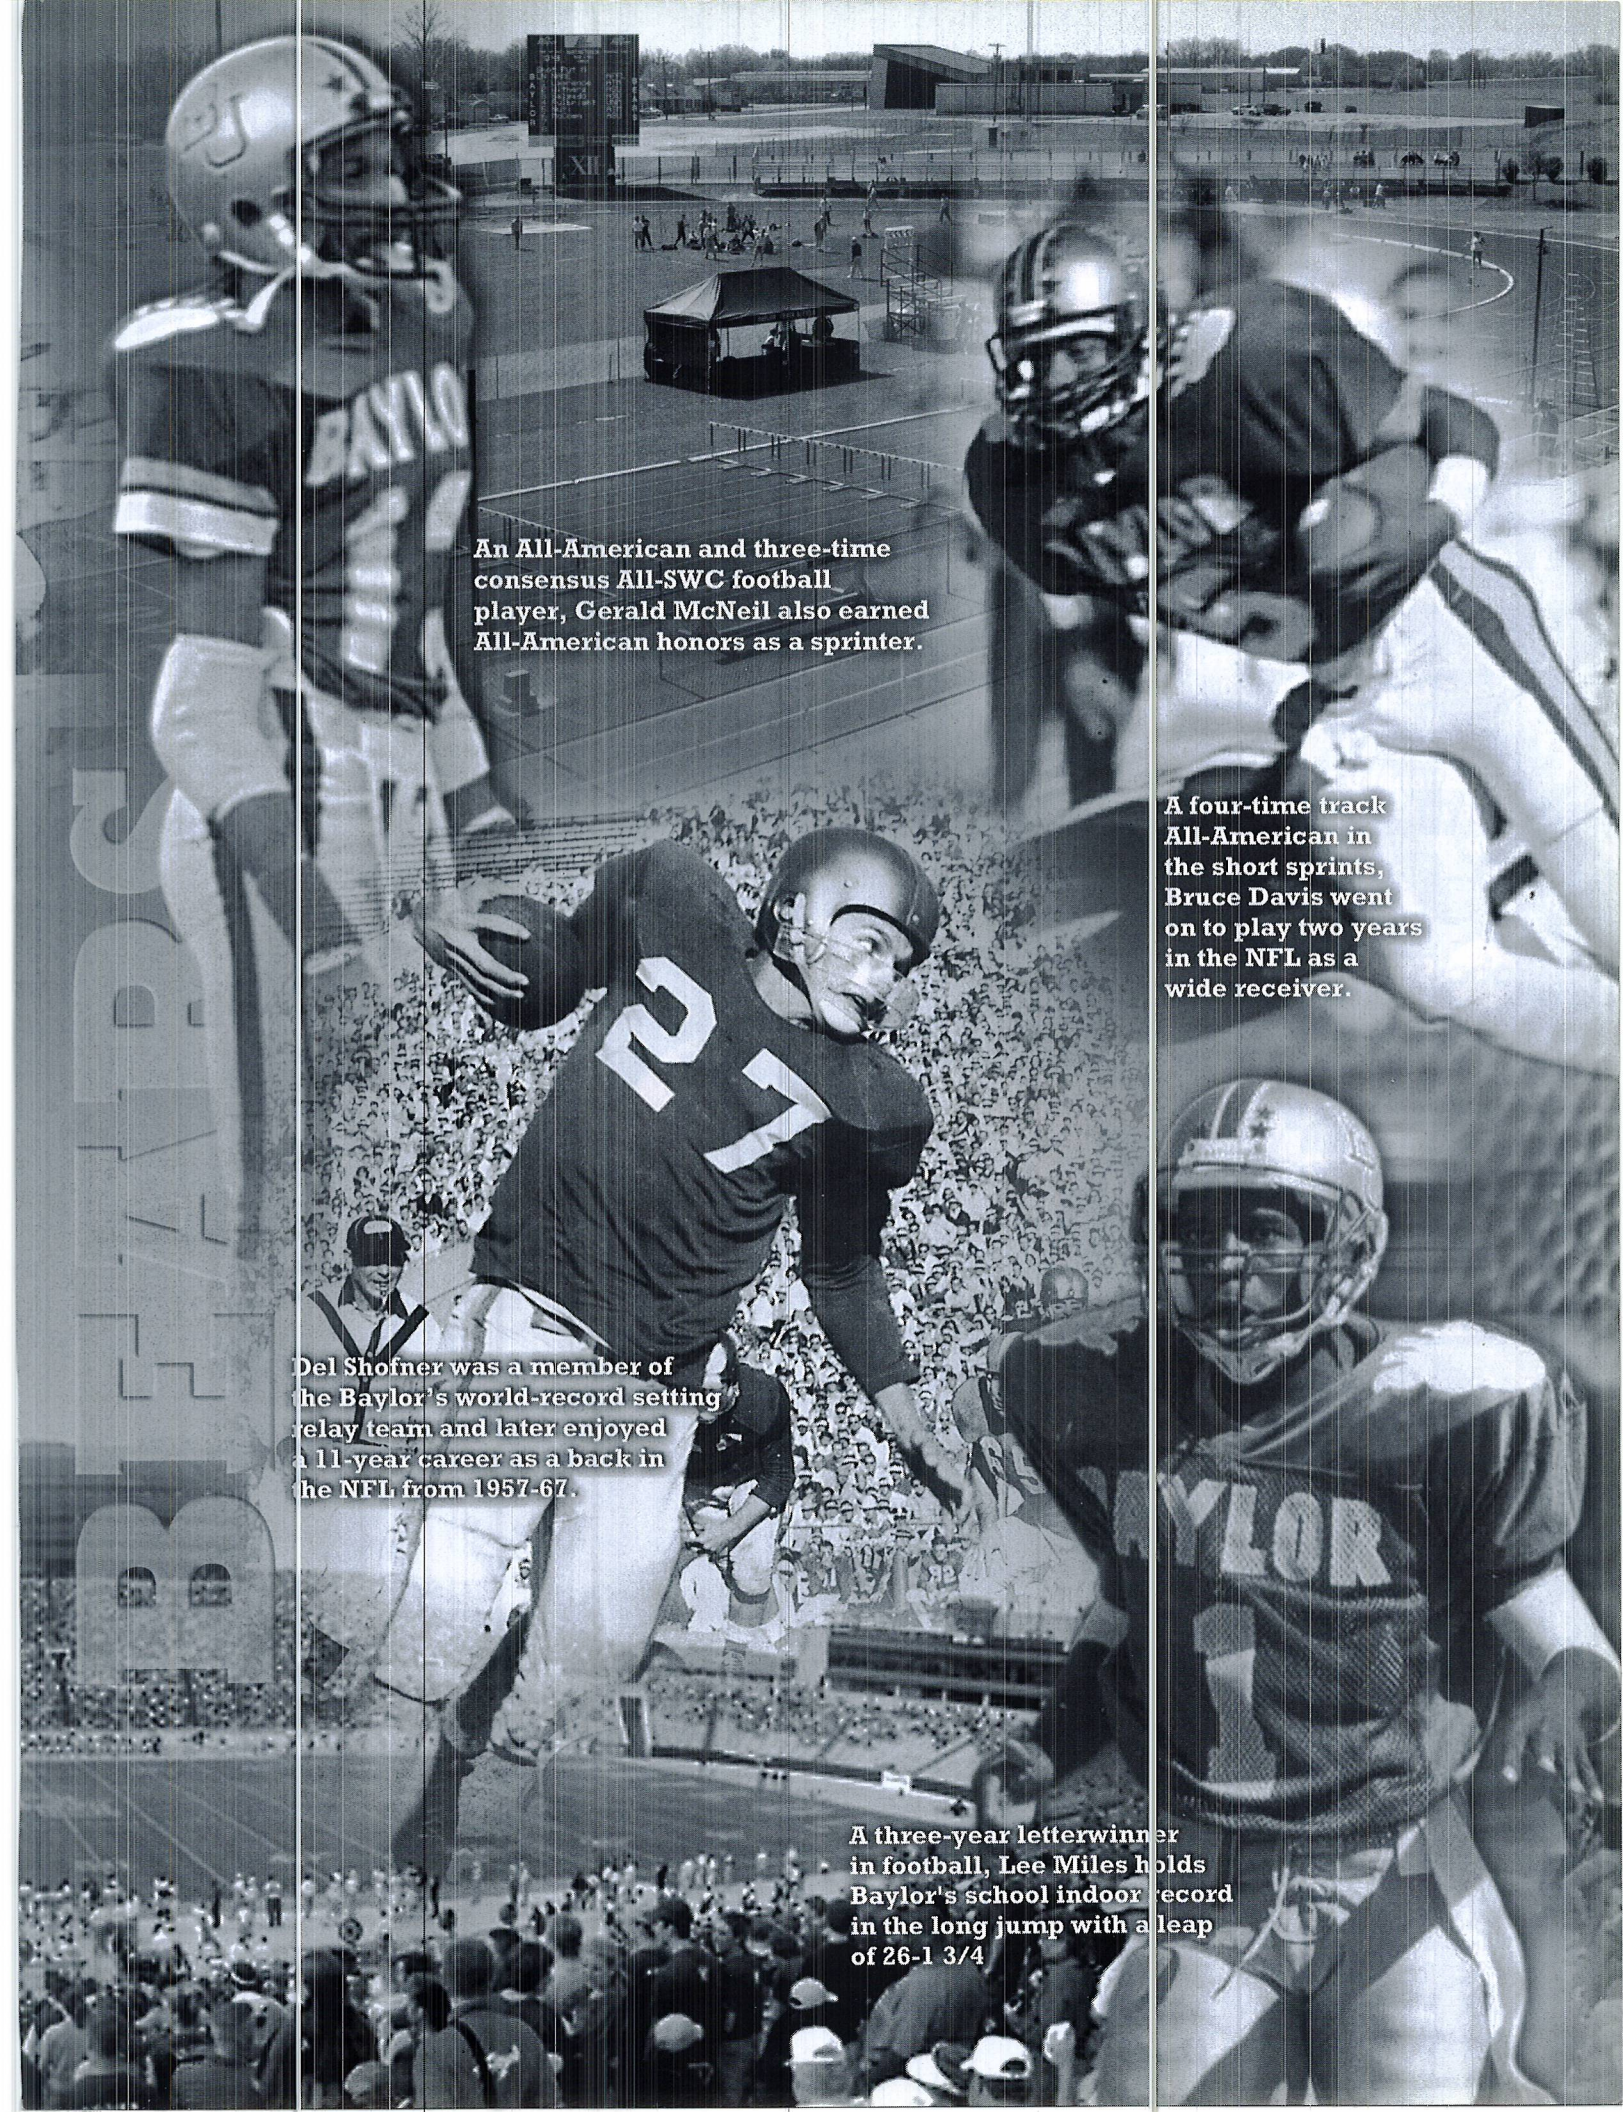

Is he a football player that competes in track, or a track athlete that plays football? It's a question often asked at Baylor due to the nearly 100 student-athletes in school history that have contributed to the success of both the football team and the nationally prominent track program.

An NFL All-Pro football player, Reyna Thompson also earned All-America honors and was a conference champion in the high hurdles during his career at Baylor.

All-American Davy Duncan finished second in the nation in the hurdles, while playing as a defensive back on the Bears' football team.

The Big 12's 10th-leading receiver during the 2002 season, junior Robert Quiroga earned All-America honors as a member of the Bears' 4x400-meter relay team that placed second at the 2002 NCAA Outdoor Championships.

An All-American and three-time consensus All-SWC football player, Gerald McNeil also earned All-American honors as a sprinter.

A four-time track All-American in the short sprints, Bruce Davis went on to play two years in the NFL as a wide receiver.

Del Shofner was a member of the Baylor's world-record setting relay team and later enjoyed a 11-year career as a back in the NFL from 1957-67.

A three-year letterwinner in football, Lee Miles holds Baylor's school indoor record in the long jump with a leap of 26-1 3/4

THE BIG 12 CONFERENCE

■ Since its inception in 1996, the Big 12 Conference has quickly established itself as one of the nation's elite football leagues. Big 12 schools have combined to produce 17 national champions, 230 first-team All-Americans and 10 Heisman Trophy winners.

■ The Big 12 has placed eight teams in bowl games each of the last two seasons.

■ Featuring the conference's top teams from the South and North Divisions, the 2003 Big 12 Championship Game will be played Dec. 6 at Arrowhead Stadium in Kansas City.

■ National television coverage is routine in the Big 12. The league has agreements with ABC, Fox Sports Net and TBS Superstation to show games in 2003.

SEASON OUTLOOK

"It's good to be back in the Lone Star [State]."

With those nine words, new Baylor head football coach Guy Morriss gave hope and pride to thousands of Baylor fans.

For the first time since Grant Teaff came to Baylor in 1972, the Bears had hired someone to lead their football program who was currently employed as a head coach at another four-year institution. Teaff came to Waco from Angelo State and became a Baylor legend.

Morriss returned to his native Texas after surprising the college football world by winning seven games in 2002 at probation-ridden Kentucky. His work earned him SEC Coach of the Year honors from some media outlets and placed him squarely in Baylor's sights.

Nearly nine months after Morriss was introduced as Baylor's 24th head football coach, his first Bruin squad will line up for its opener against UAB. For Morriss and his staff, all of which followed him from the Bluegrass to the Lone Star, they will have been nine very busy months.

"We made a little bit of progress," says Morriss. "I think when we came down here that there were some problems. We pretty much feel like we have a handle on it and we're moving in the right direction to get those problems corrected."

"It took us some time this spring just to get our kids in good enough shape so that we can start getting some work out of them. I think any time there is a transition, like a new staff, and the length that it took, some of the kids fell through the cracks. We had to get after them pretty hard this spring just to get them back on track in the weight room."

"We aren't blessed with a lot of depth, our numbers are down right now, and we're a little bit out of balance, but again we know those things coming in here. We are just going to try to be as competitive as we can be, play as hard as we can for as long as we can and kind of see what happens. I feel like we have a good plan. We're going to get this thing corrected."

"What we have to do is just try to pump some confidence back into our kids," Morriss says. "It's just going to have to be a patient process. I think that one of the strengths of this staff is that we have been pretty good at evaluating talent. I think the good thing about making the move from Kentucky to Baylor is obviously that we are in the best recruiting state in America, so that's going to help us. There are plenty of Division I prospects out there, so we are going to try to find our 20-to-25 of them and see if we can get them to come to Baylor."

"I think the goal right now is to go out and be as competitive as we possibly can. We want to be in the game and have a chance to win in the fourth quarter. I can't predict any number of wins or losses, we just want to be able to compete. I think the early part of the schedule will help that if we can manage to get off to a good start. That is obviously going to be the key, and then the kids will start to feel better about themselves."

OFFENSE

Baylor returns six starters on offense, including quarterback Aaron Karas, running back Rashad Armstrong and receivers Robert Quiroga and Marques Roberts. New offensive coordinator Brent Pease found success last year at Kentucky by running a west coast version of the spread offense that led the Southeastern Conference in scoring (32.1 ppg).

Quarterbacks

Aaron Karas started 10 games last year and enters his junior season with school records for single-season (.598) and career (.612) completion percentage. However, he threw for just six touchdowns while having 13 passes intercepted.

"My expectations with our quarterbacks is that they do the things that fit the offense," Pease says. "They need to manage the game well. I really like Aaron as a competitor. He's very coachable. In time, I think he can be the type of quarterback who we can put a lot on his shoulders."

Backing up Karas is redshirt freshman Shawn Bell and true freshman Terrance Parks.

"Behind Aaron we're young and we have no game experience," Pease says, "so that's unknown."

Running Backs

One of the most experienced and deepest positions on offense is running back. Three players return who have started at tailback, along with the leading fullback from a year ago.

At tailback, senior Jonathan Golden (nine), junior Anthony Krieg (five) and senior Rashad Armstrong (five) have combined for 19 career starts. Armstrong closed out the 2002 season by averaging over 87 yards in Baylor's last four games, including consecutive 100-yard efforts against Oklahoma (103) and Oklahoma State (112) to close out the year. However, he missed spring practice due to academics and will start the fall behind Golden and Krieg.

Golden, a second-team Academic All-Big 12 selection, finished second behind Armstrong a year ago with 392 yards. He started Baylor's first seven games and set a school record with a six-touchdown performance early in the year against Samford.

Krieg started five games as a true freshman in 2001 but struggled with injuries last season. Still, his hard-nosed style and pass-catching ability helped him make an impression on the new coaching staff during spring practice.

"We have good guys at running back," Pease says. "We're looking for a guy who can carry the ball 25-30 times a game, catch the ball, pick up his blocks and be durable enough for 12 games. That's something that we'll have to sort out."

"I really like Anthony Krieg. Jonathan Golden has some experience and has had some good games here. I've heard a lot of good things about Rashad, but he's an unknown factor."

Another tailback in the mix is redshirt freshman Paul Mosley, who spent the 2002 season working with the scout team, and incoming true freshman Brandon Whitaker.

"Mosley is going to give us some good play," Pease says. "He's a strong, young kid and we're excited about his upside."

Fullback is solid as junior Jonathan Evans returns after starting four games a year ago, when the position was not featured prominently in the Bears' offense.

"Jonathan Evans is one of the kids who has surprised us the most," Pease says. "He adds a dimension to our offense where we can do some two-back stuff that we'd like to do. He's got good hands, good blocking ability and he's smart. He can be a leader on our offense because he knows the scheme."

Freshmen Quincy Cosby and Brandon Garrett will battle walk-on Jonathan Sisk for the backup fullback spot behind Evans.

Wide Receivers

Despite losing Baylor's all-time leading receiver in Reggie Newhouse, the Bears return a solid and experienced group of receivers in 2002. Led by senior Robert Quiroga, who enters 2003 sixth on the school's career receptions list, Pease feels the Bears have enough quality pass catchers to make his offense guy.

"This group understands the scheme we've given them and they understand how that affects the other side of the ball. I like this group. Depth-wise we need to add some speed, but we have good leadership in the players we have."

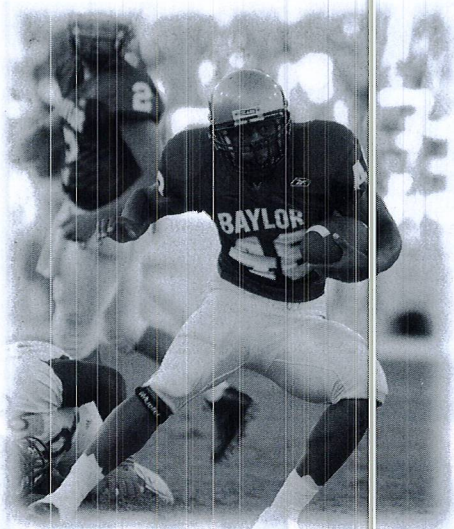

As a member of the Baylor track team, Quiroga did not go through spring practice. That opened an opportunity for juniors John Martin, Marques Roberts and walk-on Baylor Barbee to provide leadership to a young groups that includes sophomores J Fields and Ryan Jeffrey and redshirt freshman Trent Shelton.

"John Martin and Marques Roberts will be good players for us," Pease says. "We didn't have Robert Quiroga in the spring, but he needs to be one of our big-play guys."

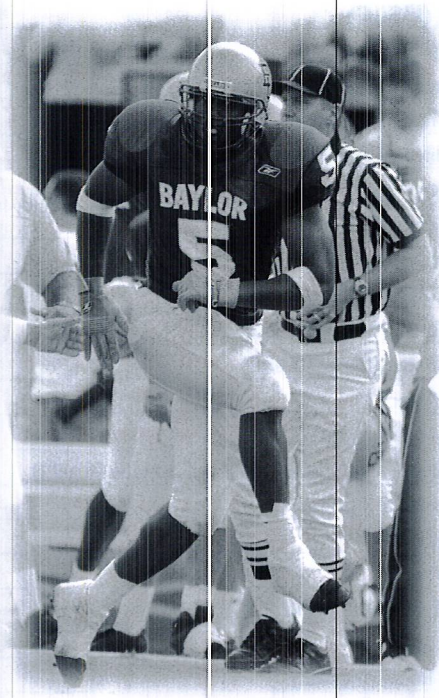

A pair of incoming freshman — Derrick Jones and Dominique Zeigler — should provide needed speed at the position.

Tight Ends

Senior Shane Williams and junior Billy Crawford should provide solid play at the tight end position. But redshirt freshman Iris Williams, who missed spring practice due to academics, is a player coaches feel could make a difference in the Baylor passing game due to his speed and athleticism.

Jonathan Golden

John Garrett

"They haven't used the tight end a lot here in the past, so it's a little bit of an unknown," Pease says. "This position is one that has to give us point-of-attack blocking, some role play in the passing game and give us flexibility in our personnel packages."

Offensive Line

Two starters — senior center Cedric Fields and junior left tackle Quintin Outland — return. That presents a challenge to Pease and new offensive line coach Chris Lancaster, who must find three new starters and depth out of a young, albeit talented, group.

"There's not a lot of depth," Pease says. "We've got some good kids, they are just all so young. I'm excited about the upside. The offensive line is our foundation. That's where the offense starts. Our conditioning level will be important."

"We're young and don't have a lot of playing experience outside of Fields and Outland," Lancaster says. "I was pleased with our kids towards the end of the spring. They adapted to what we were asking them to do well."

"You can tell Cedric has a lot of game experience. We're real pleased with him. Quintin was a highly recruited kid. He made some mistakes this spring, but he's had three coordinators in three years, so that's a little understandable. He's very durable and can play both on the right or left side."

Lancaster will plug true sophomore Lequan McDonald into the right guard spot and redshirt freshman Akeem Rettig in at left guard.

"Laquan's going to be a good football player," Lancaster says. "He's got great feet and is very talented. He needs to lose some weight in order to be more durable. He's just very young right now. And Akeem is going to be fine. Everything is ahead of him. He's a tremendous athlete."

The final starting spot could belong to former walk-on Joe DeWoody, who has earned a scholarship and could start at either right tackle or center after backing up Fields most of 2002.

"Joe is pushing his way into the top five," Lancaster says.

Returnees providing depth for Lancaster include junior Brad Schlueter, sophomores Glen Oskin and Chris Rogers and redshirt freshmen Travis Farst and Gavin McKinley. The Bears will also have the services of six true freshmen — Chris Evans, John Mahaffey, Nick Pace, Chad Smith, Kellen Taylor and Michael Trice — many of whom will be redshirted.

DEFENSE

Defensive coordinator John Goodner, who spent 11 years at Baylor as an assistant to Teaff before serving as coordinator at Texas Tech and Kentucky, brings an aggressive, opportunistic attack that relies on speed to disrupt an offense.

Goodner's scheme employs an eight-man front that consists of four down linemen, two inside linebackers and two outside safeties. The secondary includes a pair of cornerbacks and a free safety.

"We've just got to go play and get better from week to week," Goodner says. "We're going to be young, but we've got good team speed, we run to the ball good and we practice hard. I'm optimistic."

Defensive Line

It's a case of good news/bad news for Baylor along the defensive front. It's good news at end, where both returning starters — senior Dominick Cravens and junior Khari Long — return and are backed up by experienced senior Joe Simmons. Also in the mix at end is junior college transfer Montez Murphy, a sophomore who made quite an impact during spring drills with his blend of speed and size.

"Our defensive ends are pretty stable. We've got four guys who either have played or we feel confident can play well."

The bad news is at tackle, where four-year starter Kevin Stevenson and New England Patriot draftee Ethan Kelley have graduated. In their place, Goodner and defensive tackle coach Tom Adams will blend a diverse but inexperienced group that includes sophomore Lorenzo Davis and redshirt freshman Michael Gary. Those two will share playing time with converted tight end Luke Groth, converted defensive end Julian Hill and junior college transfer M.T. Robinson.

"We're a little short of people at defensive tackle," Goodner says. "Those guys are going to have to grow up quick and get in there and play."

Linebackers

Because of two returning starters filling the two positions available, linebacker could be Baylor's deepest spot. Seniors John Garrett and Stephen Sepulveda, who have combined to start 42 career games, look to nail down the weakside and middle spots, respectively. However, Garrett missed the last half of the 2002 season and all of spring ball with a knee injury. Although he has since made a full recovery, his spot during the spring was ably manned by junior Justin Crooks.

"We've got a couple of good seniors here — Garrett and Stephen Sepulveda," Goodner says. "I like our young guys. It's a good blend of youth and experience."

Safeties

Senior Derrick Cash has started at linebacker, free safety and strong safety during his career. So, naturally, this season will find him at one of the two newly created positions of outside safety, a hybrid between a linebacker and a traditional safety. Opposite him will be sophomore Willie Andrews, from whom the coaches expect big things.

"I think the biggest surprise from the spring was Willie Andrews," Morris says. "He's going to be a big time player for us. We could use some more like him."

Senior Larry Bynum and true freshman Maurice Linquist came out of spring as the chief backups at the outside safety positions.

At free safety, sophomore Maurice Lane returns after starting 11 games there as a freshman. He's backed up by versatile senior Danielle McLean.

Cornerbacks

A speedy group of cornerbacks are at Goodner's disposal, led by senior Matt Johnson and junior Tyson Hampton. Johnson started all 12 games last year, while Hampton started the season opener.

Tall and lanky redshirt freshman Anthony Arline, a highly-touted recruit from two years ago, senior Ahmad Rhodes, sophomore Michael Boyd and redshirt freshman James Todd will all get plenty of playing time behind Johnson and Hampton.

A host of freshmen newcomers — Josh Bell, Braelon Davis, Nick Fellows, Brannon Moton, Kyle Seal and C.J. Wilson — will provide needed speed and depth in the secondary.

SPECIAL TEAMS

A year ago at Kentucky, special teams coach Mark Nelson put together a kicking game that excelled in all areas. In addition to leading the SEC in net punting and punt return average, the Wildcats also set an NCAA record by returning six kicks (two kickoffs and four punts) for touchdowns.

Nelson has plenty of work to do, as the Bears were last in the Big 12 in nearly every special team category last season. Sophomore punter Jeremy Parker is back, but could be challenged by Daniel Sepulveda, a backup linebacker who showed a powerful left leg during spring drills.

The placekicking job is wide open, with true freshman Ryan Havens expected to be given a shot at winning the job when he gets on campus in August.

Deep snapping duties will be assumed by senior Matt Waller, who served as the primary backup in that role last season.

HEAD COACH

GUY MORRISS

Head Coach

TCU, 1973

When Baylor selected its 24th head football coach, the University tabbed an individual with a deep Texas background, vast coaching experience at every level, extensive playing experience at the highest levels of the game and the respect of former players and high school coaches in the state.

On Dec. 11, 2002, Baylor announced Guy Morriss as the new head coach of its football program.

Known for his no-nonsense approach and his aggressive recruiting, Morriss assumes the task of rebuilding the tradition-rich Baylor football program.

He possesses the credentials to succeed.

Morriss has 14 years of experience as a coach at the high school, collegiate and professional levels. He spent 18 years in the National Football League, where he was an All-Pro player, played in two Super Bowls and coached for three seasons. He is a native Texan who played high school and college football in Texas and has recruited the state for years as a coach.

A native of Colorado City, Texas, and a former All-Southwest Conference lineman at TCU, Morriss is familiar with the football landscape in the Lone Star state.

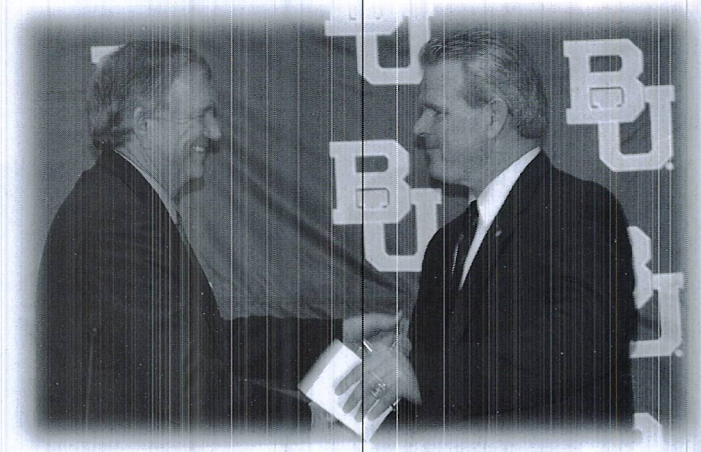

Morriss arrived in Waco from Lexington, Ky., where he spent six seasons helping to turn around the Wildcat football program — the last two as head coach.

In 2001, Morriss took over a Kentucky program in disarray. With NCAA probation looming in the school's immediate future, Morriss was hired as head coach. In February 2001, the day before national signing day.

Despite the inherent obstacles, Morriss confidently rallied the Wildcat players and staff and stabilized the program. In his first season as a head coach, Morriss guided UK to a 2-9 record in 2001, which included three losses by four points or less to SEC opponents.

A season highlight included a 50-30 win at Vanderbilt that resulted in National Player of the Week honors for quarterback Jared Lorenzen, who threw for 453 yards and six touchdowns.

In the second half of the season,

Guy Morriss, here with Baylor President Dr. Robert B. Sloan Jr., was named Baylor's 24th head football coach Dec. 11, 2002.

Kentucky led the SEC in passing offense (376 yards per game) and ranked third in total offense (456.2 per game) while scoring an average of 29.8 points.

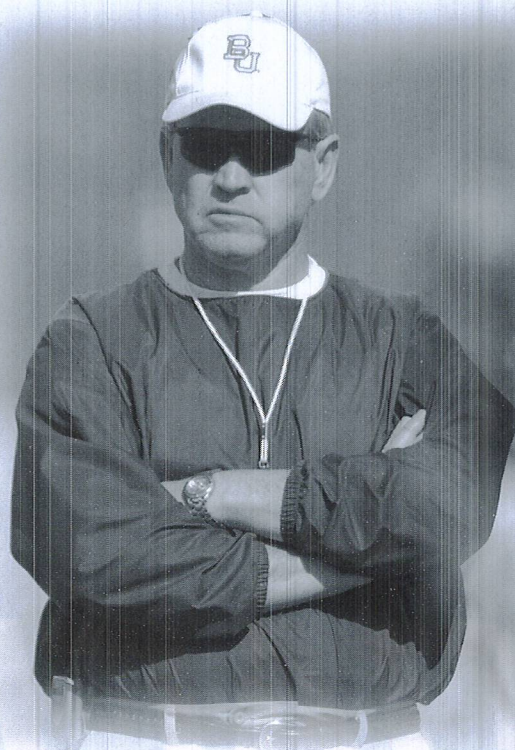

In his second season, the fruits of Morriss' leadership became quickly evident. The 2002 Wildcats turned some heads with a 7-5 record, including wins over Mississippi State, eventual SEC West Division champion Arkansas and 17th-ranked Louisville. The seven-win season in 2002 was only the fifth since 1955 for Kentucky, which received votes in the AP Top 25 poll. UK's defeats included a four-point setback vs. South Carolina, a seven-point loss at then-No. 7 Florida and an unbelievable three-point defeat on the final play vs. then-No. 17 LSU.

In Morriss' two seasons as head coach at Kentucky, 10 Wildcat players earned All-SEC recognition and two were named All-American. In his six seasons, four UK offensive linemen were selected first-team All-SEC and three earned freshman All-America honors.

Kentucky ranked in the nation's top 20 in passing offense five of Morriss' six years with the team and in the nation's top 15 in total offense in three of those seasons. In 1996, the year before Morriss' arrival, UK finished 109th in the nation in total offense.

Morriss spent three seasons as assistant head coach and offensive line coach at Kentucky before being promoted to head coach.

At Kentucky, Morriss and his accomplished staff were credited with rebuilding UK's relationships with high school coaches, as well as earning the respect of his players with a fair, no-nonsense approach. Morriss beefed up the team's off-season conditioning by instituting stringent 6 a.m. workouts, designed to toughen the team both physically and mentally.

Morriss began his coaching career with the New England Patriots from 1988 to 1989 under head coach and NFL Hall of Famer Raymond Berry. He was the offensive coordinator at Mansfield (Texas) High School in 1991. He was appointed head coach of the Washington Marauders of the Professional Spring Football League in 1992, but the league ceased operations prior to the start of the season.

From 1992 to 1993, Morriss coached the offensive line at Valdosta State. He returned to the professional ranks in 1994 and coached with the Arizona Cardinals under Buddy Ryan. Morriss spent the 1995 season with the Canadian Football League's San Antonio Texans. That season San Antonio was second in the CFL in points scored and advanced to the semifinals of the Grey Cup playoffs.

Prior to his tenure at Kentucky, Morriss spent one season at Mississippi State, where he coached the offensive line in 1996. MSU offensive tackle Brent Smith garnered first-team All-SEC honors and was a second-round selection of the Miami Dolphins in the NFL draft.

Morriss first made headlines as an All-Southwest Conference guard at TCU in 1972. Following his senior season, he played in four all-star games – the Blue-Gray Game, the Senior Bowl, the Coaches' All-America Game and the College All-Star Game.

After graduation, Morriss was a second-round draft pick of the Philadelphia Eagles in the 1973 NFL draft. He spent 11 seasons playing center for the Eagles, including the 1980 NFC championship team that played in Super Bowl XV. Morriss, an Eagles team captain for five seasons, was selected to the 1981 All-Pro team.

From 1984 to 1987, Morriss played for the New England Patriots. He was a member of the 1985 AFC champion New England squad and played in Super Bowl XX.

Morriss and his wife Jackie are the parents of five daughters: Colleen, Melanie, Kerry, Savannah Rae and Austin Leigh.

QUOTING GUY MORRISS

On why he came to Baylor:

"It was an opportunity to come home and be closer to my family. I'm a guy that likes competition. Obviously, Baylor is in one of the toughest conferences in America; it is very competitive. I'd say the Big 12 and the SEC are the two best conferences in America. There may be one conference better, and that's the NFL.

"To return to Texas and compete in an extremely competitive conference at a university with the academic tradition that obviously Baylor has, we think that is very unique and should be a strong selling point as far as our recruiting.

"There's a tremendous recruiting base here in Texas. There's probably 350 to 375 Division I prospects every year that come out of the state of Texas. If we can't sign 20 to 25 of them every year then something's wrong.

"We have five coaches on our staff that have strong Texas ties and that have been actively involved in recruiting Texas, so we have a good relationship with Texas high school coaches. We are continuing those relationships with the coaches that we know and we've started establishing relationships with the ones we don't know. Obviously high school coaches are probably the most important link in funneling kids to us. So we've opened our doors to Texas high school coaches, and anytime we can have them on our campus is a plus for us."

On expectations in first year:

"Our first priority is to lay a long-term foundation. We will be competitive, play hard and aggressive. We want to put some discipline and accountability back in the program. Unfortunately, these traits don't necessarily guarantee instant wins."

On offensive philosophy:

"In an ideal world, I'd like to throw the ball about 60 percent and run it about 40, depending on our talent and what we're working with. That particular balance is what I'm striving for.

"We like to spread the field. We throw the ball a lot, but I also believe in a strong running game — coming off red zone, short yardage; we want to be very efficient in our running game."

On defensive philosophy:

"We'll play an eight-man front, designed to stop the run first. We want to be very aggressive. We'll play with five DBs, and a lot of man coverage. Because of a lack of depth at the d-line position, we may have to play a three-man front.

"The closest thing I could compare us to is like Joe Lee Dunn's defense over at Mississippi State with the two outside safeties, the two inside linebackers, the four down linemen and a three-deep shell. We're not a soft, sit back and read, soft cover two, or anything like that and watch people snitch down the field on us. We're going to be more of an aggressive style of defense. We'll blitz a little bit. I think recruits enjoy playing that kind of game: offensively wide open and defensively very aggressive. That's what we'll sell them."

On what he has communicated to the players:

"Get ready to go to work. I believe that we can win here at Baylor, and they're going to have to be committed to that. We're going to demand high effort. They've got to decide if they want to be a part of this. They need to understand that wearing the Green and Gold is going to take on a whole new meaning. It's going to be important that they want to be a part of this program, and we're going to put some accountability and some pride in this program.

"I've always had a great relationship with my players. We don't just talk about Xs and Os. Players don't care about how much you know until they find out how much you care. That's the attitude that we're going to bring forward. I believe that if you can establish that kind of rapport and that level of trust with your players, they'll run through a wall for you. That's the first thing we're going to talk to them about."

On practices:

"I'm a high-effort coach. Our staff is that way and they coach that way. We believe in getting our work done. We're not going to waste time. We probably only practice for about an hour and 50 minutes, but for that hour and 50 minutes we're moving.

"I believe that you have to create a practice environment that's as close to game environment as you possibly can so our kids take the field on Saturday and are not in shock by the speed of the game. The tempo is going to be up; the kids (at Kentucky) enjoyed how we practiced, and they looked forward to coming to practice."

On overall philosophy:

"Our philosophy is not going to change. We may have to make a few adjustments depending on the athletes we have, and that's the process we're in right now: deciding what we have and who best fits where. But our philosophy and the style are probably not going to change much at all."

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING ABOUT GUY MORRISS ...CRAIG JAMES

Analyst, CBS Sports
former teammate, Patriots

"I've followed Baylor pretty closely as an old Southwest Conference fan. When I saw (Baylor) considering Guy Morriss, my question became, 'Will they be able to get him?'"

"Guy Morriss is a Texan who will understand how to recruit players to Waco, Texas. The key is the high school coaches. Guy Morriss will not speak to the high school coaches; he will speak with the high school coaches. He's one of them. He's not a high-falutin' prima donna. They're going to want to help Guy Morriss succeed at Baylor."

"He was a heck of a football player. He's very intelligent, and he understands the game."

"I'm happy for Baylor University. I would tell any mom and dad who has a kid interested in Baylor to allow Guy Morriss to call and talk to them."

MATT HAYES

Analyst
The Sporting News

"A solid coach and motivator, Morriss has proved he can guide a team through adversity. It was an A-plus hire."

DICK VERMEIL

Head Coach,
Kansas City Chiefs
former coach, Eagles

"In 1976, I took over the Philadelphia Eagles, who hadn't been a winning football team in years. We didn't have a first, second or third-round draft choice for the next three years coming up. But in the course of three years we were in the playoffs and in five years we were in the Super Bowl. One of the reasons we were able to do that was because of players and people like Guy Morriss and about 11 other guys just like him."

"Guy was one of what we called the 'Dirty Dozen.' That was a group that went in five years from the bottom of the NFL to the Super Bowl because of their character, their work commitment, their unselfishness and their caring about the program. Along with his teammates and coaches, he made a tremendous contribution to our football team. It's not surprising to me that he's coaching football. He's one that should be coaching. He cared about the game and everything around it. I have no doubt that he will have any problem transferring those feelings to those who play for him or work with him. He's one of the 'Dirty Dozen.' He's special to me."

HERM EDWARDS

Head Coach,
New York Jets
former teammate, Eagles

"Guy was a player who showed his intelligence on the field. You have to be intelligent to play center in the National Football League. He could always figure things out. Guy was always a great team player. A lot of guys stick with one side, whether they play offense or defense. He always communicated with both sides of the team and the older and younger players alike. He took to me when I was a young player. Guy is a great communicator and that will benefit him greatly as a head coach."

RAYMOND BERRY

NFL Hall of Famer
former coach & employer,
Patriots

"I think Baylor got itself a real jewel when it got Guy Morriss. He is the kind of guy I'd like my son to play for. I think he is one of the most capable coaches. He's got the fuels and abilities that are necessary for coaching. His unique ideas, knowledge, experience and integrity in football combine to make him the total package. When he retired as a player, I offered him a coaching job because I trusted that he was a natural."

GRANT TEAFF

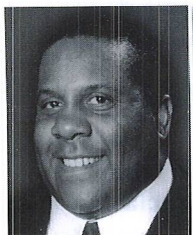

President,
American Football
Coaches Association

"I think it's a very good hire for Baylor. He has characteristics that Baylor needs. He is a very good coach and he has put together what appears to be a very good staff. Coach Goodner was on my staff and he is a great defensive coach. He is also from Texas. He played football in Texas. He has recruited in Texas. It is an advantage to have a coach that high school coaches can relate to. I had the privilege in October of speaking at Kentucky. I met Coach Morriss at a breakfast. I really liked him as a person and I trust that he'll fit in very well."

JACKIE SHERRILL

Head Coach,
Mississippi State
former employer, MSU

"Guy Morriss is a great hire for Baylor University. Guy has been around a lot of solid football coaches and brings the kinds of qualities you want in a head coach to the position. He is a mature coach...meaning he has been in the wars, he's not going to jump when things don't go exactly the way they should. He is an intelligent coach who knows players. What I liked about Guy is that he went about his business with our offensive linemen, and the offensive linemen he recruited here, all of them could play."

TOM ADAMS

Defensive Tackles

Rice, 1982

Tom Adams returns to Texas as Baylor's defensive tackles coach after spending the last six seasons at Kentucky.

Adams' final year at Kentucky produced All-SEC tackle DeWayne Robertson, who was taken as the fourth overall selection in the 2003 NFL Draft by the New York Jets.

In 2001, with injuries striking the tackles position, Adams brought out the best in senior Derrick Johnson. Little-used prior to the 2001 season, Johnson proved to be a reliable performer and eventually signed a free-agent contract with the Cincinnati Bengals.

Handling the entire defensive line prior to the 2000 season, Adams' 1999 D-line increased its production across the board over the 1998 season. The Wildcat lineman totaled 183 tackles, 22 tackles for loss, and 18 quarterback sacks. The Kentucky line helped limit opponents to 148.5 rushing yards per game, the best mark for a UK defense since 1987. End Dennis Johnson led the way with 39 tackles and five sacks and was chosen second-team all-SEC.

The play of Adams' 1998 defensive line helped the Wildcats total 88 tackles behind the line of scrimmage, the most for a Wildcats team since 1985. UK's 29 quarterback sacks ranked third in the Southeastern Conference. Dennis Johnson was named second-team Freshman all-America by The Sporting News.

Adams coached the defensive ends in 1997. Under Adams' guidance, Bamidele Ali ranked third in the SEC in quarterback sacks with seven, even though Ali was in his first season as a defensive lineman. Ali notched 17 of UK's 21 sacks.

Adams came to UK from Southern Methodist University. While at SMU, Adams coached the defensive line for three years, and the defensive tackles one year, including 1993 All-Southwest Conference performers Chad Patton and Adam Voyles.

From 1985-92, Adams guided the defensive line at Sam Houston State. In his final season at SHSU, Adams' defensive line helped set a single-season school record with 47 quarterback sacks. In 1991, Sam Houston State won the Southland Conference and made the NCAA I-AA playoffs. Adams coached seven all-conference players and one all-American at Sam Houston State.

Adams got his first full-time coaching position at Wharton County (Texas) Junior College, where he led the offensive and defensive lines from 1982-1984.

Adams played his college football at Rice. He won the team's Most Valuable Defensive Lineman Award in 1979 and 1980 and was the team captain during his senior season. He spent the 1981 season as a student assistant coach with the Owls' defensive line. He completed his bachelor's degree, with a double major in psychology and physical education in 1982.

Adams and his wife, Rita have two daughters, Brandi and Beth, and son Branch.

GERALD CARR

Assistant Head Coach/Running Backs

Southern Illinois, 1981

Gerald Carr, a 20-year veteran of the coaching profession, serves as assistant head coach and also handles the running backs for Baylor. With his duties as assistant head coach, Carr acts on behalf of coach Guy Morriss when the head coach is unavailable and helps with other duties as needed.

Carr has worked at nearly every level of his profession, including terms on the collegiate level, the National Football League, and the Arena Football League.

Carr was hired as Kentucky's running backs coach in February 2002, and he was promoted to assistant head coach that April. During his one season in Lexington, Carr mentored the SEC's leading rusher, Artos Pinner, who earned first-team all-conference and offensive player of the year honors.

Prior to his year at Kentucky, Carr spent the 2001 season at Indiana University, where he was quarterbacks coach and passing game coordinator for the Hoosiers. Under Carr's tutelage, quarterback Antwaan Randle-El was named first-team All America and the Big Ten Most Valuable Player. Randle-El became the first player in NCAA history to have 40 rushing touchdowns and 40 passing touchdowns in a career and also the only player in NCAA history to pass for more than 6,000 yards and rush for more than 3,000 yards in a career. Randle-El rushed for more yards than any quarterback in NCAA history and ranks fifth all-time in total offense with 11,364 yards.

Carr has been an offensive coach for all but one year of his collegiate career, with stints at Davidson, Akron, Washington State, Arizona, North Carolina, Wake Forest, and Indiana. Carr gained his first bowl experience with North Carolina helping guide the Tar Heels to the Peach, Gator, and Sun bowls during his three seasons (1992-94) with the team. He also helped lead Wake Forest to a victory in the 1999 Aloha Bowl.

Carr entered the professional ranks as wide receivers coach for the Philadelphia Eagles from 1995-98. The Eagles advanced to the NFL playoffs following the 1995 and 1996 regular seasons. In 1996, Pro Bowl wideout Irving Fryar set the Eagles' single-season record for receptions with 88.

Carr spent the 2000 season with the Carolina Cobras of the Arena League, working as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks/wide receivers coach.

Carr is a native of Davidson, N.C. He played quarterback at Southern Illinois and was a letterman from 1978-80. Carr and his wife, Vanessa, have two daughters: Ashonti and Miteya.

JOHN GOODNER

Southwestern Oklahoma State, 1967

Long-time Baylor defensive coach John Goodner returns to his former post with Guy Morriss after spending two seasons as Morriss' defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Kentucky. In addition to running the Bear defense and coaching the linebackers, Goodner also has the additional responsibility of recruiting coordinator.

A veteran mentor who exudes confidence and homespun humor, Goodner has earned the respect of his players with his positive personality, sense of purpose and trademark eight-man-front defense.

Goodner coached for 11 seasons (1982-92) at Baylor under legendary coach Grant Teaff, the final year as defensive coordinator. Guiding the inside linebackers also was Goodner's forte at Baylor where he developed All-American James Francis and All-Southwest Conference performers Kevin Hancock, Ray Berry, Gary Joe Kinne, Curtis Hafford and Le'Shai Maston.

Baylor notched eight winning seasons and played in five bowl games during Goodner's first term of service in Waco. Goodner went to Texas Tech following Teaff's retirement at the end of the 1992 season.

Goodner has had tremendous success with the eight-man front. He coached inside linebackers at Texas Tech from 1993-99 under Coach Spike Dykes and was defensive coordinator for his final five seasons. In 1998, Goodner's unit ranked eighth in the nation in total defense, yielding only 285 yards per game. In 1995, his first season as Tech's coordinator, the Red Raiders ranked third in the nation in pass efficiency defense, 19th in turnover margin and 24th nationally in scoring defense.

With Goodner as coordinator, Texas Tech had three first-team All-Americans, including linebacker Zach Thomas, defensive back

Marcus Coleman and defensive end Montae Reagor. Coleman and Thomas were first-team All America in 1995, the first time in school history that two Red Raiders earned that honor in the same season. Thomas, Coleman and Reagor all play in the National Football League.

Texas Tech never had a losing season with Goodner on board and the Red Raiders played in five bowl games during his seven seasons. The Red Raiders also led the nation in total takeaways over a five-year period from 1993-97.

A native of Frederick, Okla., Goodner played his college football at Southwestern Oklahoma State.

He spent 14 years as a high school coach, including head coaching stops at Noble (Okla.) HS, Denison (Texas) HS and Waxahachie (Texas) HS before entering the collegiate ranks at Baylor.

Goodner and his wife, Karen, have one daughter, Katherine, and two grandchildren - Kaila and Klemson.

LARRY HOEFER

Safeties

McMurry, 1973

Texas native and experienced defensive coach Larry Hoefer returns to the Lone Star state as Baylor's safeties coach after a two-year stint at Kentucky.

Hoefer arrived at UK from Texas-El Paso, where he was defensive coordinator and linebackers coach for the 2000 season. The Miners posted an 8-3 regular season record, were co-champions of the Western Athletic Conference, and played in the Humanitarian Bowl. The bowl game marked Hoefer's sixth as a coach, in addition to four at Texas Tech and one in 1988 in his previous stay at UTEP.

Using an eight-man front under Hoefer's guidance, UTEP reduced its rushing yardage allowed from 208.2 yards per game in 1999 to 153.8 ypg in the 2000 season. UTEP held five of its league opponents under 100 yards rushing. The Miners also ranked 19th nationally in pass efficiency defense.

Hoefer was at Texas Tech from 1994-99, where he coached the Red Raiders' outside linebackers and worked with current Baylor defensive coordinator John Goodner. Tech was bowl-eligible every season and played in the Cotton, Copper, Alamo, and Independence bowls during Hoefer's tenure. Among his proteges were Marcus Coleman, a first team All-American in 1995 who plays for the Houston Texans, and Ty Ardoin, who went on to play for the NFL's New York Giants. Hoefer also guided All-Big 12 picks Robert Johnson and Jody Brown. The Red Raiders ranked first in the nation for takeaways over a five-year period from 1993-97.

Hoefer had multiple responsibilities as an assistant at Missouri from 1989-93, working his way up from receivers coach to defensive coordinator and assistant head coach. Hoefer's first term at UTEP was from 1982-88, capped by a 10-win season and a berth in the 1988 Independence Bowl.

A native of Abilene, Texas, Hoefer stayed in his hometown and played defensive back at McMurry University. He was team captain and the team's most valuable player.

Hoefer's first coaching stop was at Tarleton State in 1974-75. He went on to coach Big Spring (Texas) High School in 1976 and Abilene High from 1977-80. Hoefer coached at West Texas State in 1981 before his first stop at UTEP.

Hoefer and his wife, Kathy, have three children - married daughter Alison Schupp and sons Tyler and Bennett - and two granddaughters, Sydney and Samantha Schupp.

HAROLD JACKSON

Wide Receivers

Jackson State, 1968

Harold Jackson, a five-time All-Pro wide receiver and 10-year National Football League coaching veteran, is in his first season as Baylor's wide receivers coach.

Jackson comes to Baylor after spending two seasons as receivers coach at Kentucky. In Jackson's first year at UK, wide-out Derek Abney became a first-team All-Southeastern Conference performer. Jackson also oversaw the development of Aaron Boone and Tommy Cook, who blossomed as reliable contributors during the 2001 campaign.

Jackson coached receivers for 10 years in the NFL with New England (1985-89), Tampa Bay (1992-93) and New Orleans (1997-99). In Jackson's first season as a coach, the Patriots won the conference championship and played in the 1986 Super Bowl. It was at New England where Jackson became acquainted with current Baylor coach Guy Morriss. Morriss played for the Patriots from 1984-87 and was an assistant coach in 1988-89.

Jackson enjoyed a 16-year playing career in the NFL with the Los Angeles Rams (1968, 1973-77), Philadelphia Eagles (1969-72), New England Patriots (1978-81), Minnesota Vikings (1982) and Seattle Seahawks (1983).

Jackson's career totals include 579 receptions for 10,372 yards and 76 touchdowns. He had 29 100-yard games in his career and three 1,000-yard seasons. He ranks 15th in league history in receiving yardage. He led the NFL in receptions in 1972 and in receiving yardage in 1969 and 1972.

A native of Hattiesburg, Miss., Jackson played his collegiate football at Jackson State University and is a member of both the Mississippi and JSU Sports Hall of Fames. His hometown of Hattiesburg held Harold Jackson day and presented him with a key to the city. Over the years, he has been active as a speaker for the Fellowship of Christian Athletes and for the Hattiesburg Department of Recreation.

In addition to his professional experience, Jackson also has coaching experience at the collegiate level. In 1990, he was an assistant coach at North Carolina Central University in Durham, N.C. In 1991, he was offensive coordinator for the New Orleans Night of the Arena Football League.

Following his two-year stint with Tampa Bay, Jackson spent 1994 as the head coach at Virginia Union College in Richmond, Va. He also was head coach for two seasons at Benedict College in Columbia, S.C., where he helped revive a football program that had been defunct for 29 years.

Harold and his wife, Carolyn, have one son, Brandon.

CHRIS LANCASTER

Offensive Line

Clemson, 1989

Noted for his enthusiasm and intensity on the practice field, offensive line coach Chris Lancaster returns to Baylor, where he got his first full-time coaching job in 1993, for his third tour of duty with the Bears.

Lancaster coached offensive tackles, tight ends, and special teams at Baylor from 1993-96, including a trip to the 1994 Alamo Bowl. One of Lancaster's former players, offensive tackle Fred Miller, was a two-year All-Southwest Conference choice and currently is the starting right tackle for the Tennessee Titans. Lancaster also was a graduate assistant coach at Baylor (1990-91), working with tight ends and linebackers, and the Bears played in the 1991 Copper Bowl.

A native of Fort Rucker, Ala., Lancaster grew up in Atlanta, Ga. He was the starting fullback at Clemson from 1985-87 before suffering a career-ending injury. He finished his career at Clemson as a student assistant coach in 1988-89 and worked with the running backs. During his five seasons at Clemson, the Tigers won three ACC championships (1986-88) and played in five bowl games - the Independence, Gator (twice) and Citrus (twice).

After serving as a graduate assistant at Baylor for two seasons, Lancaster returned to Clemson in 1992 as a graduate assistant and worked with tight ends.

Following his second stint in Waco, Lancaster coached offensive line for two seasons at Sam Houston State (1997-98) and McNeese State (1999-2000). McNeese State went to the national playoffs in the 2000 season while leading the conference in rushing and total offense. Lancaster protégé Wes Hines earned All-America honors and signed a contract with the Minnesota Vikings.

While at Sam Houston State, in addition to guiding the offensive line, Lancaster was the offensive coordinator in 1998. He coached offensive lineman Greg Studdard, who played in the National Football League with Atlanta and the New York Giants.

In 2001, Lancaster began a two-year stay at Kentucky. After coaching the defensive ends in 2001, he returned to overseeing the offensive line the next season.

As UK's defensive ends coach, Lancaster mentored Dennis Johnson, named the "Best Defensive Player" in the Southeastern Conference by The Southeastern Post magazine. Johnson led the SEC in tackles for loss, quarterback sacks, and fumbles caused, in addition to setting a single-season school record for sacks. Johnson was selected by the Arizona Cardinals in the NFL Draft and the Wildcats' other starting end, Chris Demaree, signed a free-agent contract with San Diego.

In his final season in Lexington, Lancaster's offensive line, led by first-team All-SEC standout Antonio Hall, provided the blocking for Artose Pinner to lead the SEC in rushing.

Lancaster and his wife, Kathi, have two daughters, Kaila and Klemson.

WESLEY McGRIFF

Cornerbacks

Savannah State, 1990

The highly energetic and charismatic Wesley McGriff enters his first season as Baylor's cornerbacks coach after spending the last two seasons at Kentucky.

A defensive coach for most of his career, having served as defensive coordinator at two schools, McGriff spent the 2001 season coaching the Wildcat running backs. With his runners leading the way, UK averaged 4.1 yards per carry, the team's best mark since the 1995 season. The Wildcat running backs did not lose any fumbles to the opponents in 2001.

In 2002, McGriff returned to defense and coached UK's cornerbacks.

McGriff spent the 2000 season just a few miles from Lexington as the secondary coach at Eastern Kentucky University in Richmond. The Colonels ranked fourth in the nation in total defense, fifth in scoring defense and ninth in passing yardage allowed. ECU posted four shutouts during the season. McGriff's standout sophomore safety, Jeremiah Bell, was a first-team All-Ohio Valley Conference pick. McGriff also coached the punt return team.

McGriff coached from 1995-99 at Kentucky State University in Frankfort, where he was assistant head coach, defensive coordinator and secondary coach. McGriff's defenses achieved numerous national top-ten statistical rankings, leading the nation in total defense in 1995 and leading the nation in pass yardage defense in 1997. In 1998, he was named National Assistant Coach of the Year in NCAA Division II by the American Football Coaches Association. Three of McGriff's players have played in the National Football League including Cletius Hunt (Green Bay), Devin Wyann (New England) and Michael Mason (San Francisco). In addition, Cary Scott was drafted by the Minnesota Vikings in 2001. While at KSU, he served as a professor in the Health, Physical Education, and Recreation Department.

McGriff began his coaching career at his alma mater, Savannah State College in Savannah, Ga. He was a graduate assistant with the running backs in 1990, moved into a full-time role as secondary coach in 1991-92, and added defensive coordinator duties in 1993-94. During the 1994 season, McGriff's unit ranked sixth in the nation in total defense. He also was head coach of the Savannah State baseball team for four seasons (1992-95), winning a pair of conference championships and being named Conference Coach of the Year twice.

A native of Tifton, Ga., McGriff played cornerback, running back and wide receiver for the Tift County High School state championship team. He began his collegiate career at South Carolina State for one year, then he transferred to Savannah State, where he started three years as an outside linebacker. He was team captain, was chosen the team's most valuable defensive player, and was named 1989 Male Academic Athlete of the Year at SSC. In addition to his bachelor's degree from Savannah State, he holds a master's degree from Georgia Southern University.

McGriff was commissioned as a second lieutenant in the U.S. Army in 1990. He was a member of the Army Reserves until 2001. McGriff and his wife, Karen, have a son, Jaylen.

MARK NELSON

Special Teams Coord./Defensive Ends

East Central Oklahoma State, 1980

Mark Nelson, one of the nation's best special teams coaches, is in his first season as Baylor's special teams coordinator and defensive ends coach.

Prior to his arrival in Waco, Nelson made his mark on the Southeastern Conference in two seasons as the special teams coach at Kentucky. Two Wildcats - punter Glenn Pakulak and kick returner Derek Abney - were named first-team All-SEC both years under Nelson. In 2002, Abney also earned first-team All-America honors after setting an NCAA record with six kick returns for touchdowns (four punts and two kickoffs).

The 2002 Wildcats also led the SEC in net punting (40.1) and punt return average (15.6) and were second in kickoff return average (23.6).

Nelson coached in the CFL from 1992-96. He was with the Edmonton Eskimos from 1992-94 as special teams coordinator, linebackers coach (1992) and running backs coach (1993-94). Edmonton won the 1993 Grey Cup championship and Nelson was named CFL Special Teams Coach of the Year.

Nelson became acquainted with Morriss when they coached together with the CFL's San Antonio Texans in 1995. Nelson was the linebackers coach and San Antonio was a conference finalist.

Nelson won another Grey Cup championship in 1996 as defensive line coach for the Toronto Argonauts.

After leaving the CFL, Nelson was defensive coordinator and assistant head coach for three seasons at Valdosta State University. His defensive units were consistently ranked at or near the top of the Gulf South Conference.

Nelson coached at Arkansas Tech in the 2000 season as defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach. Tech went 7-3, including a win over Delta State, the only loss suffered by the eventual NCAA Division II national champion.

A native of Edmonton, Alberta, Nelson was an NAIA All-American during his collegiate playing career at East Central Oklahoma State University. He played seven seasons in the CFL as a linebacker and fullback with Calgary (1980-85) and Saskatchewan (1986).

Nelson began his coaching career in 1986 at Choctaw High School in Edmond, Oklahoma. He entered the junior college ranks with Independence (Kan.) Community College. He was an assistant coach from 1987-89, then was promoted to head coach for the 1990 and 1991 seasons. ICC played in the 1987 Dixie Rotary Bowl. He left ICC in 1992 for Edmonton of the CFL.

Nelson and his wife, Lori, have three children, sons Kyle and Kolton, and daughter Kayli.

BRENT PEASE

Offensive Coordinator/Quarterbacks

Montana, 1990

Brent Pease, a former National Football League quarterback, assistant coach for a I-AA national championship team, and coach of the I-AA player of the year, enters his first season as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for Baylor after spending the two previous seasons in the same role at Kentucky.

At Kentucky, Pease taught second-team All-SEC quarterback Jared Lorenzen and led a Wildcat offense that averaged a league-leading 32.1 points per game in 2002.

Pease was the assistant head coach, offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Northern Arizona University for two seasons, helping the Lumberjacks advance to the 1999 I-AA playoffs. Pease coached quarterback Travis Brown, who was the Most Valuable Player of the 1999 Blue-Gray Game. Pease also proved his ability to coach the running game. During the 2000 season, NAU running back Marcus King rushed for 1,474 yards and 13 touchdowns.

Pease coached at the University of Montana from 1991-98. He was the offensive coordinator the last three seasons and also coached the quarterbacks (1994-98), running backs (1991-98) and wide receivers (1991-94).

With generous assistance from Pease's coaching, Montana was a fixture in the I-AA playoffs each of his last six seasons. The Grizzlies won the 1995 national championship, finished as runners-up in 1996, and were semifinalists in 1994. Montana rolled up 185 points, 46.3 per game, in the four playoff games en route to the 1995 title. Pease's offensive unit generated 191 points, 47.8 per game, in the '96 playoff series.

Pease's quarterback in '95, David Dickenson, won the Walter Payton Award as the I-AA national player of the year and was the Big Sky Conference Most Valuable Player from 1993-95. Dickenson's successor, Brian Ah Yat, was a three-year finalist for the Walter Payton Award and played in the Hula Bowl. Montana quarterbacks won the conference offensive player of the year award in five of his eight seasons at the school. Pease also coached two All-America wide receivers.

Pease is an alumnus of Montana. After two seasons at Walla Walla (Wash.) Community College, he played quarterback for the Grizzlies in 1985-86. He led the nation in total offense in 1986 and set nine school records. After college, he was drafted by the Minnesota Vikings and played two years for the Houston Oilers (1987-88). He also has playing experience in the Canadian Football League, the World League of American Football and the Arena Football League. In 1991, he was the first player selected in the inaugural WLAF draft by the Birmingham Fire.

A native of Mountain Home, Idaho, Pease and his wife, Paula, have a daughter, Halle, and a son, Kartsen.

JERRY PICKLE

Director of Football Operations

Delta State, 1976

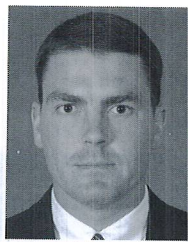

Jerry Pickle is in his 20th season on the Baylor staff and ninth year as director of football operations. He joined the Baylor staff full-time as recruiting coordinator and administrative assistant in 1986 under the legendary Grant Teaff.

Pickle began his coaching career at the high school level. He then coached five years in the college ranks in Mississippi and Missouri before coming to Baylor.

In his current role, Pickle handles administrative responsibilities for the Baylor football program. A sample of his wide-ranging duties include event scheduling, recruiting administration, admission of student-athletes, eligibility of student-athletes, housing and gameday operation. In 1995, Pickle was honored as one of Baylor's employees of the year.

Pickle has a bachelor's degree (1976) and a master's degree (1980) in health, physical education and recreation from Delta State University in Cleveland, Miss., where he lettered in football and track.

Pickle is married to the former Julie Turner and has two sons, Matthew (17) and Jonathan (14).

MARK PERRY

Asst. Dir. of FB Operations/Asst. Strength Coach

Kentucky, 2002

Mark Perry, a former quarterback at Kentucky, begins his first season at Baylor as assistant director of football operations and assistant strength coach. Perry, who served as a graduate assistant at Kentucky last season, came to Baylor as a graduate assistant in January 2003 before being moved to his current position in June.

A native of Chillicothe, Ohio, Perry was a three-year letterman and two-year starter during his prep career. He was an all-league and all-district pick as a senior at Lancaster (Ohio) High School when he completed 108 of 195 passes for 1,280 yards and 10 touchdowns. His junior year, Perry was named second-team all-district after completing 110 of 225 passes for 1,576 yards and 15 touchdowns at Lebanon High School. He also was a basketball letterman his junior season, and was a member of National Honor Society.

After high school Perry became the starting quarterback at Wilmington (Ohio) College, a Division III school. He started at WC as a true freshman, leading the team to a 5-5 record and completing 132 of 252 passes for 1,721 yards and 11 touchdowns.

Perry decided to transfer to Kentucky in 1997 and walked on the football team. He served as a backup quarterback and was the holder for placekicks. Perry had extensive playing time for the junior varsity team during his playing career at Kentucky. He saw action in all five games as a junior and completed 81 of 110 passes for 949 yards and six touchdowns. Because of his dedication in the classroom and on the field, Perry was awarded a scholarship his junior season. He earned a varsity letter as a senior and was inducted into UK's prestigious "Society of Character."

Perry was named to the SEC Academic Honor Roll as a junior and senior before graduating with a degree in kinesiology/health promotions. He worked as an administrative intern for the Wildcats coaching staff in 2001 before entering the coaching ranks.

ASSISTANT COACHES

PARR

Hardin-Simmons, 1997

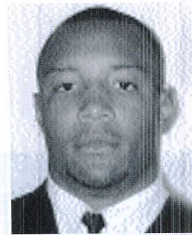

Texas-native Scott Parr joined the Baylor staff in December 2002 after serving three seasons as the wide receivers coach at Abilene Christian. While in Abilene, Parr was greatly involved with the ACU passing attack, which led the Lone Star Conference in passing offense in 2002 as the Wildcats won their first conference championship since 1977. Parr also was in charge of ACU's kick-off return, which led the league as well.

Prior to his time at ACU, Parr was the running backs coach at Sam Houston State for two seasons, where in 1998 he coached the second leading rusher in the Southland Conference.

SHSU led the SLC in total offense at 420.9 yards per game.

Parr played on three Texas Intercollegiate Athletic Association championship teams at Hardin-Simmons University. He began his coaching career in 1998 as a graduate assistant at HSU coaching quarterbacks.

Parr graduated from Hardin-Simmons in 1998. He is married to the former Kyla Flipppo.

JOE RAULS

Sam Houston State, 2002

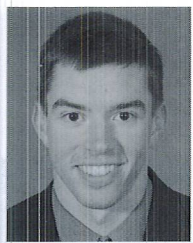

Joe Rauls is in his first season as a graduate assistant at Baylor; he joined the Bears' staff in June 2003. Rauls served as a graduate assistant coaching running backs for Sam Houston State during the 2002 season.

A 2002 graduate of SHSU with a bachelor's degree in kinesiology, Rauls was co-captain of the Bearkats' 2001 Southland Conference championship team. The 2001 Bearkats rolled up a 10-3 record to earn Sam Houston State's highest NCAA Division I-AA final national ranking (seventh) and reached the quarterfinals of the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs.

Rauls led Sam Houston State in rushing in 1998, 1999 and 2001, rolling up a career total of 2,265 yards and 15 touchdowns on 504 carries. He ranks as Sam Houston State's fifth all-time leading rusher. He earned second team All-Southland Conference honors in 2001.

Rauls was a leader off the field as well, earning Academic all-Southland Conference honors three times and serving as president of the Sam Houston State Student-Athlete Advisory Committee as a senior.

A Waco, Texas, native, Rauls was an all-state running back at LaVega High School, gaining 2,756 yards during his three year high school career.

JEFF BARLOW

Jeff Barlow is in his first year at head equipment manager at Baylor.

Barlow, a native of Vicksburg, Miss., received his undergraduate degree from Mississippi State in 2002. He served as a student manager at MSU for four seasons beginning in 1998.

In the summer of 2002, Barlow served a training camp internship with the NFL's Houston Texans.

A 1998 graduate from Warren Central High School in Vicksburg in 1998, Barlow is single.

DAVID CHANDLER

Assistant Director of Sports Medicine
Baylor, 1985

David Chandler, a veteran athletic trainer with an extensive background in the field of injury rehabilitation, has been associated with Baylor University for nearly half his life. Having attended school at Baylor and worked full-time at BU following graduation, Chandler returned to Baylor in 1996 after spending three years on the staff of the Champion Physical Therapy and Sports Health Clinic in Austin.

Chandler first joined the Baylor staff in 1985 after serving four years as a student trainer. He worked with football and men's basketball in addition to other sports until 1993 when he went into private practice. His current duties include working with the football and supervising the rehabilitation programs for all athletes.

In addition to his work at Baylor, Chandler frequently lectures at Southwest Athletic Trainers Association workshops. In 2000, Chandler was honored with the Outstanding Staff Award by Baylor University.

The 41-year-old Chandler was a football and golf letterman at Lancaster High and graduated in 1980. That same year he came to Baylor as a student trainer. Chandler graduated from Baylor with a B.S. in Education in 1985. He is licensed by the State of Texas and certified by the National Athletic Trainers Association.

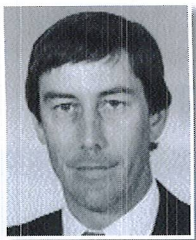

Chandler and his wife Amy, a Baylor graduate and softball letterwinner, have two sons, Cole and Will.

MIKE SIMS

Director of Sports Medicine
Baylor, 1980

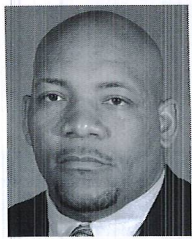

Mike Sims, who is considered one of the country's leading authorities on safety standards for sports equipment, is in his 23rd year as a Baylor athletic department staff member.

As a member of the board of directors of the National Operating Committee on Standards for Athletic Equipment (NOCSAE), Sims helps determine safety standards for such equipment as football and baseball helmets and catcher's masks. Sims has lectured at numerous training conventions and once won the Sam Ketchum Award for outstanding speaking ability at the Southwest Athletic Trainers Association (SWATA) Meeting. He has held a number of offices with both SWATA and the National Athletic Trainers Association (NATA). He is a past president of SWATA (1991-92) and the current chair of the NATA Ethics Committee.

Sims, 46, was born and raised in Cedar Hill. He served as a student trainer at Cedar Hill, graduating in 1975. He spent five years as a Baylor student trainer and graduated with a B.S. in 1980. He then earned his master's degree in 1982.

Sims, who is licensed by the State of Texas and certified by NATA, became Baylor's first full-time assistant trainer in 1981. He served three years in that capacity before becoming Baylor's head trainer in October 1984. He was then promoted to director of sports medicine in 1993.

Sims married the former Suzanne Stevens, also a Baylor graduate, on May 21, 1983. The Sims have two children: Jessica (13) and Keith (11). Sims is heavily involved in amateur radio and is a volunteer with the Office of Emergency Management. He also is involved in storm spotting for the National Weather Service.

JOHN WILLIAMS

Director of Strength & Conditioning
North Carolina A&T, 1995

John Williams Jr. joined Baylor as the school's director of strength and conditioning in May 2002. Williams, who had worked with more than 15 different sports at the collegiate level during previous stints at North Carolina and Oklahoma State, oversees Baylor's overall strength and conditioning program.

A 1995 graduate of North Carolina A&T, Williams has spent four of the last five years as an assistant strength coach at North Carolina. During his time in Chapel Hill, and in his one year at Oklahoma State, he worked with a number of different men's and women's sports.

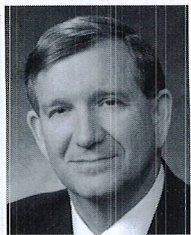

While at UNC, Williams organized and conducted strength and speed camps and clinics for high school teams. He also was responsible for coordinating the Tar Heel's pro day, which gave NFL scouts a comprehensive look at UNC's draft-eligible student-athletes.

Williams, a native of Greenville, N.C., is married to the former Sherri Taylor of Kinston, N.C.

University President

Baylor, 1970

Since becoming the 12th president of Baylor University in 1995, Dr. Robert B. Sloan Jr. has undertaken monumental strides to ensure Baylor's continued success while upholding Baylor's traditions and heritage. His dedicated Christian character and tireless efforts have increased the University's prominence and reputation around the world.

Sloan's guidance has facilitated growth and promise for the University. His administration has guided the completion of several landmark building projects such as the McLane Student Life Center, the Sheila and Walter Umphrey Law Center and the Baugh-Reynolds Campus of George W. Truett Theological Seminary. Projects under construction include the $23 million Harry and Anna Jeanes Discovery Center, the centerpiece of the Sue and Frank Mayborn Natural Science and Cultural History Museum Complex, and the $103 million multidisciplinary Baylor Sciences building. These cutting edge facilities will give the University an unprecedented environment for equipping students as leaders.

With his leadership, the University also has embraced Baylor 2012 as the primary planning document for the future of Baylor. The 10-year Vision was developed with input from faculty, staff, students, alumni and Regents and reflects Sloan's desire to see Baylor enter the top-tier of American universities while maintaining its distinctive Christian mission. Among other plans, the Vision calls for a student-faculty ratio of 13:1; recruitment and retention of world-class faculty and students; creation of an Honors College and a School of Communication; strengthening and expansion of the Graduate School; addition of 120 new classes per semester that focus on the Great Texts; construction of additional residential life facilities that will add 1,800 beds; and increasing the University's endowment to $2 billion.

Like Baylor University, Sloan's life mirrors a pursuit of faith and learning. He earned a BA from Baylor in 1970, an MDiv from Princeton Theological Seminary in 1973 and a Doktor der Theologie from the University of Basel, Switzerland in 1978. Sloan, who has written two books and published more than 50 articles and book chapters, was the first dean of George W. Truett Theological Seminary (1993-1995), a professor in the Department of Religion (1983-present) and holds The George W. Truett Chair in Evangelism. He has served as pastor or interim pastor at more than 20 churches in Texas, Oklahoma, New Jersey and Germany.

Sloan, who chaired the Big 12 Conference Board of Directors from 2000-2002, served as spokesperson for a group of six major college athletic conference CEOs. He is a member of the Cooper Foundation Board and the Board of Trustees for the Baylor College of Medicine. He was inducted into the Little League Hall of Excellence in 1996 and was named a Baylor Distinguished Alumnus in 2000.

Sloan and his wife, the former Sue Collier (BA '70) are members of First Baptist Church of Waco and have seven children: Charissa (BA '95, MA '96, JD '99), Bryan (BA '98), Eraina (BA '99, MDiv '02), Michael (BA '02), Alatheia (BA '03), Sophia (a Baylor sophomore) and Paul.

Dr. Sloan and family with "Lady," Baylor's live-bear mascot.

TOM STANTON

Director of Athletics

Baylor, 1972

Now in his seventh year as director of athletics is Tom Stanton, a former Bear basketball standout and business leader whose enthusiasm, vision and leadership skills have helped Baylor hold a strong position in America's premier conference.

Under Stanton's guidance, the Baylor athletics department has experienced unprecedented levels of success and new growth in capital improvements. A tireless fundraiser, Stanton has spearheaded the effort for nearly $40 million worth of new athletic facilities, including Baylor's baseball, softball, tennis, golf and soccer programs, while ensuring major renovations on existing facilities serving every other Bear sport.

Stanton's capital projects began taking shape in 1998 with the creation of the Jim and Julie Turner Riverfront Athletic Complex, which today joins together the 5,000-seat Baylor Ballpark (baseball), the 1,230-seat Getterman Stadium (softball), the 1,500-seat Baylor Tennis Center and 1,000-seat Betty Lou Mays Soccer Complex along the banks of the Brazos River.

Baylor's football program has seen two major projects completed in the last four years — a state-of-the-art skybox/press box facility that houses 36 luxury suites and the Dave Campbell Media Center and a new, 8,000 square-foot team lockerroom, expanded weight and training facilities.

The Ferrell Center, Baylor's basketball and volleyball venue, has had lockerrooms, offices and weight rooms expanded and upgraded since the turn of the millennium. A new permanent wood playing surface was finished prior to the 2002-03 school year.

Baylor's golf programs now enjoy the Bill and Roberta Bailey Golf Center, which sits on Waco's newest and Texas' longest public golf course, Bear Ridge.

And the Bears' storied track and field program has added the Winston Wolfe Clubhouse, a 3,600 square-foot structure with locker, training and meeting facilities.

During the 2002-2003 academic year, Baylor added ProStar video-plus display systems at football's Floyd Casey Stadium, the Ferrell Center, baseball's Baylor Ballpark and softball's Getterman Stadium.

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

Baylor was the first school in the nation to sport a video board at its softball facility.

While putting Baylor on par with the nation's finest from a facilities standpoint, Stanton also has gone to great lengths to make the Bears competitive from a coaching perspective by hiring nationally-renowned individuals to lead the various Baylor athletic programs.

Under Stanton, Baylor's ranking in the Sears Directors' Cup rankings has jumped from 120th (1996-97) to a consistent top-quarter finish. Twice in the past four years (39th in 1998-99 and 40th in 2001-02), Baylor has finished among the top 40 nationally. After averaging a league championship every five years in the old Southwest Conference, Baylor has averaged nearly one title per year in the ultra-competitive Big 12.

Stanton was named Baylor's director of athletics June 1, 1996 by president Dr. Robert B. Sloan Jr. Stanton came to Baylor in July 1995 as the director of athletic marketing and promotions following a 22-year career in corporate marketing for Thomas Nelson, Inc. and Word, Inc.

Stanton holds a bachelor's degree in business and a master's degree in education, both from Baylor. He lettered three years in basketball and two in baseball. He won the team's Hustle Award three consecutive years, and as a junior he was second on the team in scoring behind All-American William Chatmon. Upon completing his playing career, Stanton served as a graduate assistant coach on the Baylor basketball staff.

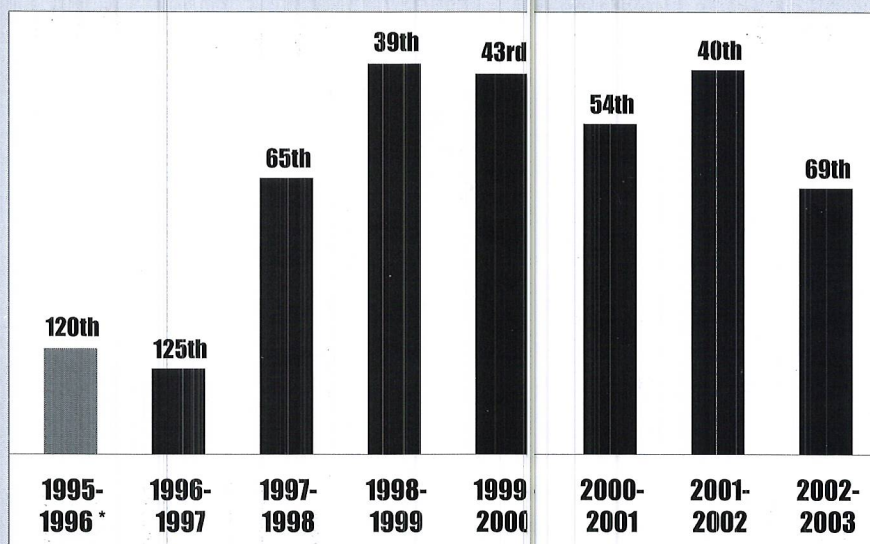

Prior to his Baylor days, Stanton was a standout athlete at Cooper High School in Abilene, Texas. He was inducted into the school's athletic hall of fame in 2002.

Stanton and his wife, Kathleen, also a Baylor graduate, have two sons, Clinton and Ryan.

CLYDE HART

Associate AD/Track & Field Head Coach

Baylor, 1956

Joined Baylor Athletics: May 1963

Clyde Hart, in his 41st year with Baylor athletics, holds the dual title of associate athletic director for internal affairs and head track and field coach.

A former state-champion high school sprinter in Arkansas, Hart still holds the Baylor record in the 100-yard dash and ran on a SWC champion 440-yard relay team that tied the world record. He also was a member of BU's 880-yard relay team that won college track's Triple Crown, the Texas, Kansas and Drake Relays.

Hart began his coaching career at Central High School in Little Rock, Ark., where he won five straight cross country and track state championships. Before coming to Baylor in 1963, Hart had coached Central runners to virtually every state record in Arkansas.

The Bears' men's team has finished as high as third in the NCAA championships four times (1985 indoor and outdoor; 1990 outdoor; 2001 outdoor). In 1989, 1990 and 1991, the Bears were ranked by Track and Field News as the top collegiate relay team in America, based on statistical rankings of all relays.

Hart has coached athletes to All-America honors 441 times. His relay teams have set American, collegiate, conference and junior world records at a variety of distances.

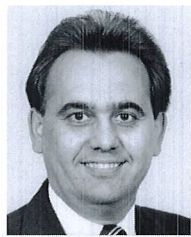

Hart is well known for his tutoring of 400-meter runners. Included in his list of stellar pupils are eight-time All-American Mark Collins, former SWC record holder Zeke Jefferson, 10-time All-American Johnny Thomas and NCAA champions Willie Caldwell, Raymond Pierre, Michael Johnson, Deon Minor and Brandon Couts.

Hart coached 2000 NCAA indoor 400-meter champion Brandon Couts. At the 2001 NCAA Outdoor Championships, Bayano Kamani claimed his second 400-meter hurdles national title and teammate Michael Smith finished second.

Hart's 4x400-meter relay teams have won 13 NCAA titles since 1985 and the men's team has finished in the Top 5 at the NCAA Outdoor Championships for 23 straight years. They also have won the Texas Relays 10 of the last 15 years and the Drake Relays in 10 of the last 12 years. In 1998, Baylor won an unprecedented men's and women's 4x400-meter relays at the same NCAA indoor meet.

A 2001 inductee into the Texas Sports Hall of Fame, Hart was recognized by the Texas Sports Writers Association as the state's Senior College Spring Coach of the Year in 1985. The NCAA Track Coaches Association named Hart their 1989 national indoor coach of the year, and he is that group's past president. In 1996, Hart swept conference, regional and national coach of the year honors. He also was named the USOC national track coach of the year.

Hart and his wife Maxine, also a Baylor graduate and professor emerita of BU's Hankamer School of Business, have two grown sons, Greg and Scott, and three grandchildren.

DOUG SMITH

Executive Director, Bear Foundation

Joined Baylor Athletics: July 1998

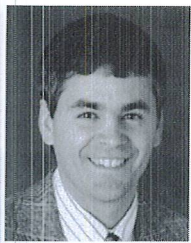

In five years at Baylor, Doug Smith has made his mark on the Baylor Bear Foundation, the athletic department's fundraising arm. Recognized nationally for his development of the "team concept" approach to athletic fundraising, his program of involving volunteers raised more than $2.5 million in new money and 3,000 new members since its inception.

Smith came to Baylor in July 1998 with a track record of 27 years of raising funds to the tune of $47 million in annual funds. He has led efforts at seven other major universities. One of his biggest success stories came at the University of Oklahoma, where he administered the entire athletic development program, which included annual giving, major gifts, special projects, skysuites, deferred giving, gifts-in-kind, marketing and promotions and licensing. Total revenue from that area per year was more than $5 million.

Prior to Baylor, Smith directed athletic fundraising at Rice University, where his team concept tripled previous annual donations. He also has directed highly successful programs at SMU, New Mexico, Pacific, Cal State Fullerton and his alma mater, Kent State.

Smith was named "National Athletic Fundraiser of the Year" in 1990. He is a founding member of the National Athletic Fundraising Association and a founding board member of the National Association of Athletic Development Directors.

Smith and his wife, Loraine, are the parents of four children, sons Scott and Lane and daughters Kristen and Nicole. They also have one grandchild, Benjamin.

TOM HILL

Assoc. AD/Facilities & Event Management

Joined Baylor Athletics: December 1989

Tom Hill, in his 15th year at Baylor, is a man who wears many hats. Currently an associate athletic director, in his time at Baylor he has worked as a graduate assistant, NCAA compliance director, assistant track coach and assistant athletic director.

In the last three years, Hill has moved from coaching to serving as the athletic department's director of facilities and event management. He was promoted to his current position of associate AD in the summer of 2001.

Hill is responsible for all the athletic department's facilities, event management and customer services efforts. He also fulfills administrative duties with the track and field program.

Hill and his staff oversee the department's community relations, concessions and novelties, auxiliary events, maintenance of all athletic facilities and game management for both Baylor and outside events.

Prior to assuming his current duties, Hill oversaw many of the department's capital improvement projects, day-to-day operations and football advanced set-up. In addition to these duties, Hill supervised the track and field capital improvement project, served as meet director for the 1997 and 1999 Big 12 Outdoor Track & Field Championships and coordinated the 1998 fall preseason and postseason WNIT.

A native of St. Mary's, W.Va., Hill graduated from Cedarville College in Ohio with a B.A. degree in math. He was a four-year letterman in both track and cross country, running all distances from the 1,500 meters to the 10,000 meters while earning All-America and one athlete of the year award.

After Cedarville, Hill worked at his alma mater as assistant cross country coach. He finished his master's degree in sports administration at Baylor in 1989.

Previously involved in Athletes in Action, Hill competed in several European track and field trips, including stints in Eastern Europe. In addition to serving as the European project coordinator for AIA, Hill directed several activities at the national championships. He also is actively involved in the Waco community, serving on the board of directors of the Texas Sports Hall of Fame and the Partners of McClennan County. Previously, Hill also sat on the Waco Parks and Recreation Commission.

In the past two years, Hill led "Baylor on Mission" teams to remote villages along the Amazon River Basin in Brazil.

BEAR FOUNDATION FUND DRIVE

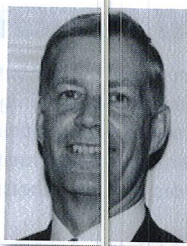

The 18th Team

The primary method of raising funds for athletic scholarships at Baylor is done by conducting an annual "fund drive" each spring. The fund drive utilizes the "team concept" whereby alumni and friends of the athletic department are organized into teams of volunteers to raise money. The volunteers work in a friendly, competitive environment soliciting memberships in return for achieving individual and team honors for their efforts.

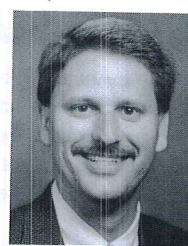

The fund drive runs for about six weeks beginning in early spring each year. The campaign coincides with the membership year of all Bear Foundation memberships. Volunteers are asked to make contact with friends, family members, businesses and other alumni who are interested in joining the Bear Foundation to help support scholarships for student-athletes at Baylor.

More than 250 volunteers across the state of Texas and in outlying states raised more than $2.4 million dollars for athletic scholarships in 2003. Volunteers have the opportunity to attend numerous Baylor athletic events as well as meet the Baylor coaches and student-athletes during the fund drive each year. Anyone with an interest in Baylor athletics can become a volunteer.

For more information about the 2004 Fund Drive and how you can become a part of The 18th Team, contact the Baylor Bear Foundation office at (254) 710-2582 or email us at bearfoundation@baylor.edu.

BAYLOR BEAR FOUNDATION

YOUNG ALUMNI PROGRAM

The Young Alumni Program, an upstart organization within the Baylor Bear Foundation structure, offers the opportunity for young alumni and recent graduates to become involved or continue to be involved with Baylor athletics. At the same time, these new members help support the education of our student-athletes through scholarship assistance.

For only $8.33 per month, the Young Alumni Program of the Baylor Bear Foundation gives recent graduates all the benefits that regular members of the Bear Foundation pay at least $300 to receive.

Check out these exciting benefits YOU could enjoy this year!

- 40 % discount on football season tickets or 3 game mini-ticket package
- Eligibility for priority seating at home football and basketball games
- Reserved parking at home football games
- 26 issues of the Insider newsletter covering all Baylor sports
- Membership card and decal
- Game program recognition
- Insider newsletter recognition
- Invitations to special events for young alumni
- Special events for Baylor seniors each semester
- Opportunities to attend functions hosted by the Bear Foundation before each home game

PREFERRED ADVERTISERS CLUB

The Baylor Athletic Department's Preferred Advertisers' Club (PAC) represents a large group of business advertisers that have chosen to invest in a variety of individualized advertising packages. Included in the wide range of benefits offered to advertisers are scoreboard recognition, program ads, marquee messages, season tickets, signage and promotional opportunities at Floyd Casey Stadium, The Ferrell Center and Baylor Ballpark.

BAYLOR

UNIVERSITY

TEXAS' FIRST UNIVERSITY

Chartered in 1845 by the Republic of Texas through the efforts of Baptist pioneers, Baylor University is the oldest institution of higher learning in the state.

While remaining true to its Christian heritage, Baylor has grown to more than 14,000 students, who come from all 50 states and some 90 countries. Its nationally recognized academic divisions offer 164 baccalaureate degree programs, 72 master's degree programs, 19 doctoral degree programs and 5 professional degree programs.

Baylor's 735-acre campus is on the banks of the Brazos River in Waco, Texas, a metropolitan area of 213,000 people.

In September 2001, the Baylor University Board of Regents adopted a bold 10-year Vision called Baylor 2012. Within the course of a decade, Baylor intends to enter the top tier of American universities while reaffirming its distinctive Christian mission. Academics Baylor consists of 10 academic units. Baccalaureate programs are offered through the College of Arts and Sciences, Hankamer School of Business, Louise Herrington School of Nursing, the Honors College and the Schools of Education, Engineering and Computer Science, and Music. At the graduate and professional levels, Baylor houses the Graduate School, Law School and George W. Truett Theological Seminary.

The College of Arts and Sciences offers a comprehensive range of programs for Baylor students through its 26 academic departments. Students have the opportunity to pursue a variety of degrees through the College. Most students take courses within the College as part of their core curriculum requirements for degrees from other schools at Baylor.

Students in the College routinely qualify for prestigious academic awards. During the past few years, Baylor students have received Fulbright, Goldwater, Truman and Marshall Scholarships and Howard Hughes Predoctoral and National Science Foundation Fellowships.

The Hankamer School of Business has prepared its graduates to succeed in the highly competitive climate of the world economy. The School's undergraduate curriculum, which leads to the bachelor of business administration degree, encompasses the liberal arts and sciences, a professional business core and 19 major fields of study. Hankamer also offers a graduate business program with 10 fields of study, including executive education programs and specializations in health care administration, international business and customer relationship management.

U.S. News & World Report ranked the School's undergraduate business programs in the top 16 percent in its 2003 guide to "America's Best Colleges," while ranking the graduate entrepreneurship program 23rd in the nation. Entrepreneurship magazine ranks Baylor's entrepreneurship program in the top tier, and The Princeton Review includes Hankamer's MBA program in its "Top 80 Business Schools in America." The School's Executive MBA programs are ranked 21st by U.S. News & World Report. The Executive MBA in Dallas was rated as the top program in the Dallas-Fort Worth metroplex, the 14th in the U.S. and 25th in the world by Financial Times.

The programs in the Honors College enrich the University's academic programs. Established as part of Baylor 2012, the College's programs are designed for those with both superior academic qualifications and a high degree of intellectual curiosity and motivation. The Honors, University Scholars, Great Texts and Baylor Interdisciplinary Core programs are found in the College.

The School of Education, accredited by the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education (NCATE), offers six degrees with more than 60 specializations. State Board for Educator Certification data indicates Baylor students and graduates earn greater than a 97 percent passing rate on state examinations for teachers, counselors and administrators. The School's network of professional development schools and Center for Educational Technology places it as a leader in the use of technology for improving teaching and learning. The Baylor University/Waco Independent School District Partnership Council is implementing 10 professional development schools (PDS) in Texas and establishing a mentoring program which will assist local teachers. In 2001, School of Education Dean Robert Yinger was elected to the board of directors of the American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education (AACTE), a national association of colleges and universities with programs that prepare professional educators.

The School of Engineering and Computer Science combines traditional liberal arts and challenging technical programs to provide its graduates skills including communication, ethics, teamwork and technical competency. The School offers undergraduate degrees in five majors and a master's degree in computer science. In its 2003 guide to "America's Best Colleges," U.S. News & World Report ranked the School's engineering program 20th in the nation among those focused on the needs of undergraduates. For the seventh consecutive year, 100 percent of Baylor's engineering students who have taken the Fundamentals of Engineering examination administered by the Texas State Board of Registration for Engineers have passed the exam. Baylor computer science graduates command top compensation and acclaim from diverse employers. The School's bioinformatics major — a specialization that combines molecular biology and computer science — is one of the first of its kind in the world. The development of a Baylor laboratory housing the database from the human genome project is giving bioinformatics students unparalleled laboratory and research experiences. Opportunities for further enrichment include study abroad programs, engineering design projects, summer intern work experience in computer science, and residence in the Engineering and Computer Science Living-Learning Center within the under-construction North Village Complex.

The School of Music offers students a thorough background of music training and high-quality performance experience in its curriculum. Performing groups in the School of Music include the Baylor Symphony Orchestra, Golden Wave Marching Band, A Cappella Choir, Opera Theater, Baylor ShowTime! and numerous other ensembles. These groups have performed at prestigious conventions, including the American Choral Directors' Association, the American Bandmasters Association and the American Guild of Organists. The School presents more than 300 programs each year by students, faculty and guest artists. Annual highlights include the President's Concert and the Dean's Honor Concert. The School's weekly radio program, "Music at Baylor," is broadcast on National Public Radio affiliate KWBU-FM. The School's students also will be highlighted in "Christmas at Baylor," a television special to air on PBS stations across the country during the 2003 holiday season. Students of the School have achieved national recognition, including fellowships to the Blossom Music Festival, Aspen Music Festival and Tanglewood Festival. The most significant national event in the field of church music, the Hearn Symposium, is held biannually at Baylor.

The Louise Herrington School of Nursing offers upper division (junior and senior) baccalaureate and master's programs on the Dallas campus at the Baylor University Medical Center. Undergraduate nursing students pursue the bachelor of science in nursing (BSN) degree and prepare for the registered nurse (RN) licensure. The School also offers the master of science in nursing (MSN) degree in three areas: nursing administration and management, family nurse practitioner (FNP) and neonatal nurse practitioner (NNP), as well as a joint BSN/MSN program for RNs. U.S. News & World Report ranked the School's master's programs as 58th in the nation in its 2003 "Best Graduate Schools" listing. Nearly 100 percent of Baylor nursing graduates who seek employ-are perennially successful in interscholastic competition on state, regional and national levels. Baylor Law School also has an unparalleled record of success on the Texas Bar Exam and an enviable placement rate. About 82 percent of the approximately 400 students at the Law School come from undergraduate study at a nationwide array of colleges and universities other than Baylor. In 2001 the Law School moved into the $30 million Sheila and Walter Umphrey Law Center on the banks of the Brazos River.

One of the nation's fastest growing theological schools, George W. Truett Theological Seminary is an accredited member of the Association of Theological Schools. Since welcoming its first class in fall 1994 with one Master of Divinity program, Truett Seminary now offers an MDiv in three concentrations, plus an MDiv/Master of Social Work, an MDiv/Master of Music, an MDiv/MSEd and a Doctor of Ministry. Truett has joined with the College of Arts and Sciences' School of Social Work as a co-founder of the Baylor Center for Family and Community Ministries with the goal of strengthening the capacity of families and communities to nurture faith through the ministry of congregations. In spring 2002 the first classes were held in Truett's Baugh-Reynolds Campus, an $18 million Seminary complex on the Baylor campus, which features classrooms, a student life suite, a prayer room, community spaces, the Paul and Katy Piper Great Hall, the Robert B. Sloan Jr. Teaching Chapel and the Paul Powell Chapel. More than 270 Truett graduates are serving in churches and mission fields throughout the world.

U.S. News & World Report ranked Baylor in the top 130 national universities in its 2003 college guide. And, Baylor is one of 43 public and private colleges and universities nationwide listed as a "Best Buy" in the 2003 edition of The Fiske Guide to Colleges.

Baylor's costs remain below the average tuition for private institutions in Texas and well below the national average of private peer institutions in the first and second tiers of the U.S. News & World Report guide.

ment upon graduation find a position within one month and most are employed upon graduation.

Many of the programs in Baylor's Graduate School consistently receive high national rankings, including entrepreneurship, music, religion, clinical psychology, speech pathology, physical therapy, health care administration and nursing. With more than 1,200 graduate students on campuses in Waco, Dallas, San Antonio and West Point, Baylor awards more than 600 master's degrees and 600 doctoral degrees each year. The clinical psychology program at Baylor, the oldest and longest accredited university PsyD program in the country, has a national reputation for producing outstanding practicing clinical psychologists. Baylor has the only PhD programs in the nation in church-state studies and applied sociology. Doctoral programs include biology, biomedical studies, chemistry, church-state studies, education (administration, curriculum and instruction, psychology), English, geology, mathematics, neuroscience, philosophy, physical therapy, physics, religion, sociology and statistics.

Baylor Law School, the oldest law school in Texas, draws its students from across the nation. Entering credential levels for students are in the top 15th to 20th percentile nationally. In a recent edition of The Princeton Review, Baylor is described as "the Marine Corps of law schools." The publication notes that "the Baylor University School of Law is very small, very affordable, and very difficult to get into. For students lucky enough to gain admissions, Baylor's unique, ultra-intense, and 'tough' Practice Court Program is arguably the best training ground in the nation for practical lawyering." The school's mock trial and moot court teams

Ten-Year Vision: 2002-2012

In September 2001, the Baylor University Board of Regents adopted a bold 10-year Vision called Baylor 2012. Baylor's Vision for the future, though continuous with its cherished past, aspires to what few institutions, if any, have achieved. Within the course of a decade, Baylor intends to enter the top tier of American universities while reaffirming and deepening its distinctive Christian mission. For information on the benefits of and progress toward Baylor 2012, visit www.baylor.edu/vision on the web.

The following 12 imperatives, which reflect Baylor's foundational assumptions and core convictions, are designed to guide the University to a new level of excellence.

- IMPERATIVE I • Establish an environment where learning can flourish
- IMPERATIVE II • Create a truly residential campus
- IMPERATIVE III • Develop a world-class faculty
- IMPERATIVE IV • Attract and support a top-tier student body
- IMPERATIVE V • Initiate outstanding new academic programs in selected areas
- IMPERATIVE VI • Guide all Baylor students, through academic and student life programming, to understand life as a stewardship and work as a vocation
- IMPERATIVE VII • Provide outstanding academic facilities
- IMPERATIVE VIII • Construct useful and aesthetically pleasing physical spaces
- IMPERATIVE IX • Enhance involvement of the entire Baylor family
- IMPERATIVE X • Build with integrity a winning athletic tradition in all sports
- IMPERATIVE XI • Emphasize global education
- IMPERATIVE XII • Achieve a $2 billion endowment

WACO

THE HEART OF TEXAS

With a population of 213,000, the Waco metropolitan area is located in the heart of Central Texas and within driving distance of most major urban centers in the state -- approximately 100 miles from Dallas and Austin and 180 miles from Houston and San Antonio. Airline service to Dallas/Fort Worth and Houston is available through the expanded and renovated Waco Regional Airport.

The climate of Central Texas is mild year-round. High temperatures range from the upper 90s at the peak of the summer to the 30s and 40s in the winter. Housing is affordable, and part-time jobs are easy to find.

Outdoor recreational opportunities in the Waco area include 7,000-acre Lake Waco and the 416-acre Cameron Park, one of the state's largest municipal parks which offers hiking and mountain biking trails, a championship disc golf course and the natural habitat Cameron Park Zoo. There are a total of 35 parks in the city.

Annual events include Baylor Homecoming, the Heart O' Texas Fair and Rodeo and outdoor concerts held along the banks of the Brazos River.

A city of museums and galleries, Waco's local offerings include the Texas Ranger Hall of Fame and Museum, the Texas Sports Hall of Fame, the Art Center, the Dr Pepper Museum and a number of sites on the Baylor University campus, including two art galleries, Armstrong Browning Library, the Mayborn Museum Complex and the Governor Bill and Vara Daniel Historic Village.

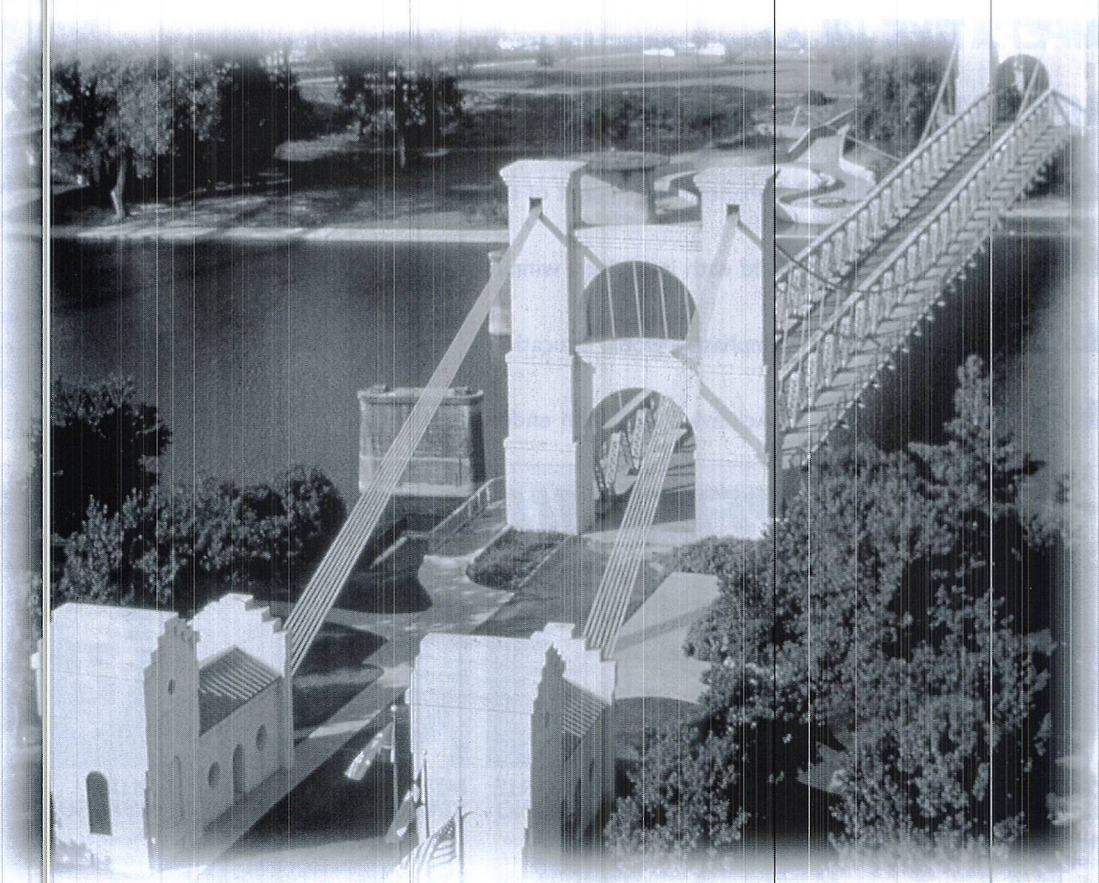

Waco is home to a variety of fine restaurants, many located in the city's revitalized warehouse district downtown. The area features an eclectic mix of restaurants, specialty shops and loft and office space.

Waco History

Waco is named after the Waco Indians, the first inhabitants of the area surrounding a natural spring on the Brazos River. The tribe lived in beehive-shaped huts and had hundreds of acres of land planted with corn, beans and other vegetables. The tribe was generally considered a peaceful one, but occasionally, when threatened, the Wacos became protective of their territory. Part of their village was located on the banks of the Brazos where the Suspension Bridge was later built.

In 1837, the Texas Rangers arrived intending to build a fort -- Fort Fisher -- at the Waco village, but the expedition was short-lived and plans for the outpost were canceled. A trading post was established near Waco Village in 1844, and a year later a rugged Scot named Neil McLennan established the first frontier settlement in the area. In 1848, three years after Texas became a state, the Mexican land grant surrounding the old Waco Village site was sold to a group of businessmen from Galveston. In 1849, surveyor George Erath laid out the first streets of Waco, and lots were sold for $5 each. The City of Waco was incorporated on Aug. 29, 1856, and serves as the county seat of McLennan County.

In 1870, the 475-foot Suspension Bridge opened as the first pedestrian/wagon bridge across the Brazos River, providing easier access for numerous travelers as well as cattle herds being driven along the Chisholm Trail. The Waco and Northwestern Railroad reached Waco in 1871, and the city was soon a hub of commerce for Central Texas.

Baylor athletics continues to excel on and off the field of competition. The Bears continue to field competitive athletic programs while being recognized for outstanding academic achievements.

In recent years, Baylor athletic teams have taken strides toward achieving excellence. During the 2002-2003 school year, Baylor won Big 12 conference championships in men's tennis and women's tennis, the school's sixth and seventh league titles in the last five seasons. Of Baylor's 17 teams, nine saw NCAA postseason action, and a 10th had an individual participate in the national championships.

Baylor's postseason appearances were highlighted by the men's tennis team's run to the NCAA quarterfinals, the baseball team advancing to a super regional and the women's basketball squad finishing as runner-up in the Women's NIT. Individually, freshman Angela Marvin won the Big 12 Championship in the steeplechase and sophomore Benedict Dorsch was the national runner-up in the NCAA men's tennis singles tournament.

Individually, Baylor had 13 different student-athletes representing five different sports earn All-America honors in 2002-2003. Four Baylor student-athletes were honored as Academic All-America for their excellence in the classroom.

Additionally, Baylor continues its commitment to building first-class athletics facilities. In 2002-2003 Baylor athletic facilities upgrades included: the installation of a new wood playing surface at the Ferrell Center for basketball and volleyball; and the installation of four ProStar videoplus display systems, at football's Floyd Casey Stadium, the Ferrell Center, baseball's Baylor Ballpark and softball's Gettnerman Stadium.

Other recently completed renovations by the athletic department include: the creation of the Grant Teaff Plaza at Floyd Casey Stadium, the expansion and renovations to the football locker room, weight room and training rooms; the completion of the Bear Ridge Golf Club and Bailey Golf Center; the construction of the Wolfe Track and Field Clubhouse; and the dedication of the Dutch Schroeder Plaza at Baylor's Turner Riverfront Athletic Complex.

FOOTBALL

Baylor football began a new era with the hiring of former Kentucky coach Guy Morris in December 2002. Morris, who had a 15-year NFL playing career, was named SEC Coach of the Year while leading the Wildcats to a 7-5 record last season. The Texas native brought with him his entire nine-man coaching staff from UK, which includes long time Baylor defensive coordinator John Goodner.

Morris inherits a team that returns 11 starters off of last season's 3-9 squad. Those departed includes wide receiver Reggie Newhouse, who set single-season and career reception records during his final year in Green and Gold.

MEN'S BASKETBALL

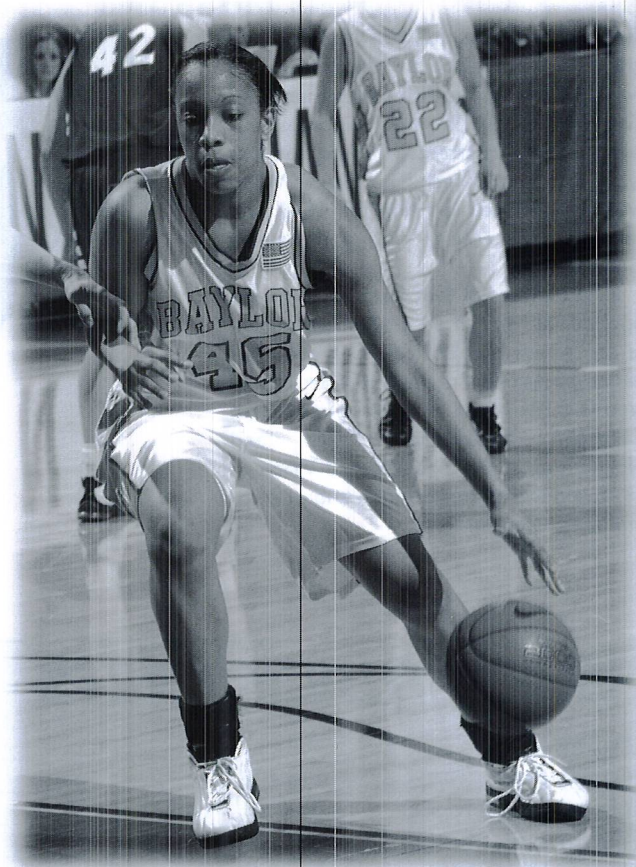

In four seasons at the helm of Baylor, Dave Bliss has instilled a winning attitude and served notice nationally that the Bears are committed to fielding a first-class basketball program.

Entering the fifth season of his rebuilding project at Baylor, Dave Bliss can boast of an experienced squad that has earned its stripes in arguably the nation's toughest conference.

Bliss took a youthful Baylor team into the 2002-2003 season and emerged with positive results and a solid foundation for the future.

The year started with Baylor racing to a 9-2 record, and finished with an impressive four wins in its final seven regular-season games. In between, the Bears lost eight of nine games — with seven of those losses coming to nationally ranked teams — and concluded the season with a 14-14 record.

Excitement surrounding Bear basketball under Bliss and staff is high in Central Texas and is demonstrated at the Ferrell Center turnstiles. Home attendance has more than doubled in four seasons under Bliss, from 2,689 the year prior to his arrival to more than 6,700 the past two seasons.

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

In just her third season as head coach of the Lady Bears, Kim Mulkey-Robertson guided the team to their third straight 20-win season with a 24-11 mark. The Lady Bears had an impressive run through the postseason WNIT before falling in the championship game to SEC rival Auburn, 64-63.

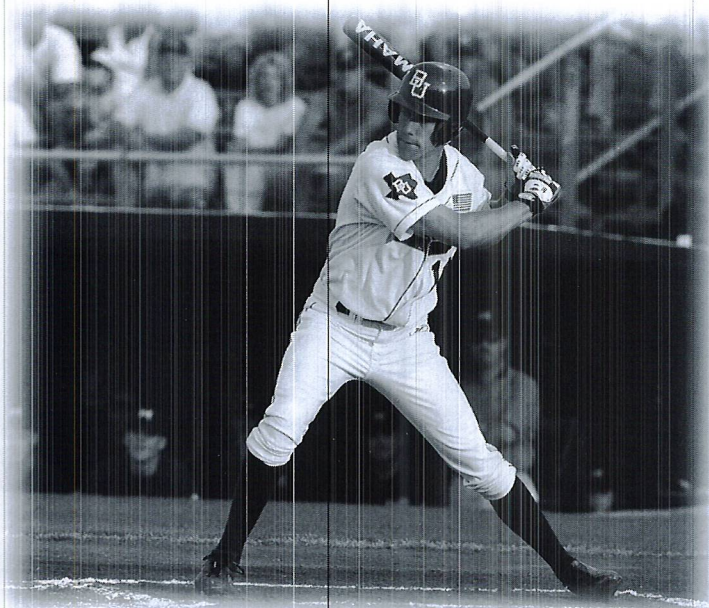

Freshman forward Sophia Young became the first freshman in the Big 12 and former Big Eight and Southwest Conferences to lead the league in rebounds. In addition, she was the only Big 12 player to average a double-double with 14.2 points and 10.0 rebounds a game. Also, she set new Baylor and Big 12 records for most rebounds in a game when she hauled in 25 against Auburn.

Sophomore post Steffanie Blackmon and Young proved to be a powerful inside tandem for the Lady Bears. Blackmon averaged 17.6 points and 8.0 rebounds a game and earned second-team All-Big 12 honors while Young was named All-Big 12 honorable mention.

The Lady Bears return four of five starters for the 2003-04 season and also gain Channele Fox who sat out the 2002-03 season but was a starter in 2001-02.

First-year football head coach Guy Morris.

First-team all-American David Murphy, a first-round draft pick of the Boston Red Sox, led Baylor to an NCAA Super Regional appearance.

Led by all-American David Murphy, the Bears set team records for batting average, hits, doubles and total bases. The entire Baylor outfield of Murphy, Chris Durbin and Michael Griffin earned first-team all-Big 12 honors.

Murphy became the highest-drafted position player in school history when he was selected with the 17th overall pick of the first round by the Boston Red Sox. Murphy was one of a school-best eight players drafted in 2003.

Individual awards abounded. Ross Bennett was named first-team Academic All-America, and Josh Ford was a semifinalist for the Johnny Bench Award, while Abe Woody and Ryan LaMotta were each named Freshman all-America.

BASEBALL

In 2003, the Baylor baseball team advanced to an NCAA Super Regional for the second time in school history and fell six outs short of advancing to the College World Series for the first time since 1978.

VOLLEYBALL

Decimated by injuries, Baylor suffered its longest season in head coach Brian Hosfeld's seven-year tenure. After starting the season 6-3, the Bears were devastated by the injury bug, losing four starters to season-ending injuries or illness. Baylor finished the year 9-22 overall and 2-18 in Big 12 play.

Perhaps the biggest blow for the Bears came Sept. 18 when two-time all-Big 12 outside hitter Stevie Nicholas sustained a torn meniscus in her knee. However, in Nicholas' absence, Tisha Schwartz moved from middle blocker to the outside and established herself as one of the top scoring threats in the conference. She finished second in the league in kills and points per game, ranking sixth in school history in both categories, en route to all-conference honors.

Several young Bears got valuable playing time, including setter Emily Huston and middle blocker Stella Odion. Plus, Baylor carried no seniors on its 2002 squad.

SOFTBALL

After a strong first month of the season that saw Baylor garner a national ranking for the third straight season, the Lady Bears fell on hard times down the stretch.

Under the direction of third-year head coach Glenn Moore, Baylor finished the season 31-29, posting a winning record for the third consecutive season.

Three-time all-Big 12 selection Joni Miller, the ace of the Lady Bears' pitching staff, sustained a career-ending elbow injury in mid-March. Baylor never recovered from her loss, going 7-12 in her absence.

There were plenty of bright spots, though, for the Lady Bears, who established a school record with 25 home runs on the season. Shortstop Kim Wilmoth earned third-team Academic all-America honors and was a second-team all-Big 12 selection. Kelly Levesque was named first-team all-Big 12 for the second straight season, and Stacey Hundley was selected second-team all-conference.

Baylor also ranked 14th nationally in attendance, the highest ranking in school history.

SOCCER

In the end, the Baylor soccer team just couldn't get over the hump in 2002. After a strong start to the season, the Bears slumped mightily during conference play. Baylor finished with an 8-9-2 record, but just 2-6-2 in Big 12 play.

After the season, head coach Nick Cowell tendered his resignation. Just after Christmas, George Van Linder was introduced as the Bears' new skipper. Van Linder comes to Baylor from SMU, where he had piloted the Lady Mustangs to three NCAA appearances and four straight conference titles.

Year-end highlights included senior defender Tamara Crawley earning her fourth-straight all-Big 12 selection and senior Whitney Barrett earning a nod on the Academic all-America third team. Eight Bears were named to the Academic All-Big 12 first team, the best total in program history, and three of those (Barrett, Emily Fukuchi and Melissa Humke) were named to the Academic All-District VI teams.

MEN'S TENNIS

Matt Knoll led his men's tennis team a school record 24-2 record in 2002-2003 and their third Big 12 Championship in four seasons. Knoll's team returns all but two players off the team that posted a school-record 19 consecutive wins. In addition, the 4th ranked Bears also won the Big 12 Tournament championship and advanced to the quarterfinals of the NCAA Tournament.

Kim Wilmoth earned third-team Academic All-America honors.

Baylor's men's tennis team swept the Big 12 regular season and tournament championships for the second straight season. The Bears reached the national quarterfinals and were ranked fourth nationally at season's end.

Sophomore newcomer Benedikt Dorsch made an immediate impact on the collegiate scene, earning a No. 1 ranking, all-American honors in singles and doubles and finishing the season ranked No. 3 nationally. In addition, he finished second in the NCAA Singles Tournament and won Baylor's first national title when he claimed the championship of the Omni Indoor National Tournament.

Baylor swept Big 12 postseason honors, Dorsch was named the Big12's Player and Newcomer of the Year, Ivor Lovrak was the league's freshman of the year and Knoll claimed his second straight coach of the year honor. Junior Reiner Neurohr teams with Dorsch to earn All-American status in doubles.

WOMEN'S TENNIS

With just one senior and one junior on the team, first year Baylor head coach Joey Scrivano, led the women's tennis team to the program's first-ever Big 12 Championship with a 9-2 record.

In addition, after a year's absence, the Baylor women's tennis team qualified for the NCAA Tournament for the seventh time in eight years. The Bears finished the 2002-03 campaign with an 11-13 record and ranked 37th nationally. Sixteen of the team's 24 matches were against teams ranked 50th or higher.

The Bears were led by senior Vida Mulec. Mulec finished the season ranked 103rd nationally and was named All-Big 12 in singles for the second straight year. Mulec, junior Alison Bradley and sophomore Daria Potapova were named academic All-Big 12 and Potapova and Mulec earned league player of the week kudos as well.

MEN'S GOLF

The Baylor men's golf team won two regular season tournaments en route to its sixth-straight NCAA regional appearance.

Sophomore Ryan Baca led the young Baylor squad. He was the individual medallist at the Jayhawk Intercollegiate, one of his six Top 10 finishes during the season. Baca carded 18 rounds of par or below, which included a season-low score of 66, and finished second in the Big 12 with a season stroke average of 71.71 en route to earning PING honorable-mention all-America honors.

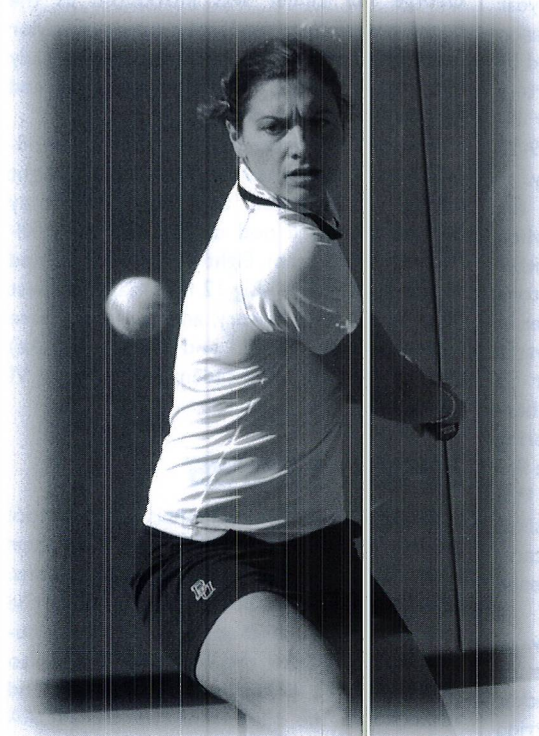

Senior Trevar Matheson also claimed post-season honors as he was named to the Cleveland Golf All-America Scholar team.

WOMEN'S GOLF

Baylor's women's golf team had a record-breaking season in 2003. Coach Sylvia Ferdon's squad won a school record four regular season tournaments, which led to a fourth-straight NCAA regional bid. All six golfers who competed for the Bears recorded at least one Top 20 individual finish.

Senior Melanie Hagewood paced the Bears throughout the season. She took the individual title at the "Mo" Morial Invitational to lead the Bears to the team title. She finished the season as Baylor's career leader in Top 5 finishes (12) and Top 10 finishes (21). Hagewood also set the school record with the best single season stroke average in school history, a 74.83.

Hagewood also excelled in the classroom, earning her second-straight second-team Verizon Academic All-America honor.

Vida Mulec earned All-Big 12 honors in singles for the second straight season.

CROSS COUNTRY

ished fifth in the heptathlon behind the strength of a stellar 200-meter race to close out the seven events. April Holliness earned her first outdoor honor with a fifth-place finish in the long jump. Senior Debbie Thornhill closed out her Baylor career by earning her first all-America honor with an eighth-place finish in the 100-meter run.

For the sixth consecutive season, Baylor was represented at the NCAA Cross Country Championships in 2002. Kyle King took 79th at the National meet.

The Bears hosted the NCAA South Central Regional and both squads came close to automatic NCAA bids. The women took fourth in the region while the men finished fifth.

Senior transfer Debbie Thornhill paced the women's squad, taking fourth at the Big 12 Championships to earn All-Big 12 and Big 12 Newcomer of the Year honors.

The foundation was set for the future of Baylor cross country as newcomers made a significant impact in every meet. One of those newcomers was freshman Angela Marvin, who earned Big 12 Runner of the Week honors after finishing second at the Texas A&M Invitational.

The women also were successful at the NCAA Outdoor Championships, crowning three individual all-Americans. Willmann fin-

Melanie Hagewood earned Academic all-America honors for the second straight year.

Heptathlete Jordan Willmann finished fifth at the 2003 NCAA Outdoor Track and Field Championships.

BAYLOR ACADEMICS

BAYLOR ACADEMICS

LEADING THE BIG 12

The Department of Student-Athlete Services has overall responsibility for the ACADEMIC WELFARE of both scholarship (260) and non-scholarship (117) student-athletes, plus support students (84), such as managers, trainers, strength, video, etc.

In 2002, Baylor led the Big 12 Conference in graduation rate for football student-athletes and was second for student-athletes and males and third for women.

Since the beginning of the Big 12 in the fall of 1996, Baylor has led the league in student-athlete graduation in four of the seven years. Baylor has graduated 424 student-athletes in that time, which includes 147 football players. At the December 2002 and May 2003 commencement ceremonies, 89 student-athletes graduated.

GRADUATION IS THE ULTIMATE MEASURE OF SUCCESS of Student-Athlete Services.

Student-Athletes Services ...

Monitors:

- Academic progress
- Class attendance
- Class scheduling
- NCAA and Big 12 rules to insure academic eligibility each semester

Has responsibility for:

- Study hall attendance
- Tutors
- Academic counseling
- A computer lab with 24 computers
- Issue of textbooks to scholarship student-athletes

Operates the Neill Morris Learning Center 71 hours per week specifically for student-athletes to study, get tutor assistance, and work on their assignments in the computer lab.

Conducts the NCAA sponsored Challenging Athletic Minds for Personal Success (CHAMPS)/Life Skills program, which assist student-athletes in adjusting to college and subsequently to life after sports.

AFCA HONORS

Baylor's football program consistently ranks among the nation's best for its football graduation rate. In 2002, for the sixth time in seven years, the American Football Coaches Association recognized Baylor for graduating more than 70 percent of its football players. Baylor was one of only 30 schools honored in 2002 and one of only three schools from the Big 12.

150 BAYLOR STUDENT-ATHLETES NAMED TO THE 2003 SPRING SEMESTER BIG 12 COMMISSIONER'S HONOR ROLL

A total of 150 Baylor student-athletes were selected to the Big 12 Conference Commissioner's Academic Honor Roll during the spring 2002 semester. Of these, 17 achieved perfect 4.0 grade point averages in the spring. Acknowledging all student-athletes, the Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll is an inclusive honor for all varsity sports sponsored by the membership of the league. The Honor Roll is recorded and released each semester and recognized those student-athletes who registered a 3.0 or better grade point average the previous semester. Below is a listing of all Baylor student-athletes on the honor roll.

FLOYD CASEY STADIUM

FLOYD CASEY STADIUM

THE UNIVERSITY

Beautiful Floyd Casey Stadium is home to the Baylor Bears football team. The stadium is continually upgraded to give Baylor a facility necessary to be competitive in the Big 12 Conference.

Stadium renovations have been constant recently at Floyd Casey. In 2002, Baylor added a 23-by-31-foot LED video screen going in the south end zone. The project included the addition of a state-of-the-art sound system and new digital scoreboards in both end zones.

Finishing touches on Grant Jeff Plaza also came last fall with a statue honoring the Bears' long-time head coach. The plaza opened in 2001 and is located at the base of the press box.

Baylor's locker room got a face lift in 2001, when a $2 million facility, the largest in the Big 12, was completed.

Baylor added a state-of-the-art luxury suite and pressbox structure on the West side in 1999.

In 1998, the a new playing surface was installed. SportGrass, the world's finest natural grass, was added. The team meeting room area also underwent a complete remodeling.

In 1995 the entire façade was sandblasted and painted. In 1990, new lights, expanded and improved restrooms, and new concession stands were completed.

The Carl and Thelma Casey Athletic Center now houses departmental offices, locker rooms, training rooms, weight facilities, a video studio, and meeting facilities.

The state-of-the-art facility was opened in 1991. Other renovation projects continue as the stadium enters its 51st year of service to Baylor.

After 39 years of being called Baylor Stadium, 1989 was the stadium's first full year under the name Floyd Casey Stadium.

The name change officially took place during halftime ceremonies of the 1988 Homecoming game with Arkansas when it was announced that longtime University supporter and trustee the late Carl B. Casey of Dallas and his wife, Thelma, contributed $5 million to the stadium renovation project in honor of his father Floyd Casey.

The generous Casey donation was part of an $8 million campaign.

After World War II the Baylor Stadium Corporation was formed and began a campaign to build a stadium for the University. The corporation launched a bond sales program and was able to raise $1.5 million for construction costs. The Bears moved to Baylor Stadium in 1950.

The first game played in the 50,000-seat stadium was September 30, 1950, a 34-7 Baylor victory over the Houston Cougars, then, an independent team. The initial Southwest Conference game was November 4, 1950, a 27-20 win over Texas A&M. The largest crowd to see at home was the 1995 A&M game when 51,218 fans jammed the stadium to watch the Aggies top the Bears 24-9.

Many improvements and additions have been made to the stadium over the years.

From 1972 to 1997, the Bears played on an AstroTurf surface at Floyd Stadium.

During the 1970s, the beautiful and comfortable Letterman's Lounge was built on the stadium's west side with funds provided by former athletes. That facility received a facelift in 1995.

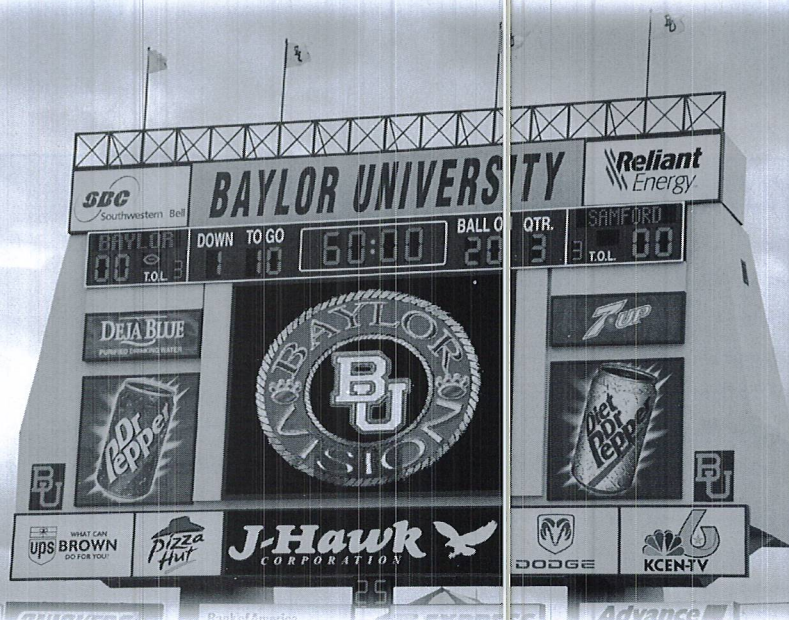

An eight-year project to change from worn wooden to modern aluminum bleacher was finished in 1981.

Prior to the building of Baylor Stadium in 1950, several playing sites were employed by the Bears. The first Bear football squad was formed in 1899, but no records are available to prove where the team played. Old newspaper clippings and yearbook articles only indicate the first three seasons were played on an extremely rough field close to the school.

From 1902 to 1925, with the exception of 1906 when football was banned on campus because it was deemed too violent, the Bears played most of their games at Carroll Field, an on-campus facility. An unknown number of games were played at the old Cotton Palace during this period.

The Bears played at the Cotton Palace from 1926-29 before returning to Carroll Field from 1930-35. The team moved off the main campus for good in 1936 when it began calling the newly built Waco Stadium home. Waco Stadium was renamed Municipal Stadium in 1942, and it was where BU played through 1949 except for a break from 1943-44 because of the war effort.

ATHLETICS FACILITIES

BETTY LOU MAYS SOCCER FIELD

Opened: Sept. 3, 1999
Capacity: 1,000

The 2002 season marked the fourth year for the Baylor soccer team at the Betty Lou Mays Soccer Field. The former Baylor Soccer Stadium was retired during the 2000 season in honor of the late Betty Lou Mays of Amarillo, Texas. Mrs. Mays was the wife of Troy Mays, a 1945 graduate of Baylor; the two were longtime supporters of Baylor athletics.

HART-PATTERSON TRACK & FIELD COMPLEX

Opened: Spring 1960
Capacity: 5,000

After $1 million worth of renovations to the facility, making it one of the nation's finest collegiate track and field complexes, Baylor's Hart-Patterson Track Complex hosted the inaugural Big 12 Conference Outdoor Championships in 1997. Named for two legendary Baylor track coaches, Jack Patterson and Clyde Hart, it has hosted six conference championship meets, including the 1999 Big 12 Championships. The facility is annually the site of the Dir Pepper Invitational and the Michael Johnson Classic, two of the premiere outdoor collegiate meets in the Southwest. In 2001, the facility added the 3,600 square-foot Winston Wolfe Clubhouse.

BAYLOR TENNIS CENTER

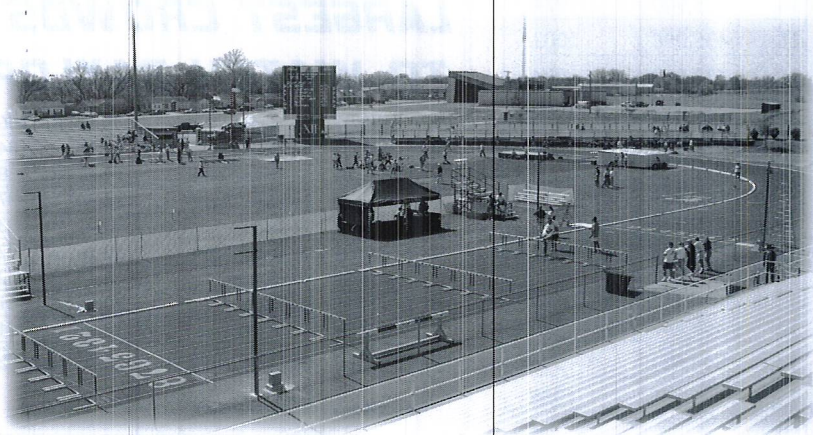

Opened: April 24, 2001
Capacity: 1,200

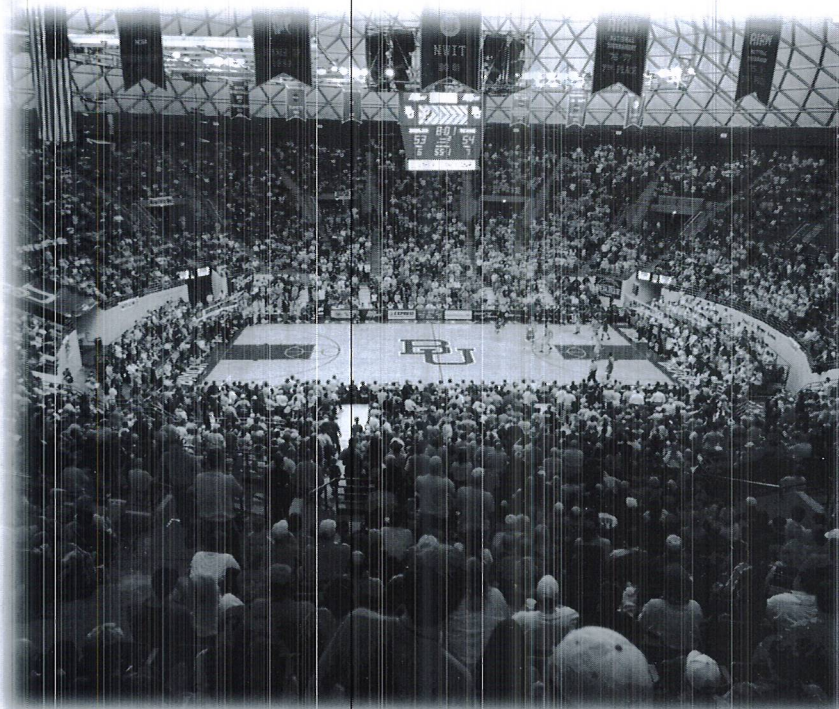

One of the finest collegiate tennis facilities in the nation, the 1,200-seat Baylor Tennis Center opened just in time for Baylor to host the 2001 Big 12 Conference Men's and Women's Tennis Championships. The main part of the facility features six outdoor courts with grandstand seating plus three stadium courts. Also completed in the summer of 2001 was an adjoining clubhouse, which houses locker rooms, meeting rooms and coaches' offices for tennis and softball.

GETTERMAN STADIUM

Opened: May 1, 1999
Capacity: 1,230

One of the finest and newest softball stadiums in the nation, Getterman Stadium recognizes the largest single donation ever to Baylor women's athletics. Named for former Waco mayor Ted Getterman and his wife Sue, the stadium features 430 chairback seats and 800 bleacher seats, most of which are covered. It also boasts a state-of-the-art press box with two radio booths, a control room, a VIP booth with theatre seating, a television booth, a two-level press room and two restrooms. Coaches' offices and spacious locker rooms are located in the adjacent tennis clubhouse. In 2003, Getterman Stadium became the nation's first collegiate softball stadium with a video scoreboard.

FERRELL CENTER

Opened: Nov. 29, 1988

Capacity: 10,284

The Ferrell Center, home to Baylor's basketball and volleyball programs for the past 13 years, continues to undergo upgrades to maintain its standard as one of the finest facilities in the region. The improvements have given the Bears the type of arena necessary to compete in the Big 12 Conference. Upgrades in 2000-2001 to the Ferrell Center included a refurbished locker room, new coaches offices, a re-finished playing surface and improved weight training facility. Built in 1988 at a cost of $12.5 million, the gold-domed Ferrell Center is located on a 14-acre tract on the corner of University Parks Drive and Texas Highway 6 (LaSalle Avenue). Capacity for sporting events is 10,284, while conventions, concerts, graduation exercises and convocations can seat 12,000.

BAYLOR BALLPARK

Opened: Feb. 26, 1999

Capacity: 5,000

After much anticipation, Baylor Ballpark was completed for the 2000 season and is one of the nation's finest collegiate baseball facilities. Baylor Ballpark is a beautiful facility constructed of red brick and exposed green steel beams, which complement the attractive architecture already found on the Baylor campus. The stadium was designed to ensure outstanding sightlines and comfort for fans, as well as meet the needs of the country's finest college baseball players. Baylor Ballpark is one of only three baseball stadiums in the Big 12 Conference to sport a video scoreboard. Prior to the 2003 season, Baylor Ballpark was ranked third nationally by Baseball America.

BEAR RIDGE GOLF CLUB

BAILEY GOLF CENTER

Opened: November 2001

Beautiful Bear Ridge Golf Club opened in November 2001. The course is part of the Villages at Twin Rivers, a 255-acre planned unit development in West Waco. Designed by PGA Tour veteran Peter Jacobsen and Jim Hardy, Bear Ridge runs along the ridges atop the Middle and South Bosque Rivers on hilly terrain with several stone-filled streams cutting between large oak trees. A central feature to the course is the Bill and Roberta Bailey Golf Center, the clubhouse for Baylor's men's and women's golf teams. The center boasts a hill-country motif, with a wood and Austin stone exterior. It houses locker rooms for each team, space for team meetings and offices for the coaches. A highlight of the facility is an indoor practice area with state-of-the-art video equipment, available for analyzing the players' swings.

BAYLOR TRADITION

The Bear Nickname and Mascot

Baylor began intercollegiate athletic competition in the 1890s, but the University was without an official mascot until 1914. That's the year President Samuel Palmer Brooks held a vote of the student body to determine how the University's teams would be known nationwide. Former student George Baines Rosborough offered a $5 gold piece to the student who submitted the winning entry.

Despite competition from two dozen rivals including the buffalo, antelope, frog and ferret, Baylor students chose the bear as the University's mascot, and Doyle Thrailkill of San Antonio won the $5 prize. Baylor's student newspaper the Lariat soon carried the headline "Bruin is Elected Patron Saint of All Baylordom."

Although Baylor adopted "Bears" as its official nickname in 1914, it wasn't until the 1920s that a real bear mascot came to the University.

The first live bear was made available by the troops of the 107th Engineers, a unit of the 32nd Infantry Division stationed at Camp MacArthur in Waco during World War I.

The bear, named Ted, made his first appearance at the 1917 Baylor-Texas A&M football game, and when the unit got its orders to move on, the bear was left in the hands of the Baylor athletic department. Since then, the use of bears at Baylor football and basketball games has become as much a fixture as the players, cheerleaders and bands.

A series of bears have served as Baylor's mascot, but perhaps the best-known was Joe College, who came to Baylor through the work of Bill Boyd, then a Baylor student. Boyd bought the bear from a zoo that went broke at the Cotton Palace in Waco. He then approached Baylor's president, Pat Neff, and offered to take care of the bear in exchange for free tuition. Neff accepted the deal and the tradition of live bears as mascots has continued since.

In 1974, the student body voted to name all the bears "Judge" followed by a surname in honor of the university's namesake, Judge R.E.B. Baylor. Baylor's current mascots are "Joy," named in honor of the wife of President Emeritus (and former Chancellor) Herbert H. Reynolds, and the newest mascot, "Lady" named after Sue Sloan, wife of President Robert B. Sloan.

The bears attend several Baylor athletic events, schools, community centers, churches, and any other educational outreach.

The bears may also be seen at the Steve Hudson Memorial Bear Plaza located in the center of the Baylor campus. "The Pit" as it is known on campus was built in 1976 and is classified as a Class 'C' Exhibitor Zoo. It is licensed to hold up to three North American Black Bears and is regulated and licensed by the United States Department of Agriculture and the Texas Parks and Wildlife.

"Sic 'em Bears" and the "Bear Claw"

In 1960, Baylor's yell leaders introduced the "Bear Claw" hand signal — made by slightly curving all five fingers inward to form a claw — and the "Sic 'Em Bears" yell. The initial reaction to the new traditions from students and faculty was mixed.

The issue was a topic of heated debate on campus, and the use of both the hand signal and yell was sporadic until Grant Teaff arrived as Baylor's head football coach in 1972. Teaff initiated a new era of Baylor football, and the "Bear Claw" and "Sic 'Em Bears" yell came to symbolize pride in Baylor athletics.

In addition to being used during the yell, the "Bear Claw" is held up during the performance of Baylor's school song, "That Good Old Baylor Line." Football players traditionally hold up their helmets during the playing of the school song.

"That Good Old Baylor Line"

The beginnings of Baylor's school song can be traced back to 1907. That's when student George Baines Rosborough penned an alternative set of lyrics to the waltz tune "In The Good Old Summertime," first made popular on Broadway in 1902. Rosborough's new lyrics were humorous, with references to sending Baylor's gridiron rivals home "done up in turpentine." For the next quarter century, the altered tune gained acceptance as Baylor's unofficial school song.

In the fall of 1931, Enid Markham, wife of music professor Robert Markham, decided that the words to the song were undignified and not representative of Baylor. So, she penned a new set of lyrics, which have since become accepted as the University's school song:

*That good old Baylor Line!
That good old Baylor Line!
We'll march forever down the years,
As long as stars shall shine.
We'll fling our Green and Gold afar
To light the ways of time,
And guide us as we onward go:

The Golden Wave Band

In 1902, 17 students pooled their talents to become the Baylor Cadet Band. The following year, membership increased to 28 as the band, directed by Charles W. Parker, went under the auspices of the ROTC department. The band remained a part of Baylor's ROTC until the end of World War I, when the group reorganized and became known as the Baylor Bear Band.

The band became known as the Golden Wave after members first wore new golden-colored uniforms at the Baylor-Southern Methodist University football game in 1928. The next year, Everett McCracken was appointed director and kicked off a new era of development for the band with a 10-day, 820-mile tour of Texas.

During the next half century, the band gained national prominence and was featured in post season contests including the Orange, Sugar, Gator, Bluebonnet and Cotton Bowls. The current Golden Wave Marching Band, directed by Jeff Grogan, marches approximately 260 members.

The Baylor Line

The Baylor Line is a freshman spirit organization. Line members wear matching jerseys to home football games and sit in a block of seats in front of the Baylor cheerleaders. Baylor Line members leave the stands prior to kickoff to run the perimeter of the field and form a line for the team to enter before kickoff.

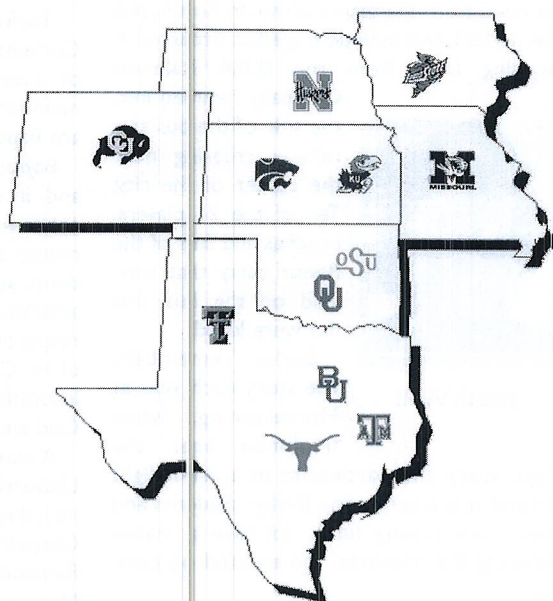

The Big 12 Conference

Throughout the season, Baylor faces some of the nation's toughest competition in the prestigious Big 12 Conference.

Dedicated to achieving the highest goals in the integration of academic and athletic endeavors, Baylor, Colorado, Iowa State, Kansas, Kansas State, Missouri, Nebraska, Oklahoma, Oklahoma State, Texas, Texas A&M and Texas Tech combined forces on February 25, 1994, and formed the Big 12 Conference—a league covering seven states and encompassing approximately 40 million people (2000 U.S. census).

Along with competitive excellence, scholarship has been and continues to be a point of emphasis with the Big 12. There are 19 academic honor team teams (first and second units), and the semiannual Commissioner's Honor Roll salutes student-athletes who have achieved 3.0 averages (four-point grading scale) in the semester previous to the announcement.

Not only has the Big 12 fostered a spirit of conviviality and excitement with newfound rivalries, but the Conference organization has given rise to several related, cooperative ventures—Big 12 cities, libraries, campus security organizations, Chambers of Commerce, tourism/visitors' bureaus, information exchanges, sports medicine associations, and campus public information offices, among others.

The solid athletics' traditions at the 12 schools, student-athletes/alumni have claimed more than 800 NCAA crowns and 165 national team championships. Commissioner Kevin Weiberg, acting in accord with the Big 12 Board of Directors, also has contracted most major championship sites and dates through the 2004-05 academic year. The league office also has negotiated critical media (television/radio/print) contracts and ongoing bowl agreements.

In all, the Big 12 Conference serves as a conduit for student-athletes to compete at their best levels on a level playing field with the highest ideas of sportsmanship. The various governance groups within the league seek to keep these principles in the forefront as the Big 12 achieves continued national prominence.

The Immortal Ten

Baylor has many traditions and a rich history as a university that has been in existence for over 150 years. One of the events that has had a lasting impact on the University and its athletic department is the story of the Immortal Ten.

On January 22, 1927, coach Ralph Wolf was taking his first Baylor basketball team to play a game at the University of Texas. This was a crucial game in the Bears' race for the 1927 Southwest Conference championship. The trip was not a pleasant one, as rain had poured over Central Texas for the majority of the day and continued as the team departed for Austin.

That hampered the vision of the chartered bus driver as debris from the road sprayed the windshield of the bus. At Round Rock, Texas, just miles from the team's arrival in Austin, one of America's first athletic tragedies occurred. A speeding train from the I&GA Railroad

BAYLOR TRADITION

Ralph Wolf

Company rammed into the side of the bus at a railway crossing near the center of the city. Ten of the 21 players, coaches and fans of the Baylor party that traveled on the bus that day were killed.

Baylor remembers the story each year at Homecoming, when freshmen hear the tragic story and participate in a candlelight remembrance ceremony. Baylor students and alumni are raising funds to have a statue honoring the Immortal Ten erected on campus.

There was a hero of the accident, James Clyde "Abe" Kelly. Kelly, who was captain-elect of the 1927 football team, saw the train just before impact and pushed his roommate, Weir Washman, out of the bus' window. Kelly is credited with saving the life of his best friend at the greatest expense to himself. Kelly was one of the 10 who died in the collision.

Others who did not survive the wreck were William Winchester, W.E. Murray, Merle Dudley, Sam Dillow, Jack Castellaw, L.R. "Ivey" Foster, Bob Hailey, R.L. Hannah and James Walker.

Wesley Bradshaw, who is still in the top 10 on the Baylor football career scoring list, was seriously hurt. Gordon Barry, Joe Potter, Edgar Gooch, C.S. Bean, Keifer Strickland (an All-SWC selection), John Kane, Dave Cheavers (former Baylor journalism department chair) and coach Wolf were slightly injured. Washman and Louis Slade were unhurt.

As a result of the tragedy, the remainder of the 1927 season was canceled, and the first highway overpass in Texas was constructed in Round Rock.

Community Outreach

Through the Southwestern Bell E.U.I.L.D. program (Bears United in Life Development) Baylor athletes are involved in a variety of community service projects. Players visit hospitalized children in the Kidsville area at Hillcrest Baptist Medical Center, hold Kids 'n' Coaches Clinics for the Boys and Girls Clubs, read to elementary school students in the Bears 'n' Books program, and help mentor at-risk teenagers through the Waco Tribune-Herald Mentorship Program.

Christian Atmosphere

Baylor is affiliated with the Baptist General Convention of Texas, a cooperative association of autonomous Texas Baptist churches. All members of the University's Board of Regents are Baptist.

Baylor is concerned with the spiritual, moral and intellectual development of those who come within its sphere of influence. It is committed to a caring relationship among its students, staff and faculty — a caring that is characterized by understanding, forgiveness and respect for individuality. The University is proud of its Christian heritage and strives to be an institution stimulated both by the power of God and the search for truth.

A number of organizations at Baylor help the University carry out its Christian mission, including the offices of the Dean of Chapel/University Ministries and Church Relations; the centers for Christian Ethics and Ministry Effectiveness; the institutes of Church-State Studies and Faith and Learning; Baylor Youth camps; and numerous student ministry groups representing a variety of faiths.

In addition, all Baylor students participate in two semesters of Chapel, a twice-weekly University gathering which features lectures and performances from a distinguished group of speakers and artists.

The Congressional Medal of Honor

Baylor University is believed to be the only school in America to have two former athletes win the Congressional Medal of Honor, the nation's highest military honor for bravery. Both men — Jack Lummus and John "Killer" Kane — won the award for their service in World War II.

Lummus played football, basketball and baseball for Baylor from 1938 through 1941. He was an All-Southwest Conference center fielder before signing with the New York Giants of the National Football League.

After one year of professional football, Lummus joined the Marines and was a platoon leader in the initial days of fighting on Iwo Jima. While leading a charge on enemy positions, he stepped on a land mine and lost both legs. Despite the heavy bleeding that resulted, he led his platoon to knock out several pockets of Japanese fire, which played a vital role in the eventual U.S. victory. Lummus died of his wounds shortly after the battle.

Kane played football and basketball at Baylor and was one of the survivors of the bus-train accident that killed 10 Baylor students in 1927. He joined the Army Air Corps in 1932 and soon became a bomber commander of legendary proportions, leading the famous air raid on Nazi-controlled oil refineries in Ploesti, Romania, in 1943.

Frank Fallon

Best known as the former "Voice of the Baylor Bears," Frank Fallon's face and voice are synonymous with Baylor Athletics.

A native of El Paso, Texas, Fallon grew up in San Antonio, Texas, attending Alamo Heights High School. Fallon began his broadcasting career at KITE San Antonio at the age of 18. Following graduation from Baylor in 1953, he joined Waco's KWTX and had a 28-year association with the station.

He served as the play-by-play announcer for Baylor football and basketball for 42 years. Fallon spent 20 years as the public address announcer and "Voice of the NCAA Final Four," as well doing television play-by-play for Southwest Conference Basketball on NBC and ESPN.

Currently a broadcast journalism professor at Baylor, Fallon has received many prestigious awards during his career. In August 2001, he was presented the Chris Schenkel Award, honoring lifetime excellence and community contributions. Fallon was the recipient of the 2001 Baylor Communications Award. He has been honored as Texas Association of Broadcasters Sportscaster of the Year five times and Associated Press Best Radio Play-By-Play Announcer seven times. Fallon is a member of the Baylor Hall of Honor and the Texas High School Hall of Fame. He has also been voted top 10 all-time Texas radio play-by-play announcers by the Texas Sports Writers Association.

Frank Fallon

Dave Campbell

A 1950 cum laude graduate of Baylor University, Dave Campbell is truly a living legend in the world of sports journalism.

Campbell is best known for founding Texas Football in 1960. He served as editor and publisher for the annual preseason publication that quickly emerged as the prototype of regional sports publications across the nation. Campbell still serves as the publication's editor-in-chief.

Save a stint with the 14th Armored Division in France and Germany during World War II, Campbell spent 51 years as a member of the editorial staff at the Waco Tribune-Herald. Hired by the newspaper in 1942, Campbell became sports editor in 1953 and held that position until his retirement in 1993.

Dave Campbell

However, retirement did not last long; Campbell was hand-picked to create and edit the Baylor Bear Insider Report, a publication of the Baylor Bear Foundation devoted solely to the coverage of Baylor athletics.

The list of accolades and honors Campbell has received stretches as long as his career. Along with winning the Bronze Star for heroic achievement during World War II, Campbell has been presented the Bert McGrane Award and the Jake Wade Award, the highest honors given by the Football Writers' Association of America and the College Sports Information Directors of America, respectively.

A past president of the FWAA, Campbell is a member of the Texas High School Football Hall of Fame and the writers' category of the Texas Sports Hall of Fame. In 1992, Campbell was given the Baylor University Distinguished Alumnus Award. Four years later, he was named "Touchdowner of the Year" by the Houston Touchdown Club.

Campbell has served as Southwest Sectional Director of the Heisman Trophy selection. He is a member of the Honors Court selection committee of the National College Football Hall of Fame, and he also serves on the executive board and as the chairman of the selection committee for the Texas Sports Hall of Fame. Campbell is a member of the board of directors for the Texas High School Football and Texas Tennis halls of fame, as well.

In August 1999, Baylor Director of Athletics Tom Stanton announced the donation of $250,000 by Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Rapoport, long-time friends of Campbell. The generous donation was earmarked for the creation of the Dave Campbell Media Center at Floyd Casey Stadium.

Campbell and his wife, Reba, also a Baylor graduate, have been married 51 years. They have two daughters, Mrs. David (Rebekah) Roche of Austin, Texas, and Mrs. Alan (Julie) Carlson of Waco.

Grant Teaff

Perhaps no individual is as responsible for advancing the cause of Baylor football as legendary head coach Grant Teaff.

Teaff was hired to coach Baylor's program in 1972 when many people said the Bears should drop out of Division I. When the final gun sounded on the 1992 John Hancock Bowl — Teaff's last game as a head coach — he had accomplished one of the most distinguished coaching careers in history.

Teaff finished his career 170-151-8 overall in 30 years as a head coach. He was 128-105-6 at Baylor, 83-74-4 in the Southwest Conference and 4-4 in bowl games.

He was named SWC Coach of the Year six times and national coach of the year once. He coached 16 first-team all-Americans and 83 all-conference performers.

Teaff finished his career as the nation's second-ranked coach for tenure at his present school, the fourth-ranked coach for SWC wins, third-ranked coach for games in the SWC, second-ranked coach for seasons in the SWC, sixth-ranked coach for wins by an SWC coach, ninth-ranked active coach for career wins and 20th-ranked active coach for winning percentage.

He coached 12 post-season all-star games, including the East-West Shrine Game, the Blue-Gray Game, the Hula Bowl, the All-American Bowl and the Japan Bowl. The other SWC schools went through 38 different head coaches during Teaff's tenure at Baylor.

He coached against such giants as Bear Bryant, Joe Paterno, Darrell Royal, Woody Hayes, Bo Schembechler, Vince Dooley, Shug Jordan, Tom Osborne, Frank Broyles, LaVell Edwards, Bill McCartney, Lou Holtz, Barry Switzer, Bill Yeoman, Jimmy Johnson, Johnny Major and Hayden Fry.

Teaff currently heads the American Football Coaches Association as the organization's executive director. The AFCA is widely recognized as the game's driving force in terms of promotions, legislative matters, ethics and professional standards. And the organization's driving force is Coach Teaff.

Teaff moved into his position as the "coaches' coach" after his highly successful 22-year stint as the head coach of the Bears. What Teaff has done with the AFCA has mirrored his accomplishments at Baylor.

Defensive Back Excellence

Highlighted by 1986 Jim Thorpe winner Thomas Everett, Baylor athletes have attracted NFL teams seeking help in the defensive backfield.

Dual Sports

Is he a football player who competes in track or a track athlete who plays football? That's an often-asked question at Baylor because the Bear football and track programs have a long history of cooperation.

Throughout the years, men competing both ways have contributed greatly to Baylor's nationally recognized track team.

The nearly 100 former Bear greats who have competed in both sports include:

- Reyna Thompson, high hurdle conference champion and all-American, NFL All-Pro football player.

- Johnny Thomas, eight-time track all-American and 12-year NFL veteran defensive back.

- Bruce Davis, conference 100-meter champion, junior world record holder (indoor 60), NFL wide receiver.

- Ricky Thompson, conference champion long jumper, seven-year NFL veteran.

- Gerald McNeil, all-America sprinter, NFL All-Pro kick returner.

- John Simpson, all-America sprinter, Liberty Bowl MVP wide receiver.

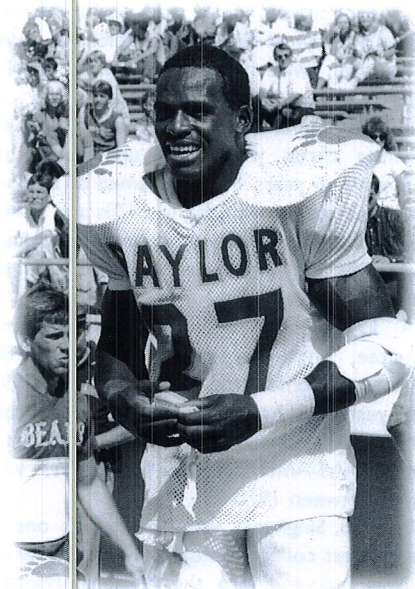

- Del Schofner, member of world record relay, NFL All-Pro footballer.

- Marvin Lewis, all-America shot putter (3rd in NCAA), nosetackle.

- Mike Robins, conference champion hurdler, starting defensive back.

- Darrell Chase, eight-time all-American, football wide receiver.

- Dave Duncan, all-America hurdler (2nd in NCAA), defensive back.

BAYLOR TRADITION

Mike Singletary

One of the all-time greats to ever don the Green and Gold was Mike Singletary. The eventual NFL Hall of Famer arrived at Baylor in 1977 with two goals: To earn a college degree and to become the greatest defensive player in school history. Four short years later, both goals were achieved.

Everyone who saw Singletary play agrees that he was college football's greatest middle linebacker playing in the late '70s and early '80s. His Baylor statistics are still astounding: He holds records for most tackles in a career with 662 (second place is 370), most tackles in a season with 232 (the next closest is 144) and most tackles in a game with 33. Coach Lou Holtz, against whose Arkansas team he had those 33 tackles, called Singletary the best middle linebacker he ever coached against. Coach Woody Hayes, after seeing Singletary make 31 tackles against Ohio State, called him unstoppable. After Singletary made 30 tackles against Alabama, Coach Bear Bryant said that Singletary and Leroy Jordan were the only two linebackers he had ever seen who were capable of making the tackle on every single running play in a game.

Perhaps Singletary's most amazing statistic came in the area of broken football helmets. During his Baylor career Singletary hit opposing ball carriers so hard he cracked and shattered 16 of his own helmets. The Baylor football equipment staff routinely had three helmets fitted and prepared for Singletary to wear.

Singletary earned all-Southwest Conference honors four times. As a freshman he was named Southwest Conference newcomer of the year. As a sophomore, junior and senior he was named Southwest Conference defensive player of the year. Twice he won the Dave O'Brien Award as the best football player in the Southwest United States. He was named all-America three years and unanimous all-America two years. He was named to Baylor's all-decade teams of both the 1970s and 1980s. He was Baylor's defensive player of the decade in the '80s and was named to Baylor's All-Half Century Football Team.

A 1990 Baylor Athletic Hall of Fame inductee, Singletary was inducted into the Southwest Conference Hall of Fame in 1994. One year later, he was named to the Football Writers Association of America All-Quarter Century All-America Team for players who played between 1970-95.

In 1996, Singletary was honored as one of the greatest college football players ever when he was inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame.

As a professional, Singletary's accomplishments were equally impressive. He was named the NFL defensive rookie of the year, and was honored as an All-Pro an amazing 10 times in his 12-year NFL career with the Chicago Bears. He was named the defensive MVP of the Bear's Super Bowl championship team and won the NFL Man of the Year Award as the top player in professional football based on the highest standards of play and community involvement.

In 1998, Singletary received the highest honor in football, when he was inducted into the NFL Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio.

Singletary graduated from Baylor in four years with a degree in business administration.

Weldon Bigony

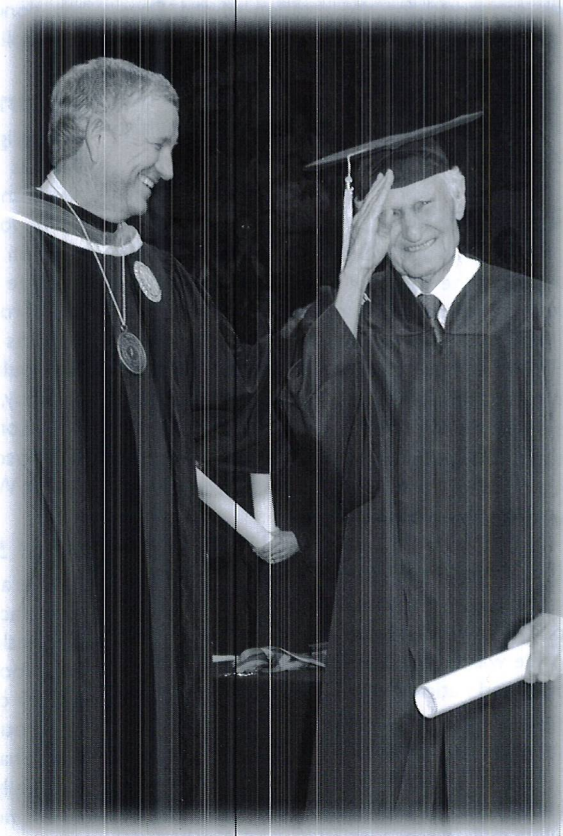

Baylor's own Weldon Bigony recently gained national attention with a story that exemplifies the spirit and loyalty taught at the University.

Bigony returned to Baylor in the fall of 2002 to complete his business degree — 61 years after he had left school to join the Navy for World War II. The Texas native originally came to Baylor in 1938 on a football scholarship.

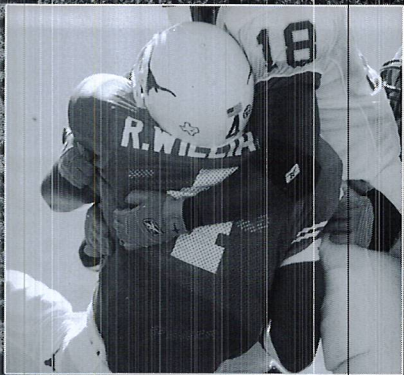

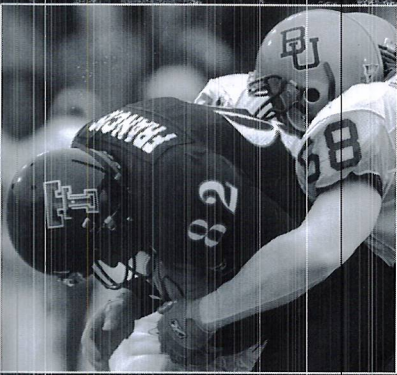

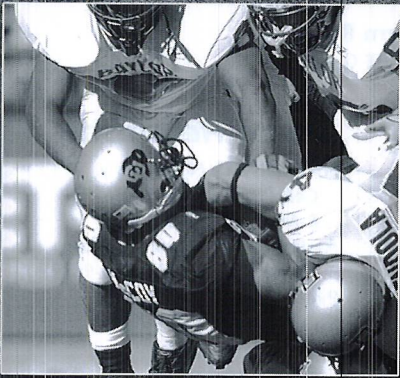

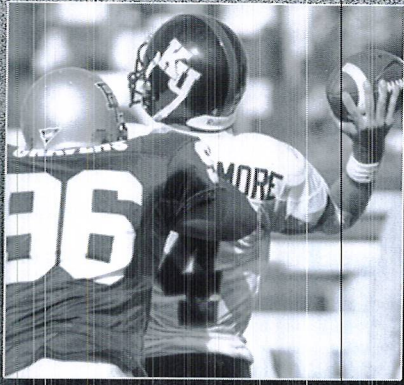

Bigony left Baylor in the middle of his senior year to enlist for WWII; after the war, he married, had kids and spent 40 years as a pilot. When he returned to Baylor, his story was picked up by the national media, and Bigony was profiled by People Magazine, USA Today, the Today Show, and Oprah.

Taking advantage of an offer to resume his athletic scholarship, Bigony finished off the final 24 hours for his degree, and at age 83, became one the oldest graduates in school history when he received his diploma on May 17, 2003.

BAYLOR CALIFORNIA

70

August 30, 2002 . 27,185
Memorial Stadium . Berkeley, Calif.

In a case of Murphy's Law personified, everything that could go wrong did go wrong for Baylor in a 70-22 season-opening loss at California.

The Golden Bears scored on the game's first play, a 71-yard halfback pass from Terrell Williams to David Gray. From there, not much went right for Baylor. California put 35 points on the board before Baylor scored its first points — an 85-yard Aaron Karas-to-Reggie Newhouse air strike on the final play of the first quarter.

Kyle Boller passed for 213 yards and three touchdowns as California racked up 460 total yards on its most prolific offensive day since Sept. 7, 1991.

Statistically, the Bears nearly matched California with 402 yards of total offense. However, five turnovers — four interceptions and one fumble — plagued the Baylor attack.

Still, Newhouse had eight catches for a career-high 164 yards and a touchdown. Karas finished 14-of-27 for 211 yards with one touchdown and one interception. He relieved starter Greg Cicero who connected on 6-of-9 passes for 64 yards, but all three of his incompletions were interceptions.

On the ground, Baylor tallied 79 yards on 40 carries. Jonathan Golden had 47 yards on 15 carries, while Rashad Armstrong galloped 32 yards on 13 totes. Golden and Armstrong scored one touchdown each.

SAMFORD BAYLOR

Sept. 7, 2002 . 28,375

Floyd Casey Stadium . Waco, Texas

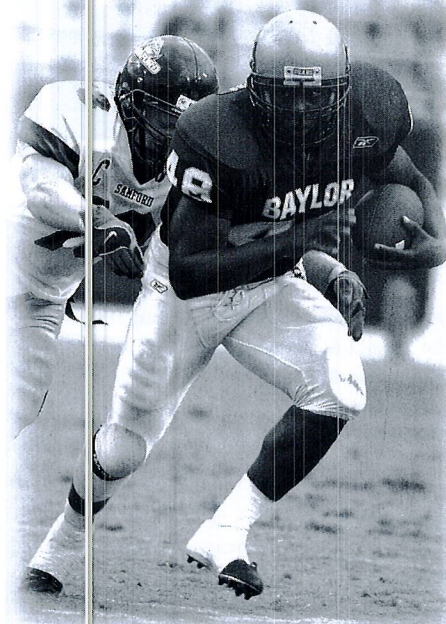

Jonathan Golden established a school record with five rushing touchdowns as Baylor treated the 28,375 fans at Floyd Casey Stadium to a 50-12 victory over Samford.

Golden, who also scored on a 28-yard pass from Aaron Karas in the third quarter, tied a Big 12 Conference record with six scores on the day. The junior from Sugar Land, Texas, finished the day with 112 yards on 19 carries. As a team, Baylor racked up 280 yards rushing on the shoulders of seven different ball carriers.

The Bears featured a balanced offensive attack with 266 yards passing. Karas got most of the work through the air, connecting on 11-of-16 passes for 207 yards and one touchdown. Josh Zachary also completed 2-of-4 attempts for 51 yards, including a 32-yard scoring strike to John Martin midway through the fourth quarter. Reggie Newhouse was the favorite target for Baylor signal callers with seven catches for 119 yards.

Baylor marched 96 yards on 10 plays in the game's first drive, which culminated in a Golden four-yard plunge. The Bears forced a Samford punt four plays later and quickly turned that into points. On first down from the Baylor 21, Chedrick Ricks took an end around 78 yards to the Samford 1. Golden punched it in on the next play and Baylor never looked back.

Justin Crooks led the Baylor defense with six tackles, including two for a loss. Derrick Cash also thwarted a Samford scoring chance in the second quarter with an interception at the goal line that he returned 60 yards.

BAYLOR

NEW MEXICO

University Stadium . Albuquerque, N.M.

New Mexico converted three Baylor fumbles into 17 points, and the Lobos turned two time-consuming drives into field goals for a 23-0 shutout of the Bears before a crowd of 30,013.

UNM became the first non-conference team to shutout Baylor since Indiana knocked off the Bears 24-0 at the 1991 Copper Bowl. It was Baylor's first regular season shutout to a non-conference opponent since then-Big 8 competitor Nebraska topped the Bears 13-0 to open the 1990 season.

After going three-and-out on the game's first drive, Baylor forced New Mexico to do the same. However, Bobby Hart fumbled the Lobos' punt and UNM's Dom Villarruel recovered the loose ball at the Baylor 18. The Lobos quickly turned the miscue into points as Quincy Wright connected with Bryan Penley on a half-back pass on the next play.

New Mexico squandered another scoring opportunity late in the first quarter. On third-and-goal from the 1, Lobo quarterback Casey Kelly fumbled a sneak attempt and Hart recovered in the Bears' endzone.

Early in the third, Baylor's Jonathan Golden coughed up an inside handoff at the Bears' six and it was recovered by the Lobos. Three plays later, Dontrell Moore found paydirt from two yards out.

New Mexico capped a 10-play, 38-yard drive later in the third with a 32-yard field goal off the foot of Matt Goldstein. The Lobos, who missed two field goals earlier in the game, tacked on another 32-yarder and a 26-yarder in the fourth quarter to cap the scoring.

Baylor managed just 107 yards total offense on the evening, 45 on the ground and 62 through the air. Rashad Armstrong finished with 27 yards on six carries, while Greg Cicero was 7-of-16 passing for 47 yards.

TULSA BAYLOR

Floyd Casey Stadium . Waco, Texas

Baylor's offense racked up 450 yards of total offense, and Kevin Stevenson recovered a Tyler Gooch fumble in the waning seconds to seal the Bears' 37-25 victory over visiting Tulsa.

The Bears scored early and often, putting 21 points on the board within a six-minute span in the first quarter. Vince Copeland (12 yards), Rashad Armstrong (7) and Aaron Karas (2) all had scoring runs for Baylor in the first quarter. Gooch connected with Jermaine Landrum on a 78-yard scoring strike in the first, but the extra point failed.

Baylor added a 37-yard Daniel Andino field goal and a 51-yard Karas-to-Marques Roberts touchdown pass in the second for a 30-6 half-time lead.

However, the Golden Hurricane made a game of it with 10 quick points in the third. On the first play from scrimmage in the second half, Cory Hathaway picked off a Karas pass at the Baylor five and trotted into the endzone. Three minutes and some change later, Brad Devault put a 21-yard field goal through to cut Baylor's lead to 30-16.

Randy Davis returned the ensuing kickoff 51 yards, and a TU pass interference call gave the Bears first and 10 at the Tulsa 11. From there, Jonathan Golden punched in his seventh rushing touchdown of the season. Tulsa pulled to within 12 points thanks to a 4-yard Gooch-to-Romby Bryant scoring pass and a 45-yard Devault field goal, but the Golden Hurricane could get no closer.

Karas finished 18-of-30 for 235 yards and one touchdown to go along with 61 yards on 15 rushes. Golden, one of four Bears with a rushing score, tallied 95 yards on 16 carries. Reggie Newhouse caught nine balls for 120 yards.

GAME RECAPS

KANSAS BAYLOR

35

Oct. 5, 2002 . 22,103

Floyd Casey Stadium . Waco, Texas

Baylor scored 11 points in the final 78 seconds, capped by a 33-yard game-winning Daniel Andino field goal with one second remaining, to defeat Kansas 35-32 before 22,103 fans at Floyd Casey Stadium.

The victory snapped a 29-game Big 12 Conference losing streak for the Bears, a skid that dated back to Oct. 10, 1998 when the Bears defeated Kansas 31-24. Baylor now leads the all-time series with Kansas 4-2.

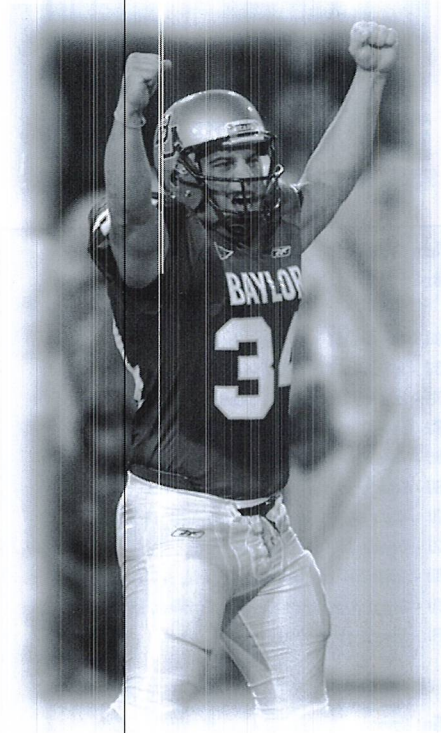

Baylor built a first-quarter 14-0 lead before the Jayhawks scored three straight touchdowns to take the lead. However, KU missed the extra point on the first score and failed on two-point attempts on the next two scores, leaving their lead at 18-14.

The Bears recaptured the lead at 24-18 in the third. Kansas answered, though, with a 34-yard Bill Whittemore run on the final play of the third quarter to take a 25-24 lead. The Jayhawks tacked on seven more with just 2:51 remaining on the clock when Whittemore again found paydirt from 2 yards out.

That set the stage for Baylor's heroics as Aaron Karas marched the Bears 80 yards on six plays in 1:33. The drive culminated in a 41-yard Karas-to-Robert Quiroga air strike. Chedrick Ricks reached the ball over the goal line on the two-point conversion, tying the game at 32-32.

Baylor's defense held Kansas on three plays, giving the Bears the ball back at their own 35 with 35 seconds remaining. Karas pushed the BU offense to the KU 16 on four completions, setting up the Andino game-winner.

Karas finished 22-of-32 for 359 yards and two touchdowns. He connected with 12 different receivers on the day.

TEXAS A&M BAYLOR

Oct. 12, 2002 . 38,673

Floyd Casey Stadium . Waco, Texas

Baylor managed just 229 yards of total offense against one of the nation's best defenses, and Texas A&M scored 31 second-half points as the Aggies rolled to a 41-0 victory over the Bears in front of 38,673 at Floyd Casey Stadium.

The Bears kept things close early, but five interceptions by the Texas A&M defense provided ample opportunity for the Aggies to pull away. Aaron Karas was intercepted four times before giving way to Greg Cicero, who was intercepted once.

Baylor had a golden opportunity on its first possession of the game. Following a 22-yard Bobby Hart punt return, the Bears drove to the Texas A&M 1. However, on fourth-and-goal, Jonathan Golden was stuffed at the line by the A&M defense.

On its next possession, Texas A&M got on the board when Dustin Long connected with Bethel Johnson from 12 yards out, capping a seven-play, 71-yard drive. Todd Pegram made true on a 26-yard field goal try to end the first half, giving the Aggies a 10-point lead at the half.

Texas A&M began to capitalize on the Bears' mistakes in the third quarter. A 27-yard Jeremy Parker punt on the quarter's first drive gave the Aggies great field position; seven plays later, Long found Thomas Carriger in the end-zone for a 4-yard scoring strike. The Aggies pulled away from there as the Bears threw two interceptions and missed a field goal on three of their next four possessions.

Karas finished 12-of-27 for 89 yards. Rashad Armstrong led the Bears on the ground with 54 yards on 10 carries. Byron Jones had two interceptions to spark the Aggie defense, which held Reggie Newhouse to just 16 yards on two catches.

Oct. 19, 2002 . 46,281
Folsom Field . Boulder, Colo.

A dominating defense and one of the nation's top rushing units proved fatal for Baylor as the Bears dropped a 34-0 decision at No. 25 Colorado in front of 46,281 fans.

Chris Brown led the Buffaloes with 167 yards rushing and scored three first-half touchdowns. Colorado scored five times in the first half and never let the Bears into the game.

Meanwhile, Baylor managed just 251 yards total offense with just 72 yards on 34 rushing attempts. The Bears actually out-passed the Buffaloes 179-125, but eight Colorado ball carriers racked up 270 yards rushing on 53 carries.

Brown put Colorado on the board with a 55-yard touchdown run two minutes, three seconds into the contest. Just under three minutes later, Brandon Drumm found the end zone from one yard out on his only carry of the game.

The Buffs added two more touchdowns early in the second quarter. Brown scored the first from four yards out five seconds into the period, and Robert Hodge raced in from 34 yards out at the 12:16 mark. Brown added his third score of the day with 1:19 remaining in the half on a one-yard dive.

Aaron Karas got the start under center for the Bears, but Josh Zachry provided the majority of the production for the Baylor passing game. Zachry finished 12-of-17 for 138 yards with one interception. Karas connected on seven of eight tries but for only 30 yards. Greg Cicero was 1-of-10 for 11 yards.

Rashad Armstrong led the Bears rushing attack with 63 yards on 15 totes. Robert Quiroga caught eight balls for 81 yards, while Reggie Newhouse had six snags for 85 yards.

2002 REVIEW

KANSAS STATE 44

BAYLOR 10

Oct. 26, 2002 . 20,247

Floyd Casey Stadium . Waco, Texas

Two defensive touchdowns and an aggressive defensive front propelled Kansas State to a 44-10 victory over Baylor in front of 20,247 fans on a cold, rainy Homecoming afternoon at Floyd Casey Stadium.

With the score tied 3-3 late in the second quarter, K-State's Jesse Tetuan picked off a Josh Zachary pass over the middle and raced 34 yards for a touchdown. The Wildcats extended their lead to 13-3 on the last play of the first half as Joe Rheem made good on his second of three field goals.

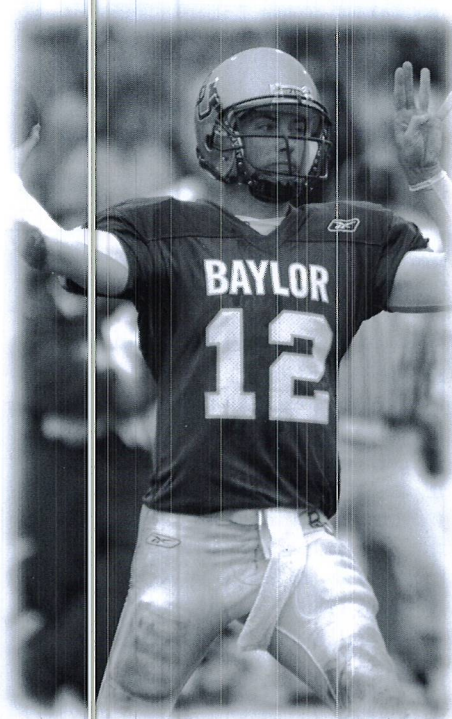

Darren Sproles scored from 12 yards out on Kansas State's first possession of the second half, pushing the Cats lead to 20-3.

That set the stage for K-State's second defensive touchdown, this one coming on special teams. Baylor drove to the Wildcats' 1, but a false start and a stingy KSU defensive front kept the Bears out of the endzone. Daniel Andino's 22-yard field goal attempt was blocked, and an opportunistic Randy Jordan returned the loose ball 93 yards for a touchdown.

After another Rheem field goal, Baylor cut the lead to 20 when Greg Cicero found Shane Williams from one yard out.

However, the Bears could get no closer. The Wildcats added two fourth-quarter scores to seal the victory. Ayo Saba scored on a six-yard rush midway through the quarter, and Marc Dunn plunged in from one yard out in the game's final seconds.

Zachary and Cicero combined for 338 yards passing on the day; however, the two signal callers were sacked five times and four times, respectively. Baylor was held to minus-37 yards rushing on the day. Rashad Armstrong managed eight yards on 13 attempts. Reggie Newhouse caught nine passes for 173 yards.

Nov. 2, 2002 . 43,243

Jones SBC Stadium . Lubbock, Texas

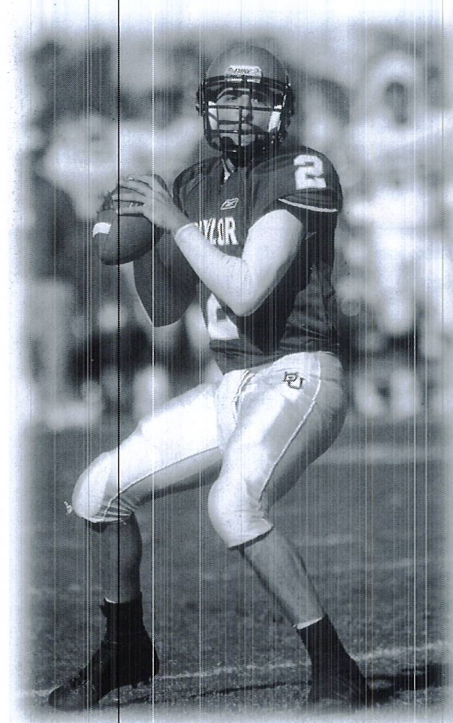

Texas Tech scored 55 unanswered points and turned a game that was close early into a blowout as the Red Raiders defeated Baylor 62-11 before a crowd of 43,243.

Baylor trailed 7-3 after a Daniel Andino 27-yard field goal one minute into the second quarter. However, Tech scored six touchdowns over the next 29 minutes of play to build a commanding 49-3 heading into the final period.

The Raiders finished with 654 yards of total offense, 512 through the air. Quarterbacks Kliff Kingsbury and B.J. Symons tossed three touchdowns each.

Meanwhile, Baylor signal caller Aaron Karas shone in the losing cause. He connected on 23-of-35 passing attempts for 254 yards and one touchdown. His favorite target, Reggie Newhouse, caught seven passes for 106 yards and one score. Robert Quiroga had six catches for 67 yards. Rashad Armstrong led the Baylor rushing attack with 77 yards on 11 totes.

Baylor opened the game with a little trickery, trying to catch the Raiders off guard with an on-side kick. Tech alertly pounced on the ball at the Baylor 48. After moving the ball 19 yards on nine plays, the Raiders missed a 46-yard field goal attempt wide left. After Andino's field goal early in the second, the Raiders found the end-zone on their next seven and nine of their next 10 possessions. Only a Bobby Hart interception late in the third quarter snapped that string.

Nov. 9, 2002 . 83,016

Royal-Texas Memorial Stadium . Austin, Texas

Chris Simms connected with Roy Williams for a 73-yard touchdown pass on the second play of the game to spark Texas to a 41-0 victory over Baylor in front of 83,016 at Royal-Texas Memorial Stadium.

Baylor struggled to move the ball most of the day, finishing with just 127 yards of total offense. The Bears tallied 41 yards on the ground and 86 yards through the air.

Meanwhile, Texas produced 450 yards of total offense — 180 on the ground and 270 passing. Longhorn quarterbacks connected on all but five passes.

Texas pushed its lead to 14-0 with 2:59 remaining in the opening period when Simms connected with B.J. Johnson from five yards out. The Longhorns added a field goal early in the second, followed by a 15-yard Simms-to-Tony Jeffery scoring pass and a 10-yard Cedric Benson touchdown run.

Baylor had 34 yards of total offense in the first half on 29 plays, while Texas had 234.

Dusty Mangum's second field goal of the day pushed UT's lead to 34-0 five minutes into the third quarter. Selvin Young capped the scoring with a 13-yard scoring jaunt midway through the fourth.

Aaron Karas finished 11-of-22 for 86 yards with two interceptions for the Bears. Reggie Newhouse was his favorite receiver; Newhouse caught six balls for 63 yards. However, Karas was able to utilize only three receivers, connecting with Robert Quiroga three times and Chedrick Ricks twice.

Rashad Armstrong led the Bears' rushing attack with 57 yards on 14 carries. Ricks had three totes for 11 yards.

Defensively, Derrick Cash had a big day with 13 tackles and one forced fumble. Ethan Kelly made five stops, including one sack, and Bobby Hart picked his team-best third pass of the season.

OKLAHOMA BAYLOR

Nov. 16, 2002 . 28,375

Floyd Casey Stadium . Waco, Texas

Despite 378 yards of total offense against one of the nation's top defensive units, Baylor struggled to find the endzone in a 49-9 loss to No. 4 Oklahoma in front of 28,375 fans at Floyd Casey Stadium.

Rashad Armstrong was the story for Baylor with a career-high 103 yards rushing on 19 carries. The Bears rushed for 137 yards as a team, and quarterbacks Aaron Karas and Greg Cicero combined for 241 yards passing.

However, the Bears could not stop the ground attack of Quentin Griffin, who raced for 152 yards and three touchdowns on 17 carries. Griffin also caught two passes for 53 yards, including a 35-yard touchdown reception early in the second quarter.

Trailing 21-3 late in the second quarter, Baylor started an impressive drive from its own 31 with the first of three Karas-to-Robert Quiroga pass connections. The third hook up, a 28-yard sideline route, gave the Bears a first down at the Oklahoma 12 with 34 seconds remaining before halftime. Armstrong then raced to the OU 6; however, on the next play Derrick Strait intercepted a Karas pass at the goal line, ending the Baylor threat.

Strait's interception, his first of two picks on the day, seemingly took the wind out of Baylor's sails. Oklahoma put 21 points on the board in the third quarter and tacked on seven more in the fourth when Strait returned an intercepted Cicero pass 75 yards.

Cicero finally got the Bears into the endzone with 2:36 to play, dashing up the middle on a draw from 14 yards out.

Quiroga and Reggie Newhouse caught six balls each for 82 yards and 74 yards, respectively.

BAYLOR 28

OKLAHOMA STATE 63

Nov. 23, 2002 . 37,250
Lewis Field . Stillwater, Okla.

Josh Fields threw for four touchdowns and ran for another as Oklahoma State qualified for a bowl game by beating Baylor 63-28.

Tatum Bell ran for 106 yards and three touchdowns on 14 carries as the Cowboys beat the Bears in Baylor coach Kevin Steele's final game.

Rashaun Woods caught 7 passes for 134 yards and two touchdowns. He set conference and school records for receiving yards in a season and a new school mark for catches in a year.

The Cowboys assured themselves their first non-losing season since 1997 and gave themselves a chance for their first postseason appearance that season.

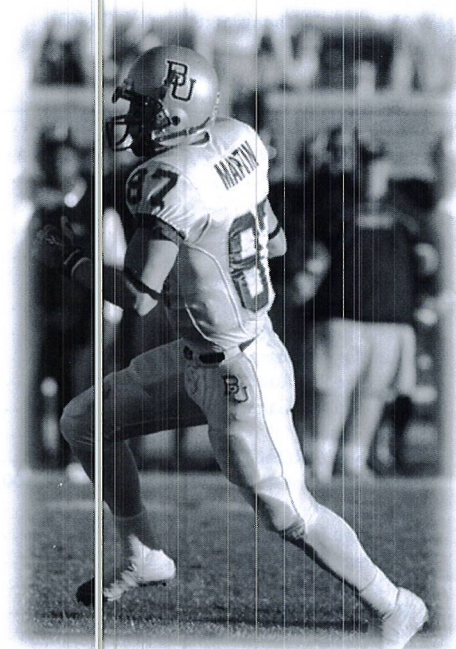

Reggie Newhouse led Baylor with 123 yards and a TD on seven catches. Rashad Armstrong rushed for 112 yards and two touchdowns on 33 carries.

Oklahoma State put Baylor away in the second quarter, scoring 35 points on five drives that each began in Bears territory and totaled 14 plays. The Cowboys had five scoring drives of less than one minute.

Baylor scored first on a 12-play, 80-yard drive, capped by Armstrong's 11-yard touchdown run. But the Bears committed eight penalties and allowed four sacks in the first half.

Fields finished 10-for-14 passing for 243 yards before giving way to Aso Pogi in the third quarter. He threw TD passes of 34, 29, 20 and 12 yards. His 1-yard rushing TD tied the game at 7-7.

Newhouse, already Baylor's career receptions leader and playing his final game, set new Bear records for catches and receiving yards in a season with 75 for 1,140 yards.

BIG 12 CONFERENCE

CONFERENCE HISTORY

THE BIG 12 CONFERENCE:

10 OUTSTANDING YEARS . 1994-2004

A decade of excellence and future promise converge for the Big 12 Conference on Feb. 25, 2004. The Big 12 celebrates the 10-year mark of its founding--Feb. 25, 1994--and remains dedicated to celebrating the student-athletes, competitive excellence, scholarship, sportsmanship and competitive equity.

Dedicated to achieving the highest goals in the integration of academic and athletic endeavors, Baylor, Colorado, Iowa State, Kansas, Kansas State, Missouri, Nebraska, Oklahoma, Oklahoma State, Texas, Texas A&M and Texas Tech combined forces in '94, and formed the Big 12 Conference--a league covering seven states and encompassing over 40 million people (2000 U.S. census).

The conference pays particular attention to sportsmanship and a level field of play for the 4,500-plus student-athletes in 21 sports. Those competing and coaching in the Big 12 seek maximum training on the fields and courts as well as in the classroom and community.

Along with this competitive excellence, scholarship has been and continues to be a point of emphasis with the Big 12. There are 12 academic honor teams (first and second units), and the semi-annual Commissioner's Honor Roll salutes student-athletes who have achieved 3.0 averages (four-point grading scale) in the semester previous to the announcement. Annually, as many as 50-60 student-athletes from the league make these teams with perfect 4.0 grade point averages.

Each member institution also nominates a male or female student-athlete for one of the prestigious Big 12 Conference postgraduate scholarships at the end of the academic year. More than 70 aspiring scholars have received almost $400,000 in financial aid during the first six years of the program.

Sportsmanship has been an item high on the Big 12 agenda since Commissioner Kevin Weiberg became the league's third chief executive in Dec., 1998. The Conference developed and has maintained a Sportsmanship Statement which applies to all student-athletes, coaches and administrators throughout the league. The Big 12 also honors one male and female student-athlete each year as Big 12 Sportsperson of the Year.

The level playing field for participants in all Big 12 sports also figures into competitive equity. This does not deny the potential for national team champions in any sport but seeks to provide an avenue in which up-and-coming student-athletes can display their top individual talents within the framework of Conference and NCAA sports' guidelines.

Big 12 schools and the Conference office seek to provide national-class facilities for all levels of league championships, postseason tournaments and NCAA venues. They utilize Big 12 campus sites as well as buildings such as Kansas City's Kemper Arena, Arrowhead Stadium and Municipal Auditorium, Houston's Reliant Stadium, San Antonio's Alamodome, St. Louis' Edward Jones Dome, Irving's Texas Stadium, Oklahoma City's SBC Bricktown Ballpark, The Ballpark in Arlington, Dallas' American Airlines Center and Reunion Arena, among others.

Not only has the Big 12 fostered a spirit of conviviality and excitement with newfound rivalries, but the Conference organization has given rise to several related, cooperative ventures--Big 12 cities, libraries, campus security organizations, Chambers of Commerce, tourism/visitors' bureaus, information exchanges, sports medicine associations, and campus public information offices, among others.

The solid athletics' traditions at the 12 schools are evident as student-athletes/alumni have claimed more than 900 NCAA crowns and over 170 national team championships prior to the 2003-04 academic year. Commissioner Weiberg, acting in accord with the Big 12 Board of Directors, first contracted most major championship sites and dates through the 2004-05 academic year in 1999. The Big 12 is in the process of determining future championships' dates and sites--potentially through the 2007-08 academic years--during the 2003-04 term.

The league office also has negotiated critical media (television/radio/print) contracts and ongoing bowl agreements. New in 2002-03 were agreements with TBS Superstation to carry Big 12 football games in prime time slots, with College Sports Television for more regional and national telecasts, and expanded video streaming opportunities for several Olympic sports within the league with Fox Sports Net and FoxSports.com.

Almost five million fans who attended championships or tournaments in Big 12 postseason activity since 1996 can attest that they are viewing some of the nation's finest student-athletes, coaches and officials.

2003 BIG 12 FOOTBALL CHAMPIONSHIP: ARROWHEAD STADIUM

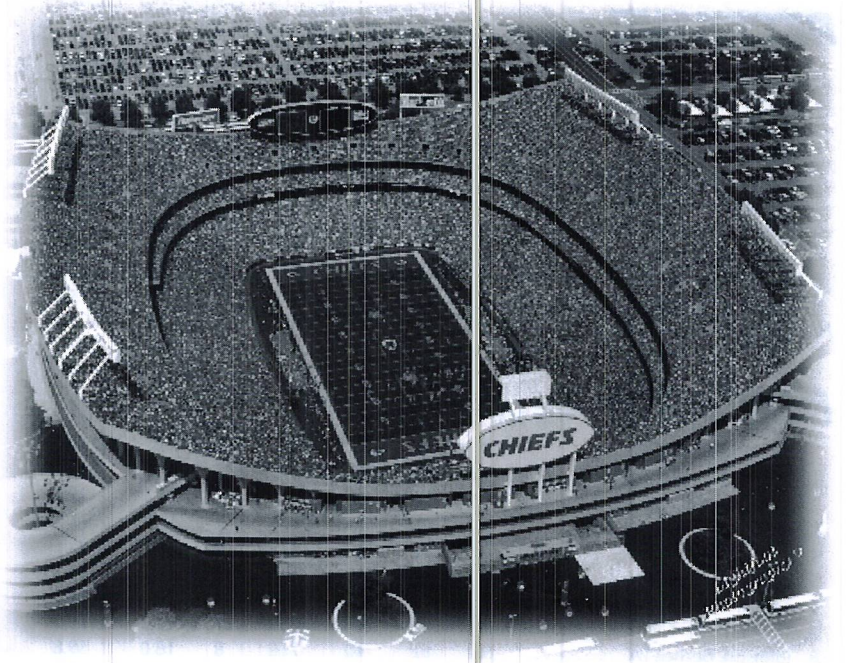

The Dr Pepper Big 12 Conference Football Championship Game returns to Kansas City, Mo. in 2003. The eighth annual football title game will be Saturday, Dec. 6 at Arrowhead Stadium, the home of the NFL's Kansas City Chiefs and MLS' Kansas City Wizards. Kansas City hosted the event in 2000 with Kansas State and Oklahoma playing before a Big 12 Championship record crowd of 79,655 (including suites). Oklahoma, then the nation's top-ranked team, defeated Kansas State 27-24 for the league crown en route to claiming the national championship.

The game will feature the winner of the Big 12's North and South divisions. Kickoff is to be determined, but the contest will again be televised nationally by ABC Sports. The winner of the contest receives the right to represent the conference in the Bowl Championship Series.

Arrowhead has hosted numerous collegiate football games including this year's Black Coaches Association Football Classic featuring the Big 12's own Kansas State and California at 6:45 p.m. CDT on Aug. 23. ESPN will broadcast the game nationally.

WESLEY BRADSHAW

1921

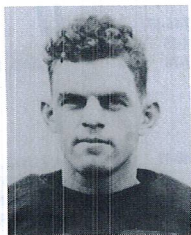

Halfback ... 5-11 ... 170 ... A 1921 and 1922 letterman ... 1921 and 1922 consensus all-Southwest Conference ... Led Baylor to an 8-3 record and SWC title in 1922 ... Scored 182 points in his career ... Inducted into the Texas Sports Hall of Fame in 1966.

BARTON

1930

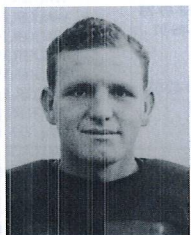

Guard ... 5-11 ... 220 ... Temple ... A 1928, 1929 and 1930 letterman ... First consensus All-American in SWC history ... 1930 consensus all-Southwest Conference ... Inducted into National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 1974 and Texas Sports Hall of Fame in 1967 ... Also a member of the College Football Foundation Hall of Fame, the Southwest Conference 50-year all-star team and the all-time all-America team selected by Grantland Rice ... Considered by every football expert to be the greatest lineman of his era ... Played in the days of one-platoon football and was called unstoppable both ways ... Selected by the legendary D.X. Bible to the West squad for the East-West Shrine Game ... Bible later called him "the best guard I ever saw." ... Was voted the game's most valuable player ... Knute Rockne said he was "far and away the best guard I ever saw play." ... Paul Crume, longtime Dallas Morning News columnist, wrote upon Koch's death in 1964, "after reviewing my memories of Botchey Koch, I doubt that there ever was a better college lineman."

FRANK JAMES

1933

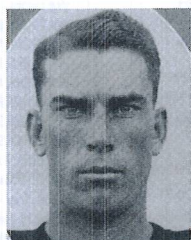

End ... A 1931, 1932 and 1933 letterman ... All-Southwest Conference in 1932 ... Played for Baylor Athletic Hall of Fame coach Morley Jennings.

BARTON KOCH

Barton "Botchey" Koch was considered by every football expert to be the greatest lineman of his era. He played in the days of one-platoon football and was called unstoppable both ways. In his senior season of 1930 he made a huge breakthrough for the Southwest Conference by becoming the league's first consensus All-American. He was elected to the Hall of Fame in 1974.

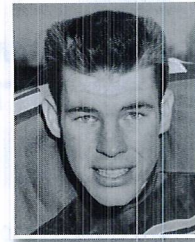

JAMES RAY SMITH

Jim Ray Smith won All-American honors from his tackle spot for the Bears in 1953 and '54. His senior year the Bears went 7-4 and played Auburn in the Gator Bowl. After a long career in the NFL Smith has remained active in college football, having served as president of the Cotton Bowl Athletic Association. He was inducted into the Hall of Fame in 1987.

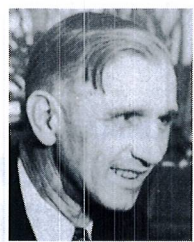

LAWRENCE ELKINS

In an era when running was considered the only way to pattern an offense, flanker Lawrence Elkins turned college football upside-down as the outstanding receiver in Coach John Bridgers pro-style attack. Elkins was a two-time consensus All-American (1963-64). In '63 he set an NCAA record with 70 catches for 873 yards as the Bears defeated LSU in the Bluebonnet Bowl. He was inducted into the Hall of Fame 1993.

BILL GLASS

Bill Glass was a consensus All-American guard on one of Baylor's greatest teams. His senior season, 1956, he helped the Bears to a 9-2 record and Sugar Bowl victory over the previously undefeated Tennessee Volunteers. He was voted Houston Post SWC Most Valuable Player that year. After a long NFL career, Glass became one of the nation's most noted evangelists. He was inducted into the Hall of Fame in 1985.

MORLEY JENNINGS

Morley Jennings spent 15 seasons as the Bears' head football coach, compiling a record of 82-60-6 from 1926-40. Nine of Jennings' BU teams had winning seasons, including the 1935 squad which went 8-3. From 1937-39 his Bears went 21-5-1. Among the great players he coached were Botchey Koch, Sam Boyd, Billy Patterson and Jack Russell. He was inducted into the Hall of Fame in 1973.

MIKE SINGLETARY

Singletary was the greatest middle linebacker in his era. A three-time consensus All-SWC pick and two-time unanimous All-American, Singletary also made the 1970-95 All-Quarter Century All-American Team. During his career with the Chicago Bears, he was named All-Pro 10 times and won the NFL Man of the Year Award, an honor based on the highest standards of play and community involvement.

GRANT TEAFF

2001 Hall of Fame inductee Grant Teaff became Baylor's winningest coach from 1972-92, compiling a 128-105-6 record and leading the Bears to a pair of Southwest Conference championships and eight bowl games. While posting 12 winning seasons, Teaff also guided six of his Baylor squads to season-ending national rankings.

HAYDEN FRY

Hayden Fry was a four-year letterwinner for Baylor, quarterbacking the Bears to Top 20 Associated Press rankings in 1949 and 1950. He made his most notable mark on the college football world as a coach, spending 20 seasons as the head coach at Iowa. Fry was inducted into the Hall of Fame in 2003.

Baylor's Hall of Fame, organized in 1960, recognizes and honors persons whose participation and contributions enriched and strengthened the university athletic program. Athletes are required to wait 10 years after completing eligibility before being eligible for the honor.

Baylor 20
Wake Forest 7

January 1, 1949
Birmingham, Ala.

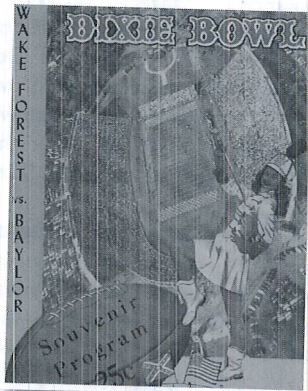

Although edged in the final statistics, coach Bob Woodruff's Baylor Bears won the first bowl appearance in the school's history by defeating Wake Forest 20-7 in the second annual Dixie Bowl.

Wake Forest, although gaining 277 total yards compared to Baylor's 212, fell behind 20-0 at half-time to the upstart Bears and could never seriously threaten the 6-3-2 victors. Bear defender George Sims recorded the game's first turnover when he intercepted a Deacon pass in their first possession and returned it 52 yards to the Wake Forest eight-yard line.

Sammie Pierce, who averaged 13.1 yards a carry against the 6-3 Deacons, scored the first touchdown from a yard out and Jerry Mangrum scored from the same distance in the second quarter to give Baylor a 13-0 lead. The Bears increased the margin to 20-0 off a 68-yard drive, highlighted by a Pierce 40-yard romp. Quarterback Ray Painter, who had attempted only seven passes during the regular season, passed the final 12 yards to Harold Riley for the score. Hank Dickerson added his second PAT for the day.

All-American quarterback Adrian Burk completed five passes for 69 yards, with two of the completions going to Riley. James Parker also hauled in a Burk pass for 23 Baylor yards.

James Parker led the Baylor rushing attack with 43 yards on eight carries.

1952 ORANGE

Baylor 14
Georgia Tech 17

Miami, Fla.

Pepper Rodgers kicked a 16-yard field goal with three minutes remaining to give Georgia Tech a 17-14 come-from-behind victory over Baylor in Miami's Orange Bowl contest.

Tech scored 10 fourth quarter points on Rodgers' effort and a Buck Martin touchdown reception, while holding Baylor scoreless to nip the 8-1-1 Bears. Bear fullback Dick Parma scored the game's first touchdown from a yard out and the legendary C. O. Brocato added the PAT as Baylor led 7-0 in the first quarter.

After Tech knotted the score at seven, Baylor drove 63 yards, capped by Jerry Coody's four-yard scoring blast, to give the Bears a 14-7 halftime margin. Coody was the team's leading ground gainer during the regular season, picking up 570 yards on 125 carries.

But coach Bobby Dodd's Tech squad used Rodgers and Martin's last quarter heroics to take their comeback win.

The Orange Bowl loss was Baylor's second of the 1951 season, the first coming at the hands of TCU 10-7. Larry Isbell, who threw for 1,430 yards during the regular season, attempted 18 passes against Tech, completing eight for 93 yards. Parma was the contest's top ground gainer with 107 yards on 19 attempts.

All-American end Stanley Williams, who caught 37 regular season passes for six touchdowns, and Harold Riley each caught three Isbell passes. And defensive back Robert Reid, who established a school interception record with 11 regular season swipes, intercepted one pass from Tech quarterback Darrell Crawford.

BOWL RECAP'S

1954 GATOR

Baylor 13
Auburn 33

December 31, 1954
Jacksonville, Fla.

Thirteenth-ranked Auburn scored five of the first six times it touched the football on its way to a 33-13 thrashing of Baylor in the 1954 Gator Bowl.

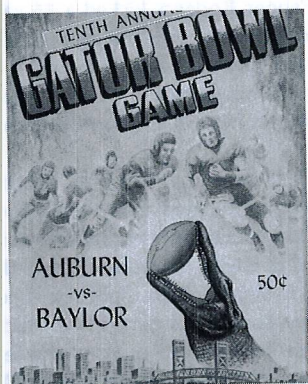

The Tigers, who established three Gator Bowl records and tied another in the rout, outgained Baylor 476 to 239 in total yardage.

Bear all-conference halfback Del Shofner fumbled the opening kick-off and the Tigers recovered on the Bear 27-yard line. Five plays later, Auburn scored the game's first touchdown and led 7-0. Baylor tied the game by driving 63 yards in nine plays, the majority coming off a Billy Hooper pass to Charles Smith. Fullback Reuben Saage scored from a yard out and Smith kicked the conversion to tie the game at seven.

But before Baylor scored again, Auburn led 27-7. Joe Childress, the game's leading yard gainer with 134 yards, scored his second touchdown of the game and Bob James added a 43-yard scoring jaunt to give Auburn a 21-7 halftime edge.

Tiger quarterback Bobby Freeman gave his squad a 27-7 lead on a six-yard romp.

All-America halfback L. G. Dupre butted his way for a 38-yard scoring play to cut the lead to 27-13 midway through the third quarter. Dupre, the Bears' third leading rusher during the regular season behind Shofner and Allen Jones, finished his team's leading rusher against the Tigers with 69 yards. Freeman completed the scoring with a four-yard fourth quarter pass to end Jimmy Long. Hooper, an all-conference honoree, finished with nine completions in 15 attempts for 112 yards, with four of the aerials going to Smith. Dupre returned three Auburn kickoffs for 85 yards.

Baylor 13
Tennessee 7

January 1, 1957
New Orleans, La.

Reuben Saage recovered Tennessee all-American halfback Johnny Majors' fumble of a Del Shofner punt and Baylor then drove 15 yards for the winning touchdown in the Bears' 13-7 upset over the undefeated Volunteers in the 23rd annual Sugar Bowl.

Bear quarterback Buddy Humphrey scored the winning touchdown on a one-yard sneak and Don Berry added the conversion for the 10-2 Bears of coach Sam Boyd. Baylor scored first, despite being a one-touchdown underdog, when quarterback Bobby Jones threw a 12-yard scoring strike to Jerry Marcontel in the second quarter. But Majors, who averaged 5.1 yards per rush, who completed better than 60 percent of his passes and punted for a 42.3 yard average during the regular season, gave the Volunteers the lead in the third quarter by reaching paydirt from a yard out. Sammy Burklow added the PAT and Tennessee led 7-6. After the Volunteers held Baylor on their first possession of the fourth quarter, Shofner punted to the Tennessee eight. Majors returned the kick seven yards before coughing up the pigskin and Saage was there to make the big play for Baylor.

Baylor halfback Del Shofner, running behind an offensive line headed by all-American Bill Glass, finished with 88 yards rushing in 14 carries and also intercepted a Volunteer pass. For his play, Shofner, who scored ten touchdowns during the regular season, was voted the game's outstanding player. Bobby Peters contributed 60 yards rushing for Baylor while Saage added 39 yards. Bear quarterbacks Humphrey, Bobby Jones and Doyle Traylor could only complete three passes, all going to end Morcontell. Peters added 54 yards in kickoff runbacks.

BOWL RECAPS

1963 BLUEBONNET

Baylor 14
LSU 7

December 31, 1963
Houston, Texas

The fifth-annual Bluebonnet Bowl at Rice Stadium saw Baylor All-American quarterback Don Trull finish his collegiate career in grand style in the Bears' 14-7 win over LSU.

Trull, voted the contest's most outstanding back, completed 26 of 37 passes for 255 yards and both Baylor touchdowns. End James Ingram, the game's most outstanding lineman, caught 11 of Trull's passes for 163 yards and seven- and 13-yard scoring strikes. The Bears totally dominated their opponent, running 80 plays to LSU's 39 and racking up 394 total yards compared to the Tigers' 108.

Dalton Hoffman was the leading rusher for both teams, gaining 70 yards for Baylor, who ended the season 8-3. Tom Davies kicked both Baylor conversions.

The Tigers scored first, moving 43 yards in seven plays in the first quarter. Bill Soefker went the final eight steps for LSU and the Tigers led 7-0.

Baylor scored their first touchdown with 13:10 remaining as Trull hit Ingram for the seven-yard strike. The Bears moved 68 yards in ten plays for the score with Trull completing three passes. On their next possession, the Bears drove 70 yards in 11 plays for the winning score. Four completed Trull attempts, two each to Lawrence Elkins and Ingram, highlighted the scoring march.

Baylor, who lost to Oregon State, Texas and Kentucky during the regular season, was led during the year by all-Americans Trull and Elkins, all-conference tackle Bobby Crenshaw and top rusher Hoffman.

Dallas, Texas

Quarterback Tom Shuman established Cotton Bowl records in passing and total offense and flanker Jimmy Cefalo did likewise in receiving yards in Penn State's 41-20 decision over Baylor.

For the fifth time in their 10-victory 1974 season, the Nittany Lions came from behind to win. The victory spoiled Baylor's first appearance in the Dallas event, coming on the heels of the school's first Southwest Conference championship since 1924.

Baylor captured a 7-0 first quarter lead on Steve Beaird's four-yard blast with 44 seconds remaining in the opening quarter. A Matt Bahr 25-yard field goal closed the Bears' lead to 7-3 at intermission. After the Nittany Lions took their first lead off Tom Donchez' one-yard blast, all-conference quarterback Neal Jeffrey put Baylor ahead 14-10 with a 35-yard scoring toss to end Ricky Thompson. Three touchdowns, two by Cefalo and one by Shuman, and another Bahr field goal gave Penn State a 34-14 lead with 3:32 remaining. But the Bears, who finished 8-4 for the year, refused to fold and with 19 seconds left reserve quarterback Mark Jackson teamed with Thompson for a 11-yard touchdown.

On the ensuing kickoff, Hicks tried an onside kick only to watch Nittany Lion Joe Jackson scoop up the loose pigskin and race 50 yards for another Penn State score with two seconds left. Baylor junior safety Ken Quesenberry, who had 12 tackles and one interception, was named the game's Most Outstanding Defensive Player. Defensive back Tom Turnipseede added 11 tackles for the Bears.

Baylor 24
Clemson 18

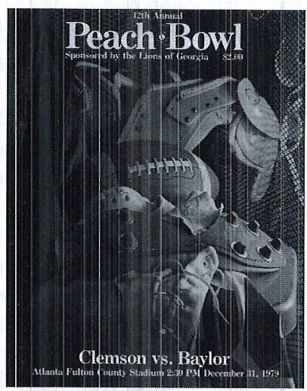

December 31, 1979
Atlanta, Ga.

Quarterbacks Mike Brannan and Mickey Elam passed for 86 yards each to spark the Baylor Bears to a 24-18 upset win over the 17th-ranked Clemson Tigers in Atlanta's Fulton County Stadium.

The win vaulted coach Grant Teaff's Bears into 14th place on the Associated Press' final college football poll. The 8-4 Bruins were beaten during the regular season by Alabama, Houston, Arkansas and Texas, all members of the Top ten.

With the Tigers leading 7-0, Brannan teamed with Bo Taylor on a three-yard touchdown toss to knot the score following Robert Bledsoe's extra point. The tally came eight plays after Baylor recorded its first of two blocked punts against Clemson kicker David Sims. They forged ahead 14-7 with 12:20 left in the second quarter when Brannan, voted the game's Most Valuable Offensive Player, connected with Robert Holt for a 24-yard scoring strike.

Baylor's final 10 points resulted from a Bledsoe 29-yard field goal and a scoring pass from Elam to Raymond Cockrell that covered seven yards.

Paul "Bear" Bryant's Alabama Crimson Tide completely dominated Baylor in the 45th annual Cotton Bowl on their way to a 30-2 rout.

The Bears, ranked as high as sixth in the nation during the regular season, closed an outstanding 10-2 and Southwest Conference championship campaign by dropping their second Cotton Bowl game in as many tries.

Alabama, which closed a 10-2 year with the win, took advantage of four Baylor fumbles and also intercepted three Bear passes to roll up a 339-158 total yardage advantage.

Three Peter Kim field goals and scoring runs by Major Ogilvie, Don Jacobs and Mark Nix put the Crimson Tide on the scoreboard while a Tommy Tabor first quarter safety made the only points the Bears could muster. The league-leading Baylor offense netted 54 yards rushing, 18 by quarterback Jay Jeffrey. SWC champion runner Walter Abercrombie was held to nine yards on eight attempts by the Alabama defense.

Fullback Dennis Gentry was the leading pass receiver in the game, grabbing five receptions while Robert Holt added three others. Also, Gerald McNeil accumulated 100 yards in kickoff and punt returns for the Bears. Tabor and all-conference linebacker Doak Field led the Baylor defensive charge with 15 stops each. All-American middle linebacker Mike Singletary, all-league safety Vann McElroy and linebacker Lester Ward each had 12 tackles for Baylor.

December 31, 1983
Houston, Texas

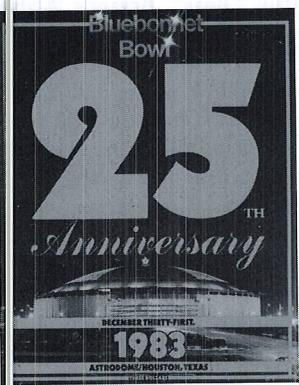

Oklahoma State raced to a 21-0 lead in the first half before finally holding off Baylor, 24-14 in the 25th annual Bluebonnet Bowl at the Astrodome.

Aided by a roughing-the-passer call and fine running by Alfred Anderson and Broderick Sargent, Baylor drove 87 yards in eight plays for its first score. Cody Carlson hit All-American Gerald McNeil with a 12-yard TD strike.

Oklahoma State scored its final points of the night on a 44-yard field goal by Larry Roach after Jim Mueller's onside kick attempt failed.

The Cowboys drove from midfield to Baylor's 27-yard line before settling for the field goal with 21 seconds left in the half.

Rusty Hilger missed the second half after being knocked out by BU linebacker Robert Watters and was replaced by reserve quarterback Ike Jackson. Jackson moved OSU to the Baylor five early in the third quarter but Thomas Everett, Aaron Grant and Kevin Hancock led one of BU's best defensive stands of the year. Roach's field goal attempt was blocked by Ervin Randle.

McNeil took a 28-yard halfback option pass from Anderson and Marty Jimmerson kicked the PAT to cut OSU's lead to 10 with 5:14 remaining. Baylor's hopes were dashed for good when Muecke was trapped for a loss of five on fourth down at the OSU 45 with 1:10 remaining.

1985 LIBERTY

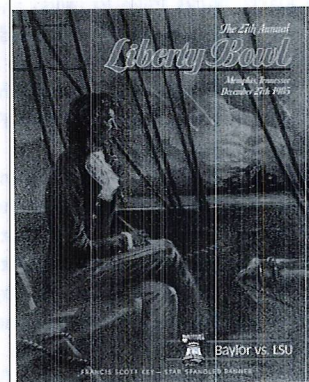

Baylor 21
LSU 7

December 27, 1985
Memphis, Tenn.

Baylor fashioned one of its finest bowl efforts ever in beating LSU 21-7 in the 27th Liberty Bowl Football Classic.

The Bears dominated virtually every phase of the game. They gained 489 yards total offense to the Tigers' 192. Baylor led in first downs (26-9), rushing yards (215-92), passing yards (274-101), yards per snap (5.4-3.3) and time of possession (37:14-22:46). The Baylor defense played so well the second half LSU gained only 72 yards on 26 plays. In the third quarter the Tigers had 11 yards total offense on nine snaps.

LSU got on the board first with a 79-yard Norman Jefferson punt return with 5:17 remaining in the first quarter and turned out to be LSU's only fireworks of the cool, clear evening.

Syler made it 10-7 with his 29-yard field goal with 5:36 left in the first half and upped the score to 13-7 with a 35-yarder early in the third quarter.

Baylor's final tally came when Carlson connected with John Simpson on a 15-yard scoring strike with 10:42 left to play. The junior quarterback, who was named the game's Most Valuable Player, then hit Clark for a two-point conversion, making the final score 21-7.

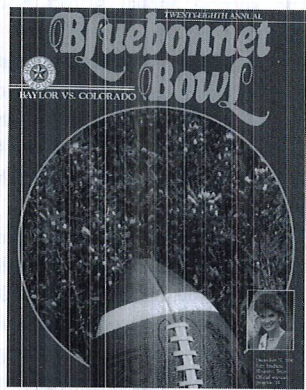

1986 BLUEBONNET

Baylor 21
Colorado 9

Houston, Texas

Baylor's defense, led by MVP Ray Berry, stymied Colorado's wish-bone offense to key a 21-9 Bear win in the 28th annual Bluebonnet Bowl. The Bears limited the Big Eight runner-up Buffaloes to only 194 total net yards, 83 of which came on the ground. Berry, called a "one man wrecking crew" by sportswriters after the game, accounted for 12 tackles, three of which resulted in 12 yards in losses.

Colorado found out early what kind of day it would be for the Baylor defensive squad. The Buffaloes managed only one field goal and 77 yards total offense in their first eight possessions through nearly three quarters of play. Meanwhile, Baylor's offense did what it had to do, scoring a touchdown in each of those first three quarters. The first Bear TD capped a 12-play, 64-yard drive in the first quarter. The drive was kept alive by a CU offside penalty when Baylor was in punt formation. The highlight play was a 22-yard run off tackle by Derrick McAdoo down to the Colorado five. Four plays later, McAdoo, a senior from Houston, dove over from the one on a fourth-down play.

Baylor next hit paydirt midway through the second stanza. It took only three plays to go eight yards after Keith Rose recovered an errant Colorado pitch.

QB Cody Carlson hit flanker Darnell Chase in the corner of the end zone on a two-yard scoring strike. Another turnover gobbled up by the BU defense set up Baylor's final score. Robert Watters sacked the Buff QB and Berry recovered on the 21. It took only four plays, one of which was a 17-yard shot from Carlson to Matt Clark, before McAdoo tied the BU school record with two TDs in a bowl game.

BOWL RECAPS

1991 COPPER

Baylor 10
Indiana 24

Tucson, Ariz.

Baylor watched two golden scoring opportunities slip through its hands while Indiana used a patient balanced attack to grind out a 24-0 victory over the Bears in Copper Bowl III in Tucson, Ariz.

Indiana jumped to a 7-0 lead, largely on the rushing of All-American Vaughn Dunbar, who finished the game with 106 yards and the Most Valuable Player Award. Late in the first quarter the Bears were driving nicely before the drive stalled at the Hoosier 21.

Lining up in field goal formation, Baylor opted for a fake pass from holder Kent Brentham to kicker Jeff Ireland. Ireland was totally uncovered on a pattern for the endzone, but the pass scraped off his fingertips.

That mishap seemed to set a pattern for Baylor's 14th bowl game and first west of Waco. IU added a field goal after a long drive late in the first and it seemed like Baylor had a chance to regroup while down by only 10 at the half. But the Hoosiers got the ball back with 2:37 remaining and drove 80 yards in 10 plays to go up 17-0 at the half. The third quarter proved to be a defensive struggle until the Bears drove from their 22 to the IU six. Then, with Baylor having a chance to get back into the game, Robert Strait fumbled into the endzone after he and quarterback J.J. Joe never quite made connections on a handoff.

With another opportunity gone, Baylor could do little the rest of the game. The Hoosiers added another score to make it 24-0 at the end. Their final scoring march went 60 yards on 12 plays and consumed 6:48. IU led in virtually every statistical category, but not to the extent which the final score would indicate. Indiana rushed for 147 yards, compared to Baylor's 138. The Hoosiers passed for 176 yards while BU had 131. The time of possession chart favored Indiana 32:55 to 27:05. The real story for Baylor seemed to be lost opportunities and mental lapses which Indiana did a fine job of exploiting.

1992 JOHN HANCOCK

Baylor 20
Arizona 15

December 31, 1992

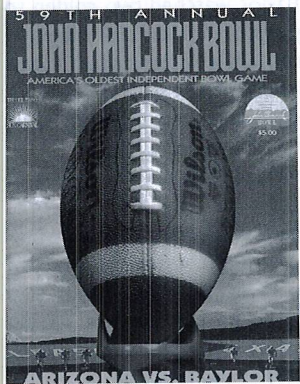

El Paso, Texas

The Grant Teaff era of Baylor football concluded in grand style as Baylor used big plays both offensively and defensively to hold off Arizona 20-15 in the 1992 John Hancock Bowl. The Wildcats, who brought perhaps the nation's best defense into the game, outgained the Bears 418 yards to 249, but BU had touchdown passes of 61 and 69 yards and the defense had a brilliant goal line stand and held UA to field goals twice.

UA jumped to a 10-0 lead midway through the second quarter. Steve McLaughlin had to settle for a 22-yard field goal after the Bear defense stopped five plays inside the Baylor six and George Malauulu scored on a quarterback draw from seven yards out. As the first half was coming to a close Baylor struck paydirt with a halfback pass from freshman Brandell Jackson to Melvin Bonner for a 61-yard TD with 2:37 remaining.

UA came back very quickly to reach the BU two, but again the defense stiffened and allowed only a field goal. It had been mostly Arizona through two quarters, but Baylor grabbed the lead for good on just the second play of the third quarter when QB J.J. Joe hit Bonner for a 69-yard scoring toss. It was a simple out-route on which Bonner broke a tackle and sprinted down the sideline for the score. The rest of the way rains became heavier and the contest turned into a battle of defenses. The highlight of the day came when Arizona moved the ball down to the Baylor eight only to be stopped on the one after four attempts. Baylor managed two field goals in the fourth quarter, a 32-yarder and 35-yarder, both by Trey Weir and UA scored when the Bears took an intentional safety. The BU defense held twice again late, stopping drives on their own 22 and 28. The final stand came with time running out and Malauulu passing into the endzone. Maston was brilliant as he led all tacklers with 11, five unassisted.

Baylor 3
Wash. State 10

San Antonio, Texas

The second annual Alamo Bowl more than lived up to its billing as a match-up between Washington State's nationally-ranked defense and Baylor's high-scoring offense. In the end, the Cougar defense prevailed in a tight 10-3 thriller that wasn't decided until the final 30 seconds.

The Cougars scored the first time they got the ball and it proved to be the game's only touchdown. WSU went 91 yards in 13 plays as Kevin Hicks scored on a one-yard plunge up the middle. Baylor appeared to have stopped the drive after holding Washington State on three quick downs, but a roughing the kicker call allowed the Cougars to retain possession.

Both defenses buckled down to dominate the rest of the way. WSU entered the game with the nation's No. 1 ranked defense, and it played as expected. The Bear defenders more than held their own after allowing the early touchdown. With both defenses playing well, it turned into a game of field position and field goals. The next two drives by each team ended in punts. After taking the second punt the Bears drove down to the Cougar 28 and attempted a 44-yard Jarvis Van Dyke field goal which fell short. Baylor's next possession ended in the same result as a 47-yarder missed the mark. WSU ended the half with a 37-yard field goal by Tony Truant to go up 10-0. The second half unfolded with more strong defensive football. Two more third quarter drives by each squad ended up in punts. Finally, with the final stanza about to get underway, the Bears got on the scoreboard. After Nikia Codie blocked a punt which landed at the Bear 25, Van Dyke hit a 36-yard field goal on a 13-play, 56-yard drive. With 3:57 left the Bears got the ball on the WSU 45. Three plays netted only a yard. Facing fourth-and-9, Watson then hit a diving Kalief Muhammad on a 33-yard pass to the 11. Three more plays lost a couple of yards.

On fourth down with 30 seconds left Watson's pass into the endzone was intercepted by Todd Jensen as WSU sealed the win.

BAYLOR UNIVERSITY

Baylor offers some of the nation's finest facilities for its football student-athletes. From the 8,000-square foot locker room located at Floyd Casey Stadium to one of America's most striking campuses, the beauty of Baylor University rises above the Brazos River in Central Texas.

The background of the entire page is a collage of four action shots of Baylor University football players. In the top left, a player in a green jersey with the number 5 is running. In the top right, a player in a green jersey with the number 76 is running. In the bottom left, a player in a green jersey with the number 82 is running with the football. In the bottom right, a player in a green jersey with the number 33 is running with the football. The Baylor 'BU' logo is prominently displayed in the center top.
